A Proclamation commanding Perſons of Qualitie to reſide in their Countries.

A.D.1623. Pat. 21. J. 1. p. 10. m 2. dorſ.

WHEREAS by two former Proclamations the one dated the twentith of November, and the other the two and twentith of December laſt, we did publiſh and declare our Royal Pleaſure concerning the Repair of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and of other Perſons of Quallitie from the Citties of London and Weſtminſter and other Parts adjacent; and from other Citties and Tounes, unto their Countrie Dwellings.

Wee have latelie cauſed a diligent Survey and Enquirie to be made in the Citties of London and Weſtminſter and the Suburbes of the ſame; wherby it appeared that as many Perſons of Qualitie and Worth, both Men and Women, have dutifully ſubmitted to our gracious Commandement, ſoe divers other have not onelie neglected the ſame, but retiring for a tyme unto ſome Places in or neere the ſaid Cities, where they ſecretlie ſojourn, or otherwiſe obſcure and cover themſelves, onelie to be out of the way of Enquiry, doe indeavour to elude and fruſtrate our ſincere and honorable Intendments whereat we aymed in both our ſaid Proclamations; which is, the reviving and ſetling of Hoſpitalitie and good Government in all the Parts of this our Kingdome:

And therefore, as we may not let paſs the Obedience of the one without our gracious Approbation and Acceptance, ſoe we cannot but give Notice to the other, that we are ſenſible of their Contempt, and that thoſe Subtilties and Evaſions can neither hide them from the Eye of our Providence, nor excuſe them from the Hande of our Juſtice which, without our greater Clemencie expecting their ſpeedy Reformation and Conformitie, would ſoone ſeize and lay hould on them for their Obſtinacie and Diſobedience.

And therefore we being fullie reſolved, for the generall Good of our People, to perfect that Worke which we have upon ſuch juſt Groundes and important Reaſons begunne, have thought fitt once more to admoniſhe all ſuch as have not yet conformed to our ſaid Proclamations, that they immediatlie yeild Obedience thereto, by repayring with their Families to their proper Dwellings and Habitations in the Countrie, as by our former Proclamations they were enjoined; and that ſuch as are att this preſent reſident in their Countries do there continue their Habitations and Families, and that all Perſons do forbeare by ſojourning in or about any Citties or Tounes

or

or by any other Evaſions whatſoever to endeavour the fruſtrating of the ſaid Proclamations.

And to the intent that none ſhould upon hope of Alteration of our Purpoſe, either take or keepe Houſes in or about the Citties of London or Weſtminſter, with Intent to withdrawe themſelves their Wives or Families thither from their Habitations in the Countrie in the Winter next enſuing, wee have thought good to let them knowe that we are fullie determined to hould the ſame courſe the which we have formerlie propounded; and therefore, they being forewarned may ſoe diſpoſe of their Affaires as with leaſt inconvenience to themſelves they may performe our Royal Commandement given by this and other our former Proclamations.

Given att our Court of Newmarkett the ſix and twentith Day of Marche 1623.

Greeting.

Where in the firſt Seſſions of Parliament holden at Weſtminſter the nyneteenth Day of March in the firſt Yeare of our Raigne of England France and Ireland, and of Scotland the ſeven and thirtieth, it was, amongſt other things, enacted that, noe Woman, nor any Childe under the Age of one and twentie Yeares, except Saylors or Shipp Boyes, or Apprentice or Factor of ſome Marchants in Trade of Marchandize, ſhould be permitted to paſs over the Seas, except the ſame ſhould be by Licence of our ſelfe our Heires or Succeſſors, or of ſome ſix or more of our Privie Councell thereunto firſt had under their Hand, uppon Payne that the Officers of the Port, that ſhould willinglie or negligently ſuffer any ſuch to paſſe, or ſhould not enter the Names of ſuch Paſſengers lycenſed, ſhould forfeite his Office and all his Goodes and Chattells; and uppon Payne that the Owner of any Ship or Veſſell, that ſhould wittinglie or willinglie carry any ſuch over the Seas without Licence, as aforeſaid, ſhould forfeite his Shipp or Veſſell and all the Tacle; and every Maſter or Maryner of or in ſuch Shipp or Veſſell offending as is aforeſaid, ſhould forfeite all their Goods, and ſuffer Impriſonment by the ſpace of twelve Monthes without Bayle or Mainprize; as by the ſaid Acte of Parliament, amongſt other things, may appeare.

And whereas alſoe divers of our Subjects have repayred, and daylie do repaire into this our Realme of England, from the part beyond the Seas, many of them being Perſons knowne to be dangerous; and others unknowne, and therefore may be ſo far perverted in the Points of theire Loyalty and due Allegiance unto Us, as they are not fit to be receaved into this our Realm.

And whereas alſoe in an Acte of Parliament intituled An Act for the better diſcovering and repreſſing of Popiſh Recuſants, cuſants, made in the third Yeare of our Raigne of England France and Ireland and of Scotland the nyne and thirtieth, it was amongſt other things enacted, that it ſhould be lawfull to and for any Biſhopp in his Dioces, or any two Juſtices of the Peace, whereof one to be of the Quorum, within the Lymits of their Juriſdiction, to miniſter the Oath ſpecified in the ſaid Statute made in the third Yeare of our Raigne, and thereby ordeyned for the Triall how our Subjects did ſtand affected in Points of their Loyaltie and due Obedience to divers kinds of Perſons and in divers Caſes in the ſaid Statute lymitted and appointed.

A.D. 1623. 21 Jac. I.

And whereas many of our Subjects that is to ſaye, Women, and Perſons under Age of one and twenty Yeares, have from tyme to tyme juſt and neceſſarie Cauſes and Occaſions to goe and paſſe over the Seas; in which caſes for every ſuch of our Subjects to obtayne ſuch Licence from our ſelfe, or from ſix of our ſaid Privy Councell according to the ſaid Lawe is verie inconvenient and almoſt impoſſible.

Knowe ye therefore that We, of our eſpecial Grace certaine Knowledge and meere Motion, for the Expedition of our ſaid Subjects that ſhall have ſuch occaſions to paſs over the Seas, and to quit our ſelfe and our Privy Councell of that continuall Suite, and of the loſſe of tyme that in our more important Affayres is to be beſtowed; truſting in your approved Wiſdomes Fidelities and Circumſpections have aſſigned and appointed you to be our Commiſſioners, and by theſe Preſents we doe give unto you, or any fower or more of you, full Power and Authoritie from tyme to tyme to miniſter an Oath to all Women and Perſons under the Age of one and twentie Yeares (being of convenient Age to take an Oath) that ſhall Offer or deſire to paſs over the Seas at our Port of London, to anſwere truely to ſuch Queſtions as you, or any two or more of you, ſhall aske of them; and uppon ſuch their Oath to aske and learne of them their true Names and Sirnames, the Place of their Birth and Aboade, their State and Degree, and Vocation Miſtery or Occupation, and the true cauſe and cauſes of their goeing over, together with their Place or Places whither they intend or are to goe, and the tyme that they intend or are like to ſtay or tarry before they retorne; and all other Queſtions that in your Diſcretions

according to the occaſions you ſhall thinke fitt; and if there be any Children under fitt Age to be putt to anſwere uppon their Oath, or that goe over as the Familie, or under the Conduct of others there preſent; then touching ſuch and all things concerning them, to the Purpoſe aforeſaid, ye ſhall likewiſe examyne the Perſons of whoſe Family, or under whoſe charge or Conduct, they are to paſs,

Of all which Perſons and their Anſweres in the Points aforeſaid, or what elſe in your Diſcretions you ſhall think fit to demand of them; and of the time of their Paſſage, we will that you make orderly and perfect Entry in a Book, and keep the ſame to be extant upon all occaſions; uppon which Examinations ſo by you taken and entred, ſuch of the ſaid Perſons intending to goe over the Seas, as you ſhall find to go for Traffick Trade or Merchandize or Wives Children or Servants to their Husbands Parents or Maſters, being Perſons not publiquely noted of any diſloyall or dangerous Action or Affection, you ſhall and may allowe and ſuffer to paſſe; and thereupon you, or any fower or more of you, ſhall ſignifie under your hands and Seals the ſaid Perſons to be alloweable to paſſe over the Seas at the Port of London aforeſaid: of which your Teſtimoniall you ſhall alſoe enter or cauſe to be entred in the ſaid Booke a ſhort Remembrance uppon which your Teſtimoniall or Teſtimonialls ſoe made theſe our Letters Patents ſhall be unto the ſaid Perſons themſelves, ſoe by you under ſuch your Teſtimonialls allowed, a ſufficient Warrant to paſs and goe over the Seas at the Port of London aforeſaid; and to all and every the Cuſtomers Comptrollers Searchers and other Officers of the ſaid Porte, to lett them paſſe there without other Licence to be had or other Entrie of the Names of ſuch Paſſengers by them or any of them to be made or taken; and to all Owners Shippers, Maſters Mariners of any Shipps or Veſſels, to carry and convey them from thence over the Seas: The ſaid Statute made in the firſt Yeare of our Raigne of England France and Ireland, and our Proclamation lately publiſhed, bearing Date at our Pallace of Weſtminſter, the ninth Day of July in the fifte Yeare of our Raigne of England France and Ireland, prohibiting our Subjects to paſſe or departe out of this our Realme of England without our ſpeciall Lycence; and all or any other Ordi-

Ordinances Lawes or other thinges to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Provided nevertheles, that if any the Perſons ſoe paſſing over as aforeſaid, ſhall after his Departure out of this Realme, doe committ putt in ure attempt or aſſent unto any Act Deviſe Plott or Thing againſt Us, or any of our Kingdomes or Dominions, or againſt any our Lawes or Statuts; that every ſuch Perſon, ſoe offending, ſhall looſe the Benefitt of our Warrant of our ſaid Letters Patents, and ſhall to all Intents and Purpoſes be taken and adjudged to be as one that malitiouſly and contemptuouſly did paſſe or departe out of this Realme contrary to the tenor and effect of the ſaid Statute and our ſaid Proclamation.

Provided alſoe and our Will and Pleaſure is, that ſuch, as by your Examination you ſhall fynd, or otherwiſe diſcover or ſuſpect, to be Perſons dangerous, or fitt to be made Inſtruments of deſperate Attempts, to ſuch you ſhall not only deny Paſſage, but alſo committ them to ward, and ſhall forthwith certifie our Privy Councell of them, and all thinges that you ſhall underſtand concerning them, whereuppon ſuch Directions as you ſhall receave from our ſaid Councell, our Will is, that you doe in all thinges followe and obſerve.

And foraſmuch as we are informed, that divers unknowne and ſuſpected Perſons doe daylie repaire into this our Realme of England from the Part beyond the Seas at our ſaide Porte of London; and becauſe it may be that neither the Biſhopp of that Dioces, nor two Juſtices of the Peace, ſuch as are appointed by the ſaid Statute made in the third Yeare of our Raigne, are alwayes reſident or abiding in our ſaid Port of London; wee therefore have authoriſed and appointed you, and by theſe Preſents doe give full Power and Authority unto you, and any fower or more of you, to tender and miniſter the ſaid Oath mentioned in the ſaid Statute, made in the ſaid third Yeare of our Raigne, unto all and every ſuch Perſon and Perſons or Subjects, coming from the Part beyond the Seas into this our Realme of England at our ſaid Porte of London or any the Creekes Members or Lymitts of the ſame, to whome by the ſaid Statute made in the ſaid third Yeare of our Raign the ſaid Oath may be tendred; and if any of the ſaid Perſon or Perſons ſhall refuſe to take the ſaid Oath before you, or any fower or more of you as aforeſaid, and ſhall alſo refuſe preſently to depart this our Realme and all other our Domynions; whereof wee will and commaund, and by theſe Preſents doe authoriſe you to give them their free choyce; then we will and commaund and by theſe Preſents doe give full Power and Authority unto you, or any fower or more of you as aforeſaid, to convey and ſend the Bodyes of every ſuch Perſon and Perſons, ſoe refuſeing before the Biſhopp of that Dioces, or before two of the Juſtices of Peace authoriſed by the ſaid Acte to miniſter the ſaid Oath, who ſhall and may tender the ſaid Oath to ſuch Perſon and Perſons that ſhall have made Refuſall before you in both the caſes aforeſaid; to the end that if they ſhall agayne refuſe the ſaid Oath before them, they may thereuppon be committed to the common Goale, there to remayne without Bayle or Maynpriſe, to be proceeded withall according to the ſaid Statute as ſhall appertaine:

Nevertheles if there be or ſhall be either by force of Commiſſion or Charter, two Juſtices of Peace (whereof one of the Quorum) in or neare the ſaid Porte at any time when any occaſion ſhall be to miniſter the ſaid Oath to any ſuch Perſons arriving, or offring to arrive at the ſaid Port or Place aforeſaid, then our meaning is, that ſuch Juſtices ſhall or may proceed to the miniſtring of the ſaid Oath unto any ſuch Perſon or Perſons in caſes requiſite, and by the ſaid Statute appointed, according to the Preſcripts and Warrant of the ſaid Lawe (except ſuch Perſon or Perſons will rather chooſe preſently to depart this our Realme and other our Domynions as aforeſaid) and therefore we command you, or fower or more of you as aforeſaid, that with all Diligence you doe execute the Premiſſes with effect, not ſuffring any ſuch Perſon or Perſons as is aforeſaid, to paſſe without due Examination of this our Commiſſion.

And we alſoe commaund by Authority hereof, all and ſinguler our Juſtices of Peace, Mayors Sheriffs Bayliffes Conſtables Headboroughes, and all other our Officers Miniſters and Subjects to whom in this caſe it ſhall or may appertaine, to be ayding helping and aſſiſting to you, and any fower or more of you, in the due Execution

A Proclamation for Regiſtring of Knights.

A.D.1623. Ibid. p. 10. m. 3. dorſ.

WHereas Wee have taken Knowledge of many and great Inconveniences daily ariſeing for want of an exact Roll kept in the Office of Armes of ſuch as have received from Us the Order of Knighthood, whereby ſome have preſumed to challendge that Dignitie, uppon whom the ſame was never conferred; and, amongſt them that were indeed Knighted, often Queſtions ariſe for Precedencie; which cannot be decided for want of a Record kept thereof: For Redreſs whereof we directed our Letters dated the Fifeteenth Day of May laſt, to our right truſty and right welbeloved Coſen and Councellor, Thomas Earle of Arrundell and Surrey our Earl Marſhal of England; That, according as appertaineth to that his Office, he ſhould take order therein: Nevertheles, by reaſon of the Slacknes and Negligence of ſuch as have been by Us advanced unto that Degree, in not giving notice thereof to the ſaid Earle Marſhal or his Deputie, our ſaid Letters have not taken effect according to our intent.

We do therefore hereby publiſh and declare our Royal Pleaſure, and doe ſtreightly charge and command, that all ſuch Perſons, as ſithence the ſaid Fifeteenth Day of May laſt paſt, have received that Dignitie; ſhall, within three moneths after the publiſhing of this our Proclamation, and others that ſhall hereafter receave the like Dignitie from Us or any our Lievetenaunts, ſhall within one Moneth after they have received the ſame within this our Realme of England, or within one Moneth next after their coming into this Realme, if they receive the ſame out of the Realme, bringe or cauſe to be brought a ſufficient Certificate therof, and of the time therof, to our Earle Marſhall of England for the tyme being, or to ſuch other Perſon or Perſons as he ſhall appoint, to the end the ſame may be Regiſtred in a Roll to be therefore kept in the Office of Armes, uppon pain that everie Perſon neglecting to bring ſuch Certificate ſhall loſe the Benefit of his due Precedencie, and in all Commiſſions, Imployments and Places ſhall be ranked after ſuch as upon the Certificat brought ſhall be Regiſtred before them;

And wee doe likewiſe ſignifie and declare our Pleaſure to be, that all ſuch, as at any tyme before the ſaid Fifeteenth Day of May laſt paſt, did receave the ſaid Order of Knighthood att our Hands, ſhall at any tyme hereafter bring ſuch Certificat as aforeſaid, and ſhall have the ſame Regiſtred as aforeſaid, for clearing all Controverſies and Queſtions that may ariſe touching their Precedencie.

Given at our Court of Windſor the ſeaven and twentith Day of Aprill, in the one and twentith Yeare of our Raigne of Great Brittaine France and Ireland 1623.

A Proclamation for the Search and Apprehenſion of Henry Feild.

A.D. 1623. Pat. 21. J. 1. p. 10. m. 4. dorſ.

FORASMUCH as one Henrie Feild, having by our ſpeciall Command bene apprehended for greate Contempts and Offences by him done againſt our ſelfe and our Lawes, hath twoe ſeverall tymes reſcued himſelf and eſcaped away from thoſe that had him in their Cuſtodie, and now as it ſeemeth lurketh very cloſelie in ſome ſecret Places, and will not ſubmitt himſelfe to Juſtice, to the great Abuſe and inſufferable Contempt of us and our Regall Authoritie;

Wee have thought it fitt to publiſh his Eſcape and Contempt to all our loving Subjects, not doubting of their care and forwardnes in his Diſcoverie and Apprehenſion: And wee do hereby chardge and command all Juſtices of Peace Mayors Sheriffs Conſtables Hedboroughes, and all other our Officers Miniſters and Subjects whatſoever, to be diligent in inquiring and ſearching for the ſaid Henrie Feild in all Places whatſoever; as well within Liberties as without, whome if they ſhall happen to finde, our Pleaſure is, they take and ſend him, with ſufficient Guard, to the Goale of the Countie or Place where he ſhall be taken, there to remaine in ſafe Cuſtodie; and preſentlie to advertiſe one of our principall Secretaries of his Apprehenſion.

And wee doe promiſe to beſtow upon ſuch Perſon as ſhall apprehende the ſaid Feild, or cauſe him to be apprehended, the Somme of tenn Pounds for ſuch his Care and Paines therein; and as wee are pleaſed to reward the Indeavours of ſuch as ſhall be zealous in

A.D.1623. 21 Jac. I. in Performance of this our Pleaſure, ſo we doe hereby lett all Men knowe that if any Perſon, after this our Proclamation publiſhed, ſhall directlie or indirectlie conceale harbor keepe releive or maintaine the ſaid Henry Feild, or ſhall not uſe their beſt Indeavor for his apprehenſion, as well by giveing due advertiſement thereof to our Officers, as by all other good meanes; wee will (as there is juſt cauſe) proceed againſt them ſo neglecting this our Commandement with all Severitie.

And to the end the ſaid Henry Feild may the better be diſcovered, wee have thought fitt to deſcribe him herein.

Hee is a Man of a middle Stature, about forty Yeares of Age, ſome Pockholes about his Noſe, his Face lean, his Complexion ſallowe, very hollow eyed, the Hair of his Head browniſhe, his Beard ſomewhat lighter, thynne of Haire and cutt ſhort and blunt; when he was laſt ſeene he wore a Cloth Suite of darke greene colour with two Laces in a Seame of a lighter colour. De Intercurſu Mercandiſarum cum Imperatore Ruſſiæ.

A.D. 1623. Rot. Tractat. 21. J. 1. m. 6. Articles of a perpetuall League of Amity and Alliance, Entercourſe and Commerce accorded and agreed uppon betweene the moſt high and mighty Prince James, by the Grace of God Kinge of Greate Brittaine Fraunce and Ireland Defendor of the Faith &c. and the greate Lord Emperour and great Duke, Michall Pheodorowith, by the ſame Grace, of all Ruſſia, ſole Commaunder of Volodemir Moſco Novogrod Kinge of Cazan, Kinge of Aſtrecan, Kinge of Siberia, Lord of Vobiſco, and Greate Duke of Smolensky, Twersky, Ugasky, Permsky, Vatsky, Bolgarsky, and others, alſo Lord and Greate Duke of Novogrod in the lower Countries of Cheringo, Rezansky, Polotsky, Roſcovesky, Yeroſlavesky, Bolozorsky, Udorsky, Obdorsky, Condinsky, and Commaunder of the Northerne Parts, alſo Lord of the Countrie of Iversky Cartarmsky and Kinge of Gruſinsky, Caberdinsky, Cherkasky, and of the Dukedome of Igorsky, and of many other Kingdomes Lord and Conquerour,

First, it is concluded and accorded, that this Aliance ſhall remaine ſincere firme and perfecte and be for ever inviolably obſerved and kepte betweene the ſaid moſt renowned Prince and greate Lord James Kinge of Greate Brittaine, and the ſaid moſt renowned greate Lord Emperour and Great Duke Michaell Pheodorowith of all Ruſſia ſole Commander and the Heires and Succeſſors Crownes Kingdomes and People of either of them, and that their Subjectes and People as the renowned Princes themſelves ſhall love like Brethren and be as one Nation, wiſhing the good Honor and Reputation one of another both by Word and Deede.

It is alſo agreed that neither of the ſaid great Princes their Heires or Succeſſors by themſelves or Subjects or by anie other forraine Lord or State, ſhall practize doe or treate anie thing againſte the other, or againſt their Kingdomes Dominions or People in any place or by anie meanes whatſoever, much leſſe ſhall make or joyne with each others Enemy in any War, Advice, Councell, Attempt, or Treaties had made or to be made in the Prejudice of either or againſt th'other, but contrarywiſe, they ſhall wiſh and ſeek the mutuall Good and Welfare the one of the other noe leſſe than their owne, and on both ſydes perform the Acts of Friendſhip and Amitie.

It is further concluded, that neither of the ſaid renowned Princes ſhall ayd or aſſiſt the other's Enemy, which at this preſent is or hereafter may be, with Men of Warre Munition Victualls or other ſuch like materiall or proviſions for the Warr, nor ſhall ſuffer anie Armies of Souldiers from other Prince's Dominions to be conveied through his Kingdomes and Dominions againſt his ſaid Confederate, but on the other ſide ſhall ſeeke to turn awaie that which might ſtretch to the Enemies Purpoſe, and to avoide divert and impeache all hurtfull Practizes that might anie waie ariſe or happen to his ſaid Confederate.

It is alſo agreed betweene the ſaid renowned Princes, that if hereafter there happen anie Queſtion of Warr to arriſe againſt the one or the other, hee that ſhall ſuſpect ſuch Warr ſhall advertiſe advertiſe his Confederate thereof in good tyme, and as much as in him lyeth ſhall uſe all good Indeavours by his Advice and Mediation to lay down by ſome friendly accorde ſuch differences and queſtions out of which any Warr might happen to ariſe or proceede, ſoe as the chardge of anie ſuch Mediation may reflecte uppon the Partie that ſhall require it.

It is likewiſe provided by vertue of this Alyance, that if in caſe anie ſuch difference ſhould break out into open Warr, and cannot be laid down with Amitie and Friendſhipp, then the one and th'other ſhall ſuffer his Confederate to make computent Levies of hired Soldiers within their Kingdomes, and notwithſtanding all generall prohibitions to the contrarie, ſhall have good leave at all tymes by their Agent and Servantes to buy upp all manner of needefull Proviſions for the Warres, and Victualls Armor, Munition, Ordinance, Artillerie, or other ſuch materialls for the Warr, what the one or the other deſireth or may have neede of, and to tranſporte the ſame awaie without lett or interruption as farr as the ſame maye reaſonablie ſtand with the Commoditie of that Prince's ſtate in whoſe Kingdomes reſpectively thoſe Leavies and Proviſions are to be made.

In caſe alſo if anie ſuch Warr to be raiſed, or Invaſion to be made, the Confederates ſhall not permitt the Enemie to make Leavies of Souldiers, or take upp any manner of Warlike Munition whatſoever within their Kingdomes and Domynions to the Prejudice of either of the Confederates reſpectively.

If anie of the Subjects of either of theis renowned Princes, their Marchaunts or voluntarie Souldiers tradinge and ſerveinge in other Countries, without the Princes leave ſhall be founde under colour of Commerce or anie pretexte whatſoever to carry anie manner of Warlike Munition to the Enemie, or receave Entertainment with the Enemy, and ſo happen to be taken in the Warres, yt ſhall not be imputed to the renowned Princes or held for anie Breach of Contracte, but that the Partie offending ſhall take the Perill upon his owne head.

If it ſhall happen that anie Warr be hereafter raiſed uppon either of theis renouned Princes, wherein the one and the other be willinge to interpoſe themſelves, it ſhall not be lawfull either for the one or the other to deale or handle with each others Enemye concerninge anie Peace or Surceſſe of Armes, without expreſſe conſent of each Partie.

And foraſmuch as this preſent Aliance is chiefely contracted for the better confirmation and ſtrengtheninge of thoſe auncient Treaties continewed unto this day betweene the Royall Perſons of ſoe many renowned Princes of thoſe twoe mightie Kingdomes of England and Ruſſia ſucceſſively, wherby each hath enjoyed the other's Frindſhipp to the ſinguler Benefitt of the Subjects of them both, the flowriſhinge Wellfare Honnor and Commoditie of both which States Kingdomes and People the ſaid renowned Princes nowe raigning doe mutually deſire ſhould ever continew happy and entire from Violence and Wronge of Enemies; it is by the free conſent of both their renouned Majeſties agreed that this Aliance ſhall be underſtood not to diminiſhe the Amitie which their renouned Majeſties have at this Day with any the mighty Princes free States and Seigniories their Adherents Friendes and Confederates.

It is alſo agreed and accorded between the moſt renowned Princes, that all ſuch Priviledges and Grauntes for Freedome of Trade and Commerce as by Treaties have bin given and graunted to the Engliſhe Merchants by his renowned Majeſtie of all Ruſſia and his noble Progenitors, ſhall remaine and ſtand in their full force and ſtrength; and that by vertue of this Alyance the Subjects of both the renouned Princes may freely and peaceablie, without anie Hinderance or Moleſtation both by Land and Sea and within the freſh Water Rivers of each others Countries, uſe all kind of Traffick and Merchandize whatſoever, and may buy up and freely tranſport away all manner of Jewells pretious Stones and whatſoever elſe fittinge for both the renouned Princes Treaſuries reſpectively, with as much Freedome and Libertie as if they were the Natives borne of the ſelfe ſame Country; provided that this Freedome of Trade and Commerce be underſtood on the parte and behalfe of the Subjects of his renouned Majeſtie of Greate Brittaine for all ſuch Merchants onlie and none other as are allowed to trade into the Domynions of Ruſſia by the Licenſe and Leave of their Soveraigne the ſaid renowned Kinge of Greate Brittaine, and according to the gracious Letters and Priviledges granted to the Engliſh Merchants by his renouned Majeſtie of all Ruſſia, and by his noble Father the right Reverend greate Lord and holy Patriarch Feloret Nekitich of Moſco and of all Ruſſia, or by what other Letters or Priviledges his renouned Majeſtie of all Ruſſia and the holy Patriarch ſhall be pleaſed to inlarge unto them; and on the parte and behalfe of the Subjects of his renouned Majeſtie of all Ruſſia for all ſuch of his Merchants and none other as ſhall be allowed to trade into the Domynions of Great Brittain by the Licence and Leave of the ſaid renouned Majeſtie of all Ruſſia, and according to the gracious Priviledges and Grantes of both their renouned Majeſties.

And for that the renouned Princes in their oune Perſons do tenderly ſeek the ſtrickt obſervation of this Aliance and League, and the maintenance of Trade and Commerce in their ſeverall Kingdomes, which cannot but be indangered except that tymely Providence be alſo uſed with the Subjects of them both; it is therefore ordeyned that ſuch of their Subjects as ſhall preſume to make their Recourſe into the one or the other's Kingdome by way of merchandizeinge, without the ſpeciall Lycence and Conſent of their oune Soveraigne Kinge and Lord, or that will deny under their own Hand their Allegiance to their Soveraigne, ſhall be excluded from the Protection and Benefitt of this Treatie; and ſuch of the Engliſh Natione as ſhall be founde in that manner in the Kingdome of Ruſſia, to be preſently apprehended; and, togither with their Goodes, delivered unto the Agent of his renouned Majeſtie of Great Brittaine at that tyme reſideinge in Ruſſia; and ſuch of the Ruſſia Natione as ſhall be founde in England ſhall, in like manner, be delivered, with their Goodes, into his renowned Majeſtie of all Ruſſia his cheife Merchants hands at that tyme reſideing in England.

And if there happen anie matter of difference whether for Debte Reckoning or Treſpaſſe; or other Injury whatſoever, betweene the ſaid renouned Princes Merchants and Subjects in either of their Kingdomes, they ſhall cauſe true Juſtice to be miniſtred without delaye to the Merchantes, according to their Priviledges, and to all other People, according to the Lawes of the Country.

A.D.1623.
21 Jac. I.

In like manner the ſaid renouned Princes doe lovingly promiſe that they will defend and protect, as well by themſelves as by their Officers and People of Authoritie in all places of their Dominions, the Merchants and Subjects of each other from all Wrongs and Injuries that might anie waie be offered, as if they were the Natives borne of their own Countrey.

And if it happen in either of the ſaid renouned Princes Domynions, that anie of their Subjects by due courſe of Lawe be founde guiltie of any Crime deſerving Death, the Partie ſoe offending ſhall not be put upon the Torture nor puniſhed with Death, but be kept in Priſon till ſuch tyme as the ſaid renowned Princes may have Knowledge thereof, and accordinge to the Anſwer given the matter to be followed.

And the ſaid renouned Princes doe religiouſlie promiſe that the Merchants and other Subjects of both their Majeſties, while they have recourſe to and from either of their Dominions, and doe remaine there uppon their juſt occaſions, and ſhall freely and quietly enjoye their oune Religion and Faith according to the cuſtome and orders of their owne Churche, and that in caſe of Conſcience, they ſhall no waie be moleſted or injured.

The Ambaſſadors Meſſengers or Poſtes of both the ſaid renouned Princes, which ſhall be ſent unto the one or the others Countries uppon any their Princely Affaires, ſhall freely paſs without lett or interruption, both with their People and Goodes whatſoever, according to the right meaninge of this Contracte.

Moreover, if either the ſaid renowned Princes have occaſion to ſend their Ambaſſadors Meſſengers or Poſts through the Countries and Dominions of the other unto and from Germany France Spain Denmarke Sweathland and Netherland, or unto and from Perſia Turkey and other Partes of the Eaſt, which are not in open Hoſtilitie with either of their renowned Majeſties; or if they ſhall happen by anie caſualtie by Land or by Water, either in their goeing or retorneing, to receive in either of their Countries, they ſhall be ſuffered freely and peaceablie to paſſe with all their Goodes and People whatſoever to ſuch Place as their Princes Paſſe ſhall direct them, and with meet convey ſhall be ſafely conducted both by Land and Water thorough either of their Domynions, without the leaſt forcible forcible deteyninge or hinderance whatſoever.

And moreover alſo if the Ambaſſadors Meſſengers or Poſtes of the ſaid renouned Princes ſhall happen to die in the one or the others Dominions, whether goeing retorneing or paſſing thorough the ſame, his Friendes and People and Goodes whatſoever remaininge ſhall not only be preſerved from Wrong and Injurie, but ſuffered to paſſe away at their oune Wills; and in caſe the Parties ſoe deceaſinge ſhall have no Friend or Servant in the Place at the time of his Death, the Goodes remaining ſhall be ſafely layde upp and ſent unto the Friendes of the deceaſed.

And if it happen that the Marchants or Subjects of the ſaid renouned Princes ſhall ſuffer Wracke uppon the Coaſtes or within the Rivers of the Domynions of either, whether by caſualtie tempeſt or other misfortune whatſoever, in ſuch caſe the Goodes ſaved ſhall be freely reſtored to the Owners, only allowinge a reaſonable conſideration to the People of the Country which ſhall be aydinge and helping in the recovery thereof.

The Marchants of the ſaid renowned Princes which ſhall come into the Dominions of the one or the other in Company with Ambaſſadors Meſſengers or Poſtes; or otherwiſe of themſelves, whether with Goodes or without Goodes, provided it be not without Licence or Knowledge of their own Prince and Soveraigne, they ſhall be well and gently intreated, and their Goodes reſerved free to themſelves, and ſoe ſuffered to paſſe and departe awaye at their oune Pleaſures, without the moleſtation of anie Power or Authority.

A.D.1623.
21 Jac. I.

And for the greater Teſtimony and more firm aſſurance that the ſeverall Articles and Capitulation in this preſent Treatie ſhall be faithfully firmely and inviolably held and obſerved by the ſaid renouned Princes themſelves and procured to be obſerved and kept by their Subjects and Inhabitants, his ſaid renouned Majeſtie of Great Brittaine hath ſubſcribed this Contract with his oune hand and ſealed it with his Royall Seale: in like manner his renouned Majeſty of all Ruſſia hath given an Inſtrument or Contract of the ſame tenor, and ſealed it with the great Seale of his Kingdome.

Given in the Princely Pallace of Weſtminſter of his renouned Majeſtie of Great Brittaine the ſixeteenth Day of June (Anno Domini 1623) and in the one and twentieth Yeere of his ſaid Majeſties Reign of Great Brittaine Fraunce and Ireland.

A Proclamation for the well ſtoaring and furniſhing the Realme with Corne.

A.D. 1623. Pat. 21. J. 1. p. 10. dor.

THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY,

Obſerving that in the times of Dearth his loving Subjects, eſpeciallie the poorer Sort, are pinched with the great Want and dear Prices of Corn; and that the Treaſure of the Kingdome in thoſe times is much exhauſted in providing of Corne from forreine parts; and again that in the tymes of Plenty the Farmor and Husbandman, by their low Prices and want of Vent of theire Corne are hardly able to ſupport their neceſſarie charge, nor the Landlord to uphold his Rent;

And foreſeeing,

As well by Reaſon, as by the Example of forreine Nations, that theſe things may not only in ſome good meaſure be remedied, but alſo divers Benefitts procured unto the common Wealth; as the increaſe of Tillage, better ventinge of our native Commodities, Strength to our Shipping, and breeding of many Mariners, by erecting Magazins of Corne which in tymes of Scarcity may ſerve to keep downe the Price of forraign Corne, and in times of Plenty may keep upp the Price of our Home Corne at ſuch reaſonable Rates as will well maintein the Husbandmans Labor, and hold up the Gentlemans Rents;

Hath commaunded the Lordes of his Majeſties Privy Councell, not only to take the ſame into their own ſerious conſideration, but to underſtand the opinion of divers Gentlemen of Qualitie and Knowledge, and of the ableſt and beſt experienced Merchants; all which haveing been carefully and effectually performed,

A.D.1623.
21 Jac. 1.

His Majeſtie, uppon deliberate Adviſe with his Privie Councell, hath reſolved and doth hereby ſignifie his Royall Pleaſure that Magazins of Corn ſhall and may be erected by ſuch Marchants, and others as ſhall be willing to adventure therein, in the Portes and Places hereafter mentioned; that is to ſay, London, Dover, Portſmouth, Southampton, Briſtowe, Exeter, Plymouth, Ipſwich, Lynn, Yarmouth, Hull, Yorke, Newcaſtle, Cheſter, Lerpoole, and Haverford Weſt; and in all the Shire Townes of this Realme,

And to the intent the ſaid Magazins may be ſtored with convenient Proviſion of Corne, his Majeſtie is pleaſed, that it ſhall and may be lawfull to and for any the Marchants or other the Subjects of this his Realm to import from forreine parts ſuch Quantities of Corne as to them ſhall ſeem good to be ſtored and laid upp in the ſaid Magazins, paying to his Majeſtie only the Cuſtomes and Subſidies due for the ſame according to the preſent Book of Rates, as hath bene heretofore accuſtomed to be paid and no otherwiſe.

And further, that all and every Perſon and Perſons ſhall and may buy and provide within this Realme, for the ſtoring and furniſhing of the ſaid Magazins, ſuch Quantities of Engliſh Corn as to them ſhall ſeem good, at ſuch times only as the moſt uſuall Prices of Engliſh Wheat ſhall be under thirtie twoe Shillings the Quarter; Engliſh Rye under eighteene Shillings the Quarter; and Engliſh Barley under ſixteen Shillings the Quarter reſpectively, in the Counties where the ſame ſhall be bought and provided.

And, for the better Encouragement of ſuch as ſhall adventure in the ſaid Magazins, his Majeſtie is well pleaſed that all ſuch forrein Corne, as ſhall be thither brought, may be freely ſold and tranſported into any the parts beyond the Seas being in League or Amytie with his Majeſtie, ſoe as at the tyme of ſuch Tranſportation the Rate and moſt uſuall Price of Engliſh Corn, in the three next adjacent Counties unto the ſaid Magazins whence ſuch Tranſportation ſhall be, do not exceed fortie Shillings the Quarter of Wheate, twentie ſix Shillings eight Pence the Quarter of Rye, and twentie Shillings the Quarter of Barley reſpectively; but whenſoever the ſaid ſeverall Prices of Corne ſhall exceed the Rates laſt above mentioned, then all forrien Corn ſhall be ſtored and kepte within the ſaid Magazins, and ſhall be ſould and vented only within this Realme for the Proviſion of the ſame, and not elſewhere;

A.D.1623.
21 Jac. 1.

And when as the moſt uſuall Rate of Engliſh Corne ſhall be under thirtie twoe Shillinges the Quarter of Wheate, eighteene Shillings the Quarter of Rye, and ſixteene Shillinges the Quarter of Barley, then no forreyne Corn ſhall be ſould within this Realme for any other purpoſe and intent but only to be ſtored and laid up in the ſaid Magazins, or to be tranſported into the partes beyond the Seas as aforeſaid, paying the due Cuſtomes and Subſidies for the Engliſh Corn, to the intent the Price of Engliſh Corne may be held up at ſome fitting proportion for the Benefitt of the Farmor and Husbandman, and that ſuch Corne, ſoe to be tranſported may produce and return a proportion of Coyne for the repleniſhing of the Treaſure of this Kingdome.

And his Majeſties Pleaſure is, that noe Perſon or Perſons, doing any thing according to the tenor of this his Royall Proclamation, ſhall be therefore troubled moleſted or diſquieted by any Action Sute or Information uppon any Lawe or Statute touching the ingroſſing or tranſporting of Corne or other Penall Lawe to that Purpoſe made, his Majeſtie in his Grace and Favour to his Subjects, and for the publique Good, being contented to diſpence with the Penalties and Forfeitures thereof in all the perticulers abovementioned: but againſt all other Offendors, not hereby diſpenced with, the ſaid Lawes and Statutes ſhall be putt in exact Execution:

And his further Pleaſure is, that all ſuch forreine Corne for which the Duties firſt abovementioned ſhall be paid upon Importation thereof, ſhall be freed from the Payment of any Cuſtome Subſidie or Impoſt whenſoever the ſame ſhall be again exported by the firſt Importer thereof, or by any other Perſon, whether the Propertie thereof be altered or not altered before the Exportation thereof.

And for avoyding all Deceipte and Abuſe contrary to the true meaning hereof, his Majeſties Will and Pleaſure is, that noe Corne hereafter be tranſported as forrein Corne but upon Oath made, in the Cuſtome houſe of the Porte out of which the ſame ſhall be tranſported, that the ſame Corn did

A.D.1623. 21 Jac. 1. not growe within this Realme, and that exact Regiſters and Bookes be kept in every ſeverall Porte of all Corn as well imported as exported, and of the ſeverall Quantities thereof, and howe much thereof is forraign and how much Engliſh Corne? and by whom the ſame ſhall be either imported or exported? and this to be done freely without any Fee or Charge for doeing thereof.

And that it ſhall clearly appear that his Majeſties intention herein is only the Good of his Subjects, his Majeſties expreſſe Pleaſure and Command is, that all Juſtices of Peace in every of the ſeveral Shires of the Kingdom ſhall have ſpeciall care, that in caſe any Abuſe or Inconvenience ſhall grow by any of theiſe Magazins, then preſently to advertiſe the Lordes of his Majeſties Privie Councell thereof, that preſent Redreſſe may be of any Inconvenience that ſhall happen. A Proclamation for Reſtraint of Killing Dreſſing and Eating of Fleſh in Lent or on Fiſhe Dayes appointed by the Lawe to bee hereafter ſtrictly obſerved by all ſortes of People.

A.D.1623. Pat. 21. J. 1. p. 10. n. 15. WHEREAS, for the Benefit and Commoditie of this our Realm of England, as well in the Mayntenance of our Navie and Shipping (a principall Strength of this Iſland) as for the ſpareing and increaſe of Fleſh Victuall, divers good Lawes and Statutes have been provided for the due obſervation of Lent and other Daies appointed for Fiſh Daies, which from tyme to tyme have been ſeconded and quickened by ſondrie our Proclamations and other Acts and Ordinances of State:

And whereas, notwithſtanding the many good Proviſions heretofore had and made in that kind, We yet find the inordinat Libertie now uſually taken by all ſorts of People to kill dreſs and eat Fleſh in the Lent Seaſon, and on other Dayes and Tymes prohibited by Lawe, is become an Evill of ſuch inveterate Growthe, as it requireth more than ordinarie Care to ſuppreſſe the ſame:

We therefore, much affecting the Reformation of this ſo great and evill an Enemy to the Plentie of our Kingdoms, have thought fit eſtſoones and thus tymely, the better to take away the Excuſe, and to prevent the Proviſions of Fleſh that uſually Men make againſt the Lent Seaſon, to expreſs our ſelf and our Royall Commandement in this behalf, wherein without any future Declaration of our Pleaſure in this kind, We ſhall expect and require from all our Subjects that due nottice be taken, and that a ſtrict and continued Obedience and Conformity be yielded thereunto in all ſucceeding Tymes; and therfore We do ſtraightly charge and command all and every Perſon and Perſons whatſoever to whom it may appertain, carefully to provide and ſee that theſe Orders following be duly obſerved and put in execution upon pain of our high Diſpleaſure, and ſuch Penalties as by the Lawes of this our Realme may be inflicted upon the Offendors for their Contempt or Neglect of Us and our Laws, whereof We ſhall ſhow our ſelves moſt ſenſible.

And firſt, whereas We find that the chiefeſt cauſe of theſe Diſorders hath grown from the Licences that have been granted to Butchers to kill and utter Fleſh contrary to Law, and that by our Laws no Mayor Juſtice of Peace or other Perſon of what degree or qualitie ſoever, can grant any Licence in this kind; and that the Lords aud others of our Privy Councell do by our Direction forbear to grant the ſame or to give way thereto, our Will and Pleaſure is, upon the Penalties provided by Law, and ſuch further Puniſhment to be inflicted upon the Offendors, as ſhall be thought meet, that noe ſuch Licence ſhall be granted for the killing or uttering of Fleſh, and that no Butcher or other Perſon whatſoever do by colour thereof kill utter or put to ſale any Fleſh contrary to the Lawes eſtabliſhed and provided in that behalf:

And for the avoiding of ſuch Inconvenyences hereafter, our Will and Pleaſure is, that the Lord Mayor of our City of London, and every other Officer and Juſtice of Peace, ſhall call before them and ſend for any of the Servants of any Inholders Victuallers Cooks Alehouſe-keepers Taverners and Keepers of Ordinary Tables, and ſuch others that utter Victualls, and to examine them upon their corporall Oaths what Fleſh is or hath been, during the Lent Seaſon, or other Dayes prohibited by the Law, dreſſed killed uttered or eaten in their Houſes, which if they ſhall refuſe to do, then to commit to Priſon the ſaid Servants ſo refuſing upon their Oaths to declare the Truth;

That the Lord Mayor ſhall alſoe yearly before Lent, or at the beginning thereof, cauſe all Houſholders Keepers of ordinary Tables Victuallers Alehouſe-keepers and Taverners within the Cittie of London and Liberties thereof, to appear before him, or ſuch Perſon as he ſhall appoint meet for that purpoſe, and ſhall take Recognizances with ſufficient Suerties of every of them in good Sommes of Money; viz. One Hundred Pounds of the Principall, and their Suerties Thirty Pounds apeece to our uſe, not to dreſs any Fleſh in their Houſes in the Lent tymes, or at any other tyme prohibited for any reſpect, nor ſuffer it to be eaten ccontrary to the Law: The like Recognizance with Suerties ſhall be taken of the like Parties, upon like Penalties, by the Juſtices of Peace of our City of Weſtminſter and Liberties thereof, and every of the ſaid Recognizances to be certified into our Exchequer:

And for the Butchers and others that come with Victuall of Fleſh out of the Countrey into the City, our Will and Pleaſure is, that the Lord Mayor ſhall cauſe certain Perſons to watch at the Gates, and other like Places in the Suburbs where Fleſh may be brought, to view and ſearch and to intercept the ſame; and if any of thoſe Watchmen ſhall be found negligent and corrupt in his Charge, then he to be committed to Priſon during the whole Lent.

And to the end that Fiſhermen may imploy themſelves to Sea with better Encouragement than heretofore, and the Fiſhmongers may furniſh themſelves with ſuch Store from tyme to tyme hereafter as ſhall be expedient, as well for the Proviſion of the City, as for ſelling the ſame at reaſonable Rates, we will that they take notice of this our Commandment and conſtant Reſolution for the Obſervance of Lent and Fiſh Dayes, both now and hereafter as by Law is required.

And furthermore as we think it fit that every Man ſhould bear Rule of Order and Abſtinence in his own Houſe, as well in reſpect of the publick as of his private Eaſe and Benefit, ſo we ſtraitly charge and command all Inholders, Kepers of Ordinary Tables, Victuallers, Alehouſe-kepers and Taverners, not to make any Supper for any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever upon Friday Nights, either in Lent or out of Lent, nor to ſuffer any Meat to be then dreſſed uttered ſold or eaten in their Houſes, uppon pain of ſuch Puniſhment as is due to thoſe that ſhall contemne our Royall Pleaſure and Commandment.

And foraſmuch as upon farther Advice and Conſideration had, that the Reſtraint of Killing and Dreſſing of Fleſh is no ſufficient Remedy for the Miſchief, unles there be better Care alſo taken to ſuppreſſe the unlawfull and immoderate Eating of Fleſh in the tyme of Lent, and on other Days and Times prohibited, wherewith our Subjects have accuſtomed themſelves rather for Delicacy then for Neceſſity; It is therefore our Royall Will and Pleaſure, and accordingly We do hereby ſtraitly prohibit and forbid all our Subjects, of what Degree or Qualitie ſoever in this our Realme, to eat any maner of Fleſh in Lent, or on other Dayes now uſually obſerved as Fiſh Dayes, without a ſpeciall Licence firſt obtayned from the Biſhop of the Dioces, or ſuch other as by the Lawes have Power to give Licence in that behalf; which We will and command ſhall be ſparingly granted, and in caſe of Neceſſity only, upon pain of our high Diſpleaſure, and to be proceeded againſt by our Attorney Generall in our Court of Star Chamber as Contemners of our Royal Commandment, and upon ſuch further Penalties as by the Laws and Statutes of our Realme may be inflicted on thoſe that ſhall wilfully offend in this kind.

And as theſe Orders are to be executed in the City of London and Places near to the ſame, ſo is our expres Pleaſure and Commandment, that our Juſtices of Peace in all Shires within their Rule, and all other Mayors Bailiffs and Chief Officers in Towns Corporate, or in any Libertees within their Precincts, ſhall cauſe the ſame to be obſerved and performed in like manner, and that no maner of Tolleration Favor or Connivency be uſed by any Juſtice of Peace or other Officer contrary to the true meaning of this our Proclamation, as both they that ſhall preſume wittingly ſo to tolerate the Offence, as alſo the Party himſelf offending, will anſwer the ſame at their uttermoſt Perils; our Commandment being that our Laws in this caſe ſhall be hereafter ſeverely executed upon all Offendors whatſoever.

Further charging and commanding the Lord Mayor of our City of London, the Juſtices of Aſiſe in their ſeveral Circuits, the Mayors and Chief Officers of all other Cities and Towns Corporat, Juſtices of Peace, Lords of Liberties, and all other Officers and Miniſters within the ſeveral Counties of this our Realm, that they and every of them fully obey this our Pleaſure, and cauſe and compell the ſame to be obeyed and executed by others as they will anſwer the contrary at their uttermoſt Perills.

And for the due execution of the Premiſſes in all other the Countees of this our Realm, as well as in our Cities of London and Weſtminſter, We do hereby ſtraitly charge and command all our Juſtices of Peace within the ſame Counties, as well within Liberties as without, that yearly and every Year hereafter, before Lent, they cauſe to come and appear before them all Inholders Cooks Taverners Alehouſe keepers Butchers and other Victuallers whatſoever, and to require and take of them, to our Uſe, ſeveral Recognizances with Sureties for obſervations of the Premiſſes; viz the Principals in ten Pounds, and their two Sureties in five Pounds apeece; and if they ſhall refuſe or neglect to enter into ſuch Recognizances, that then the ſaid Juſtices ſhall ſuppreſs ſuch Perſons ſo refuſing from victualling any more, and ſhall alſo cauſe them forthwith to become bound by Recognizance with Sureties to our Uſe; viz. the Principals in twenty Pounds, and their two Suerties in ten Pounds apeece, not to victual or ſell Beer or Ale from thenceforth, which if they ſhall refuſe to do, then the ſaid Juſtices to commit to Priſon all ſuch Perſons ſo refuſing to enter into ſuch Recognizance untill they ſhall ſubmitt themſelves and become bound as aforeſaid.

And further for all ſuch Inholders Cokes Taverners Alehouſe-kepers Butchers and other Victuallers as ſhall not appear before the ſaid Juſtices as aforeſaid, that they immediately ſend furth their Warrants, or grant Proces againſt them and every of them, ſo making default, to appear and anſwer their Contempt at the next Generall Seſſions of the Peace.

And further, for the more due Puniſhment of Inholders, Kepers of Ordinary Tables, Cokes, Butchers, Victuallers, Alehouſe-keepers, Taverners and ſuch like, who ſhall forfeit their Recognizances by Killing or Dreſſing of Fleſh, or ſuffering it to be eaten in their Houſes, in the Lent tyme and other Fiſh Days.

And to the end that the ſame may be as well taken in due forme of Law, as duly certified into our Exchequer, We do will and require all Juſtices of Peace, as well within Liberties as without, that at ſuch tymes as they ſhall meet within their ſeveral Diviſions for the taking of ſuch Recognizances, that they give notice to the Clerks of the Peace or their Deputies to attend them for that purpoſe, of whom we will require a ſtrict Accompt for the legall taking and returning of the ſaid Recognizances into our ſaid Exchequer, the ſaid Clerks of the Peace and their Deputies taking for the making and certifying of the ſame Recognizances of all Inkeepers, Taverners, Cookes and Butchers the Fee of two Shillings ſix Pence, and of all Alehouſekepers the Fee of twelve Pence, as is limited to be taken by the Clerk of the Peas for our County of Middleſex for every ſuch Recognizance and no more.

And laſtly, that the Fiſhmongers upon the Obſervation of the aforeſaid Orders may perhaps take occaſion hereby to inhance the Prices as well of Freſh as of Sea Fiſh; We do therefore hereby further charge and command all Fiſhmongers whatſoever, that they ſell and utter their Fiſh at moderate and uſuall Rates and Prices, and that all Juſtices of Peace Mayors Bayliffs and other Officers, as well within Liberties as without to whom it ſhall appertain, ſhall from tyme to tyme take ſuch Order with the ſaid Fiſhmongers that our Subjects be not grieved

James, by the Grace of God, of England Scotland France and Ireland King Defender of the Faith &c.

To the Treaſorer Chauncellor Undertreaſorer Chamberlaines and Barons of our Exchequer, and to all other the Officers and Miniſters of Us our Heires and Succeſſors of the ſaid Courte, and of the Receipte there, for the tyme being, and to all other to whome it ſhall or may appertaine, Greeting.

Whereas Frauncis Burton, a Clerke apperteyning to the office of the Ingroſſer of the greate Roll, commonlie called the Office of the Pipe, hath diſcovered and found out, furthered eſpecially by the meanes of our truſtie and wellbeloved Servaunt James Chambers

Doctor of Phyſick and one of our principall Phyſitions for our Perſon in ordinarie, divers and ſundrie Fraudes Errors Abuſes Negligences, had made committed and done, as well by divers Sheriffs Underſheriffs and Bayliffes in the not due executeinge of theire Offices, and in the rendringe paſſinge perfectinge and finiſhinge theire Accompts, as alſoe by divers Officers Clarkes and Miniſters, in combyneinge and conniveinge with the ſaid Sheriffs Underſheriffes and Bayliffes, and in falſefieinge corruptinge miſcaſtinge miſorderinge miſapproveinge and miſacquittinge the ſaid Sheriffs Accompts, and the Records Vewes and Remembrances of the ſame Accompts, remayneinge in the Office of the Pipe and elſewhere in our ſaid Exchequer, by reaſon whereof divers Debts Arrerages Rents Duties and Somes of Money due and payable, as well in the tyme of the Raign of our late deere Siſter Queene Elizabeth, as in the tyme of our own Raign over this Realme, have been deteyned diverted and kepte backe in the hands of the ſaid Sheriffs and Underſheriffs Bayliffs Farmers Officers Miniſters, and other Perſons their Confederates, and are undulie and wrongfullie withhoulden from Us, and noe Satiſfaction for or in reſpecte of the ſame hath or yet been made or given, either unto the ſaid late Queene or to Us which uppon the ſaid Sheriffs Accompts ſhould and ought to have been anſwered to the Receipte of the Exchequer; for the leavyinge and recoveringe whereof, ſeverall Warrants and Directions have bene given, and Proceſſe awarded, and divers Mannors Landes Tenements and Hereditaments extended and ſeized into our hands for and toward Satiſfaction of the ſaid Debts;

And whereas by all likeliehood there be yett more Moneys in the like nature due and payable unto Us which are not yet diſcovered and recovered for Us, and foraſmuch as the ſaid James Chambers, by his humble Suit and Petition exhibited unto Us, hath made offer unto Us, at his owne proper coſt and charge, by himſelfe his Deputies or Aſſignes, to doe his and their beſt Endeavoures in the diſcoverie proveinge maynteyning proſecuteing recoverie, and bringinge in of the Debts Duties and Arrearages, Rents and Sums of Money, in manner and by the meanes aforeſaid undulie and unjuſtlie detained from Us; and hath alſoe informed Us that by this meanes wee ſhall, not onely be anſwered our ſaid due and juſte Debts ſoe wrongfullie deteined from Us, but alſoe that the Frauds and Abuſes aforeſaid will appeare, whereby the like Deceipts may be the better prevented for the tyme to come.

Whereas under collour of keeping a Poſſeſſion of the Mannor Houſe of Great Staughton in the ſaid Countie of Huntington, a great nomber of lewd deſperate and rebellious Malefactors, armed and arraied with Shott and other Weapons in warlike manner, have lately aſſembled themſelves in or neare the ſaid Mannor and Mannor Houſe of Great Staughton, and with outragious force and violence hold the ſaid Mannor Houſe, and not only keep the Poſſeſſion therof with force, but have done many notable Spoils and Depredations in the Partes adjoyning to the great Terror and Amazement of the Country thereabouts: In which their inſolent and audacious Enterprizes they have dared and ſtill continue to proceed, notwithſtanding not only the ordinary Power and Authority of you the Sheriff and Juſtices of Peace of that our Countie, but the Letters of

And therfore we doe hereby authoriſe require and command you and every of you, that you forthwith arreſt attach and apprehend the Bodies of all and every the ſaid Malefactors and of all others that ſhall ayde or aſſiſte them in withſtanding or reſiſting the Execution of this our Commiſſion; and them ſafely convey and committ to the common Goale of our Countie of Huntington there to remayne untill they ſhall be delivered by due courſe of Law.

And for the better effecting of the Premiſſes, we do hereby authoriſe you and everie of you, att or neare the ſaid Mannor Houſe of Great Staughton, and ſuch other Place or Places within our ſaid Countie as to you or any of you ſhall ſeeme meete, to make publique Proclamation and Proclamations in our Name, thereby commanding the ſaid Malefactors every or anie of them, and by Name John Throkmorton Eſquior, in whoſe Name the reſt pretended to hold the ſaid Poſſeſſion, to render and yield themſelves to you or any of you: and in caſe they or any of them ſhall faile neglect or delay to doe; then wee doe will and require you, that you uſe and putt in Execution all ſuch Power and Authoritie as apperteyneth to any of your ſeverall Offices or Places, or hath bene committed unto you by our ſeverall Commiſſions of Shrievalty Lievtenancie and of the Peace, or any of them as may beſt conduce and further the repreſſinge the ſaid Offences, and attaching and apprehending the ſaid Malefactors: and in caſe they will not ſubmitt and yield themſelves, then wee do authoriſe and command you or any of you, to breake and beate down the ſaid Houſe with Shott or other Batterie, or enter the ſame by any other means whatſoever, and with Force and Armes ſett uppon aſſaile and take all ſuch Perſons as you ſhall there finde makeing Reſiſtance, and them convey to the common Goale as aforeſaid, there to remayne without Bayle or Maynprize till our further Pleaſure be known.

Quæ quidem Declaratio poſteà, ſcilicet, DIE VENERIS viceſimo ſeptimo Die Februarii, per Dominum Cuſtodem Magni Sigilli relata fuit in Domo ſuperiori in hunc modum; videlicet,

His Grace began with a threefold Preface,

The firſt concerning himſelf:

The ſecond concerning the Prince his Highnes;

A.D 1624.
21 Jac. 1.

And the third concerning the Subject whereof he was to treate:

As, touching the firſt, he craved Pardon of both the Houſes, if in Diſcharge of this great burthen which his Majeſtie had impoſed on him, he did not proceeed in that order and method which leaves in the memory a ſure Dint and Impreſſion which the Buſineſs required, and deſires them to conſider how unuſuall it was for him to ſpeake in ſo great and judicious an Auditorie.

As touching the ſecond, he did acknowledge, amongſt many great ones this was none of the leaſt Favours his Majeſtie had layed upon him; to put him at this tyme under the Wings and Protection of the Prince his Highneſs, without whoſe Helpe and Aſſiſtance he was now as unable to govern himſelf in the parts of the Relation, as formerlie in the Paſſages of the Negotiation.

For the third, he noted his Miſfortune to fall upon a Subject of ſuch a nature, as ſhall afford little Honor to the Relator, of what affection or diſpoſition ſoever he be; for, if he be well affected thereunto and ſhall ſpeak the truth, he muſt either bluſh, or wrong his Modeſtie, if otherwiſe (as all true hearted Engliſhmen muſt be affected otherwiſe) he is ſure, by laying out all things in their true colours, to be taxed of Malice and Envie, however the Buſineſs being of the greateſt Importance that Chriſtendome hath afforded theiſe many Years, and that Advice which the Parliament was to give unto his Majeſtie being to be founded in parte uppon this Relation, he would not be afraid to open ſo much as might perfectlie inform both the Houſes in the preſent Buſineſs, but would ſpare for all that (as far as the nature of the Relation would give him leave) to daſh uppon the Miniſters imployed from the one or the other King; and this was the effect of his Grace his Preface.

In the Narration it ſelfe, his Grace uſed indeed a cloſe but yet an exact but perfect method; a man might obſerve therein ſix diſtinct and ſeverall Partes;

The firſt was the Motives of the Prince his Journey to Spain;

The ſecond was the Treatie of the Marriage ſett a foote in Spayne ſeverally and by it ſelf:

The third was the Treatie of the Marriage and Reſtitution united together ther by a reciprocall Subordination :

The fowerth was the Prince his Retorne from Spayne :

The fifth was his Majeſties ſubſequent Proceedings in both the Treaties ſithence the Retorne ;

And the laſt was the ſtating of the Queſtion ſuper totam materiam, wherin both the Houſes were to offer unto his Majeſtie their humble Advice and Counſaile : Of theſe Parts his Grace ſpake verie diſtinctlie and orderlie.

The Motives of the Prince's Journey to Spayne.

His Grace acquainting us with his method, which was, to open things firſt in the Generall, and to leave Particulars to ſhewe themſelves, toke it for granted that he needed not begin any higher then the Negotiation of Maſter Chancellor of the Exchequer with the Archducheſſe, which miniſtred unto his Majeſtie the firſt occaſion of Jealouſie, and made a kind of diſcovery of their indirect dealings with this Eſtate ; and then my Lord told us, wee ſhould ſee a Diſpatch written from Hampton Court upon Mr Chauncellor his Retorne ; and by and by after bee acquainted with Maſter Porter's Relation which was in verie truth the Motive of the Prince his Jorney.

Here was read the Letter of the third of October to the Earl of Briſtow 1622.

Right truſtie and right wellbeloved Couſin and Councillor, wee greet you well.

There is none knows better then your ſelf how we have labored ever ſithence the beginning of theſe unfortunate Troubles of the Empire, notwithſtanding all Propoſition to the contrary, to meritt well of our good Brother the Kyng of Spayn and the whole Houſe of Auſtria, by a long and lingring Patience, grounded ſtill upon his Friendſhipps and Promiſes that Care ſhould be had of our Honor and of our Childrens Patrimonie and Inheritance, we have acquainted you alſo from tyme to tyme, ſince the begining of the Treatie at Bruſſells, how croſly things have there proceeded, notwithſtanding the faire Profeſſions made unto Us both by the Kyng of Spayne, the Infanta and all his Miniſters, and the Letters written by him unto the Emperor and them effectually (at the leaſt as they endeavoured to make us beleeve) but what fruits have we of all theſe other then Diſhonor and Scorn ? whilſt we are treating the Toune and Caſtell of Heidleburg taken by force, our Gariſon put to the Sword ; Manheim beſeiged, and all the Hoſtilitie uſed that is within the Power of an Enemie, as you will ſee by the Relation which we have commaunded our Secretary to ſend you :

Our Pleaſure therefore is, that you ſhall ymmediatelie, as ſoon as you can get Audience, let that King underſtand how ſenſible we are of theſe Proceedings of the Emperor towards us ; and withall are not a little troubled to ſee that the Infanta, having an abſolute Commiſſion to conclude a Suſpenſion and Ceſſation of Armes ſhould now at laſt, when all Objections were anſwered, and the former ſolely pretended Obſtacles removed, not onely delay the Concluſion of the Treatie, but refuſe to lay her Commaund upon the Emperour's General for abſteyning from the Seige of our Garriſons during the Treatie, upon Pretext of Want of Authoritie ; ſoe as, for avoyding of further Diſhonor, wee have been enforced to recall both our Ambaſſadors, as well the Chauncellor of our Exchequer (who is alreadie retorned to our Preſence) as alſo the Lord Chicheſter, whom we intended to have ſent unto the Emperor to the Diett at Ratiſbone : ſeing therfore that meerly out of our extraordinary reſpect to the King of Spayn, and the firm Confidence that we ever put in the Hopes and Promiſſes which he did give us, deſiring nothing more then for his cauſe principally to avoid all occaſions that might put us into an ill Underſtanding with any of the Houſe of Auſtria, we have hitherto proceeded with a ſtedfaſt Patience, truſting to the Treaties, and neglecting all other Meanes which probably might have ſecured the Remainder of our Childrens Inheritance (thoſe Garriſons which we mayntayned in the Palatynate being rather for Honor Sake, to keepe a footing untill the generall Accommodation, then that wee did rely ſo much uppon their Strength as upon his Friendſhipp, and by this Confidence and Securitie of ours are thus expoſed to Diſhonor and Reproach : you ſhall tell that King that ſeeing all thoſe Endeavours and good Offices which he hath uſed towards the Emperor in this Buſineſs on the behalfe of our Sonne in Lawe (upon Confidence whereof that our Securitie depended) which he contynually by his Letters and Miniſters here laboured to beget and confirme in Us, have not ſorted to any other iſſue then to a plain Abuſe both of his Truſt and ours, whereby we are both of Us highlie injured in our Honor though in a different degree; wee hope and deſire that, out of a true ſenſe of this Wrong offred unto Us, hee will as our deere and loving Brother faithfully promiſe and undertake uppon his Honor, confirming the ſame alſo under his Hand and Seale, either that the Caſtle and Toune of Heidleberg ſhall, within threeſcore and ten Daies after this your Audience and Demaund made, be rendred into our Hands with all things therein belonging to our Sonne in Lawe or our Daughter, as neere as may be in the ſtate they were when they were taken, and the like for Manheim and Frankendale, if both or either of them ſhall be taken by the Enemie whileſt theſe things are in treating; as alſo that there ſhall be within the ſaid Term of threeſcore and ten Daies a Ceſſation and Suſpenſion of Armes in the Palatinate for the future, upon the ſeverall Articles and Conditions laſt propounded by our Ambaſſador Sir Richard Weſton, and that the generall Treatie ſhall be ſett on foote again uppon ſuch honorable Tearmes and Conditions as we propounded unto the Emperor in a Letter written unto him in November laſt, and with which the Kinge of Spayne then, as we underſtood, ſeemed ſatisfied; or elſe in caſe all theſe Perticulars be not yeelded unto and performed by the Emperor as is here propounded, but be refuſed or delayed beyond the tyme aforementioned, that then the King of Spayne doe joyne his Forces with ours for the recovery of our Childrens Honors and Patrimony, which uppon this Truſt hath byn thus loſt; or if ſoe be his Forces at this preſent be otherwiſe ſoe imployed as that they cannott give us that Aſſiſtance which wee here deſire, and (as we think have deſerved) yet that at the leaſt he will permitt us a free and friendly Paſſage through his Territories and Dominions for ſuch Forces as we ſhall ſend and imploy into Germany for this Service: of all which disjunctively, yf you receave not from the King of Spayne, within ten Daies at the furtheſt after your Audience and Propoſition made, a direct Aſſurance under his Hand and Seale without delay, or putting us off to further Treaties and Conferences; that is to ſaie, of ſuch Reſtitution Ceſſation of Armes and proceeding to a generall Treatie as is before mentioned, or els of Aſſiſtance and joyning his Forces with ours againſt the Emperor, or at leaſt Permiſſion of Paſſage for our Forces through his the ſaid King's Dominions: that then you take your leave and retorne into our Preſence without further Stay; otherwiſe to proceed in the Negociation for the Marriage of our Sonne according to the Inſtruction wee have given you.

Given &c.

Hampton Court tertio Octobris 1622.

Then his Grace, deſiring us to take for Truth whatſoever he ſhould ſay, graunted and atteſted by the Prince his Preſence, he ſhewed that this Letter was not putt home to the utmoſt by the Earle of Briſtoll, whome notwithſtanding his Grace excuſed for the Point of his Retorne; becauſe he had in an other Letter ſome private Directions to ſtay untill his Majeſtie was advertiſed from that Place: howſoever he gave out his coming away.

Maſter Porter carried this Letter with a peremptorie Direction to retorne homeward after ten Daies Staie, the which time being now expired and no Diſpatch prepared; Maſter Porter ſtept to the Count d'Olivares, whoſe Servant and Creature he had formerlie been, and deſired him to ſpeed his Diſpatch that he might have ſome good Anſwere to carry home with him;

The Conde asked him what he would have?

He anſwered no more then had byn promiſed by the King of Spayne, which was, that if a Reſtitution was not made of the Palatinate by way of mediation, that then he would joyn in Armes with the King of Great Brittaine to recover the ſame, and give Paſſage for the King's forces to come at yt;

The Conde aunſwered, that this Demand was very exorbitant; what! his Maſter to aſſiſt with Armes againſt his Unckle; againſt the Catholique League; againſt the Head of his houſe, he would never do it:

Maſter Porter forthwith rejoyned and

A.D. 1624. 21 Jac. I. and asked him what hope he could give him concerning the Match?

To which the Conde anſwered, that for the Match he knew nothing of it, nor could he underſtand what yt meant.

And here give me leave to weave in two of theſe Supplements which the Lord Keeper imparted from their Lordſhips to the Houſe of Commons, out of two ſeverall Letters of the Earle of Briſtoll, that the Match was originally propoſed by Spayne and not by Us; namely by the Duke of Lerma, and that the King of Spayne had directlie promiſed Aſſiſtance by Armes in caſe Mediation could not prevail for the Reſtitution for the Palatinate.

Maſter Porter acquainting my Lord of Briſtoll with theiſe Anſwers, obſerved his Lordſhip at the firſt to be much moved, and to ſaie in Anger that he would call Olivares to an accompt if he held this Language with him, and would make him underſtand that an Earle of England was as good a Man as a Conde of Spayne, but ſending for Mr. Porter the next Morning, his Coller was abated and himſelf profeſſed that he had changed his Reſolution, and concluded to carry the Buſineſs more calmelie and diſcreetlie: And having ſoon after ſpoken with the Conde, he ſent for Maſter Porter and told him that now he could expound the Riddle, and ſaid that the Conde was ſo reſerved becauſe he was ſhie and daintie to impart theſe Miſteries with that Freedom to him who was not qualified as a publick Miniſter; Maſter Porter was moved herewith, and expoſtulated with the Conde for denying that to his old Servant which he had imparted to both the Ambaſſadors; with that the Conde fell into a Rage, and ſwore, Voto a Dios que in enten los Embaxadores unl veres ſi loderen; but ſaid the Conde I have reaſon to take it ill at your Hands whom I ever favored and tendered as my Child, for communicating that with the Earle of Briſtoll which I had told you as a Secrett: Maſter Porter anſwered, that being a Servant of the King he could doe noe leſs than acquaint his Embaſſador therewithal; but the truth is that the Conde was highlie diſpleaſed with Maſter Porter, inſomuch that at the Duke of Buckinghams coming into Spain, he ſpake it openly that he hated the ground which Maſter Porter trod on; Maſter Porter retorning with a Diſpatch fraught with Generalties, without any one Perticular or Certeintie at all made his Relation to the Prince his Highneſs, who thereupon took his Reſolution to go in Perſon to Spayne, and gave himſelfe theſe reaſons for that Enterprize; he ſaw his Fathers Negotiation playnelie deluded; matters of Religion gayned uppon and extorted; his Siſters Cauſe more and more deſperated; that this was the waye to helpe things of or on; that in this particular Delay was worſe then a playn Deniall, and that according to the uſuall Proverbe a deſperate Diſeaſe muſt have a deſperate Remedy: This Reſolution the Duke by the Prince his Commaund, made known unto the Kinge, who after he had conſulted of it together with them, at the laſt commanded the Duke to accompany his Highnes in this Journey: A.D. 1624. 21 Jac. I.

And here ends the firſt part of this Narrative, the Motives of the Prince his Journey.

The Treatie of the MARRIAGE ſevered and by it ſelf.

When the Prince had arrived at Madrid, and immediatlie diſcovered himſelf to the Earl of Briſtoll; the Duke ſent next Day to offer a Viſit unto the Conde, who was ſoe complementall as he refuſed to receive him in his own Houſe, but gave him a Meeting in a Garden; here the Conde magnified exceedingly the Prince his Journey, amplified the Obligations his Highnes had put uppon that King and his Kingdoms, ſaid that without all peradventure it muſt be a Match and we muſt part and divide the whole World betwixt us:

This Complement was very apt, quoth the Duke, and proper to proceed from them who had long ſithence in their Imagination ſwallowed upp the whole World as their owne; but not to be ſo eaſily beleeved by us, as being no ſmall Offer to part thus ſoddenlie with the tone half at a Blow: However the Ambaſſadors toke an occaſion hereuppon to move his Grace that, now having heard this good Affection of the Conde, he would write unto the Kinge to juſtifie them in their former Diſpatches in this kind; nay ſofte, anſwered the Duke, theiſe are but Generall, when I find the Particulars tuneable hereunto I ſhall be readie to relate it to his Majeſtie.

A.D. 1624. 21 Jac. 1.

The next Day after, when the King and the Prince had met in the Prado and performed their Interview and mutual Ceremonies; the Conde taking the Duke into his Coach, and Maſter Porter for his Interpreter, falling into a Diſcourſe of the Match, he ſaid unto the Duke, let us diſpatch this Match out of hand, and ſtrike it up without the Pope;

The Duke anſwered, he liked the manner verie well, but deſired to underſtand the meanes;

Why the Means (quoth the Conde) is verie eaſie, yt is but the Coverſion of the Prince, which we cannot conceive but his Highnes intended upon his Reſolution for this Journey.

His Grace anſwered forthwith, that with Freedom they came thither, and with Freedom they would retorne again; they were no Juglers, nether came they to Spayne to make new Bargaynes; the Prince was ſetled in his Religion; his Conſcience was troubled with no Scruples in that kinde; if they ſtroke any more uppon that String they would marr all the Harmonie;

Then ſaith the Conde there is no way but to ſend to Rome to haſten the Diſpenſation:

To the which Motion his Grace aſſented, ſaying, the ſooner they did it the better: It was hereupon the Conde wrote his Letter to the Cardinall Ludovicio the Pope's Nephew, which being ſhewed to the Duke ſeemed to him to be verie heavie and ineffectuall; his Grace deſiring therefore to quicken it with ſuch a Poſtſcript, That now the Prince being arrived muſt not be ſent back without his Wife; that Delay to a Suitor is a kind of Refuſall; that clogging Inſtructions would mount to a Deniall, and new Conditions to an abſolute Breach: The Conde fell into Coller, and ſaid directlie it could not be done: This the Prince affirmed to be acted in his Preſence.

Of this Carriage of the Conde, Sir Walter Aſton made a doubtfull, the Earle of Briſtoll a more benigne Conſtruction, but the Duke a right down Concluſion, that theis People never intended either Match or Reſtitution, and ſoe wiſhed his Highnes fairlie at Home again: and thus the Meſſenger was diſpatched to Rome.

By this tyme you muſt ymagine all the Shewes and Ceremonies for the Prince his Enterteynment paſt over; And, within four or five Daies after, his Highnes is placed to ſee his Miſtris in her Paſſages through the Streets as ſhe made her Viſitts from Church to Church; But unſatiſfied herewith, and preſſing for Acceſs, he was delayed from Day to Day, although promiſed at the firſt to have it within the Compaſſe of two Daies:

In the meane tyme the Duke hearing that it was reſolved in Counſaile that this Viſitt ſhould be putt off untill the retorne of the Diſpenſation, he asked playnely of the Conde if it were ſo? who confeſſed as much in effect, and gave his Grace this reaſon for it, that much Scandal had already byn taken in the Court, that the Prince was permitted to have ſeen the Infanta ſoe publikelie in the open Streetes, and that the Lady ſhould be thus divulged and profaned; The Duke replyed, he ſhould have done well to have dealt freelie with the Prince, and to have acquainted him with ſo much before:

After this his Highnes obteyned a Viſitt, but a very ſtrange one, and ſuch a Viſitt as was never heard of before; he was not ſuffered to ſpeak unto her, but as if he had been uppon a Stage, his conned Parte and nothing elſe in ſoe many Words and Syllables as they had dictated the ſame unto him; Here the Prince was pleaſed to acquaint us with the Reaſon they alledged for dealing ſo meaſuredlie and ſparinglie with his Highnes; They were no Aſtrologers to forſee the Event of this Marriage, they were uncertaine whether it ſhould take effect or noe; and therefore they reſolved to admit him as a Prince only but not as a Suitor: This Reaſon was juſtlie miſliked, and this Courſe much ſuſpected by his Highnes, as himſelf now alledged; yet the Conde ſalv'd it up with a Complement, that if the Diſpenſation were once retorned, he ſhould lye with her even that very Night, nay have her he ſhould uppon any Termes, if he could not be qualified to enjoy her as a Wife, yet he ſhould have her as a Miſtreſſe.

And now in part to entertayne the tyme, but principally to prevent more Viſits, his Highnes is carried to a Countryhouſe called Aranjuez; here he is preſſed again to change his Religion, but being found deaf and averſe to ſuch a Motion, he is ſet upon by the Conde to this effect, Yet, Sir, be a Friend to our Religion;

To the which his Highnes anſwered, He was no Enemie to their Religion nor to them that profeſſe it.

Soone

Soone after, riding in a Coach, yt was urged againe by the Conde that the Infanta was of a tender Conſcience, and if ſhe ſhould come into England and fynde the Prince an Enemy to her Religion it would quyte diſhearten her, his Highnes was therefore moved to promiſe to hear the Lady ſpeake in that Theame;

To this his Highnes willinglie conſented, and told us his Reaſon, which was verie probable, becauſe his Highnes was as like to convert her as ſhe was to pervert him.

Not long after a Conference with ſome learned Divines is preſſed upon his Highnes, which the Prince declyned for theiſe Reaſons;

For if his Highnes ſhould be reported, in this his firſt Entrance into the Theater of the World, to be fickle in his Religion, and to carry theſe Scruples in his Conſcience, it would prove much to his Diſhonor in all Parts of Chriſtendome.

Secondlie, although his Highnes (as he profeſſed) was not afraid to conferr with any Divines, yet if after Diſputation they ſhould not prevaile againſt a young Man, they would remayn much diſguſted and ill affected to the whole Negotiation.

Laſtlie, if the Infanta did pleaſe her ſelf with any ymagynarie hope of converting the Prince, this hope would vaniſh away for the tyme to come if this ſolemn Conference proved ineffectuall; yet the Spaniards were never off from this kind of Importunitie, but ſpent therein all the interim untill the retorn of the Diſpenſation.

Much about this tyme the Conde invited his Highnes to a Treatie of the Termes of Friendſhipps, which his Highnes put off uppon this reaſon, Becauſe emergent Propoſitions concerning the Reſtitution of the Palatinate might prove a Staie and Remora to the haſtening of the Diſpenſation and the ſpeeding of the Match; whereas, if the Match were once fairly concluded, there could be litle doubt but the Reſtitution could be effected; And therefore it was, as his Highnes told us, that the Treatie of the Reſtitution was ſet aſide at this tyme, though ever held fit, and intended to go hand in hand with the Treatie of the Mariage

Sixe Weeks after the Prince his Arrivall arrived the Diſpenſation, which, contrary to many former Profeſſions was foure or five Dayes concealed from his Highnes; at the laſt the Duke, having Intelligence thereof, did call for it, and ſoe a Committee is appointed to treate thereof; and the Prince attended the Buſines in Perſon: But upon the firſt opening of the Particulars, the Conde was put to Schole, and ſhewed himſelf to underſtand never a Word either of the Match or of the Reſtitution of the Palatinate. The Articles being propounded to the Prince his Conſideration, his Highnes moſt judiciouſly refuſed to treat, unles he might have aſſurance they ſhould be all cleared and accomodated uppon the Place without ſending to Rome to new mold them; becauſe his Highnes underſtood from Rome by Maſter Gage his Letter, that the Diſpenſation was retorned much clogged in Matter and Manner, and eſpecially with that annexed new Condition, that the King of Spayne, before the receaving of the Diſpenſation, was to take an Oath to ſee all the Articles whereuppon the Facultie was iſſued really performed, or els to make War in caſe of any fayler upon the King of England (a very odd conjunction with matters of Alliance as his Highnes well obſerved,) Well, his Highnes put the Queſtion to the Committee, whether their King could, and whether he would take this new found Oath? They anſwere that the acting thereof muſt wholly depend and relate to the Prince his facillitating here in England ſome kind of Connivence in Matters of Religion; And ſo the Prince having ſignified unto them his Reſolution, that he neither could nor would add or alter any thing in the firſt Articles ſent from England, the Treatie began.

And here the Duke made a Remonſtrance unto us, that if any thing concerning Religion might ſeem to be added (for rhe Prince ſaid that nothing was ſoe added indeed wherewith his Majeſtie was not formerlie acquainted) yt was not the Prince nor his Grace his Fault; Nay, uppon one of the Articles ſought by the Pope, and comprehended in the Prince his private Promiſe, a great Conteſtation aroſe between the Earle of Briſtoll and the Duke, wherein his Grace ſaid he ſhewed himſelfe reſolute, which he termed Opiniaſtre; The Earle alleadging that the Point in Queſtion was alreadie agreed uppon (at the leaſt in the intention) of the two Kings; this the Duke denyed, and was ſithence juſtified in his denyall by the King's Majeſtie.

And now the Juncta of Divines are mett together to reſolve that Caſe of Conſcience, upon what Preparation and Prediſpoſition of Things and Actions that Kinge might ſafelie take the Oath; At this his Highnes ſtartled, and enquired what that meant? But anſwere was made that it was onlie for forme ſake, and ſhould not delay the Buſines the length of one Hour: (as the Prince was pleaſed to tell us) But the Truth is, this Committee was the Conde's Wheeles wherewith he ſett the whole Frame of the Buſines backward and forward at his own Pleaſure.

By this tyme the Prince hath gone through all the Articles together with the reſt of the Committee, and leaving three undecided; That of the Church; that of the Nurſe; and that of the Education of the Children (which his Highnes reſerved untill he ſhould ſpeake with the King himſelfe) going with the Conde in his Coach, he acquainted him with his Reſolution for theſe three Particulars, which the Conde writing doune in a Paire of Table Bookes, ſaid that now the Buſines was in a better way then ever; It was a Match, and without more adoe ſhe was his Wife.

But the verie next Morning came the Marques of Montes Claros and the Conde de Gondomar and ſpake unto the Prince of the ſame Match as of a new thing, and tould him playnelie, that unles his Highnes came into all the Conditions of the Diſpenſation as they were ſent from Rome cleerlie and entirelie, nothing would be done, for they had no Power to remove or alter ſo much as a Word of falſe Latine: Whereupon his Highnes was juſtlie diſtaſted and offred to breake; For, as himſelf told us, this was the firſt tyme he ſaw cleerlie they meant to juggle with him: For the which Alteration and Change of Counſell, all the Excuſe they offered was this, that they were Beaſts and blinde and could not read their own Language.

The Prince thus reſolved to take his Leave; the Conde ſtayes him with a double Propoſition, either to ſend to Rome to have the Articles as they were agreed upon confirmed by the Conclave, or els to ſend to England that the King our Maſter might be drawn unto them Word for Word as they came from Rome:

To the which his Highnes retorned this Anſwere, That he accepted of both offers in due forme and manner, that they ſhould ſend to Rome, and himſelf would repaire unto England to diſpoſe his Father to this effect, and to facilitate the Negotiation: and here the Prince declared his Intention, which was to procure either a fair Breach, or els a ſpeedy Diſpatch:

The Conde found this to mount to a Breach, and thereupon made a new Propoſition, That the Prince would be pleaſed to ſtay twentie Dayes untill our Maſter's Anſwer might be had from England: Here the Prince told us, how the Earle of Briſtoll had ſaid unto him that this was but a mere Punctilio, and that he received it from very good Hands, that if his Highnes made ſhew to yeild unto this Propoſition, he ſhould not be tyed thereunto; But ſaid his Highnes, when I had once determined to ſtay, I never heard more of the Punctilio, but was faſt bound to reall Performance:

After this the Conde and the Earle deſired the Prince to ſpeake noe more of his Retorn in this ſort, for if he did, they would quarrell with it as amounting to a kinde of Menace or Threate.

Whereunto the Duke aunſwered, that this they could not doe, becauſe the Prince bare himſelf as well ſatisfied with the Journey, and no way diſtaſted at all with any Occurrences in Spain, but troubled only with that clogging of Articles which hapned in Rome:

But the Earl of Briſtoll replying that he knew from good Hands, that if his Highnes ſtaid, they would preſently fall to Buſines;

The Prince reſolved to ſtay upon condition that Sir Francis Cottington might be diſpatcht away within two Dayes, and ſome Correor that might overtake him with the Articles ſhould be ſent after as ſoone as ever they could be made ready, which his Highneſs well hoped might have bene the verie next Day; his Highnes tooke Care hereby leaſt the Health of his Secretary upon whom the Diſpatch of the Buſineſs wholly depended, might be impaired with any extraordinary Riding: This Condition of his Highneſs, although the Conde to gayne more tyme much oppoſed, and would have had *Sir Fraunc*is ſtaied there untill the Articles ſhould be perfectlie digeſted, yet by the Prince his fixed and conſtant Reſolution to the contrary, was at the laſt obteyned: and now the Articles are laied upon the Anvill agayne,

agayne, and the two Daies of their hammering ſpun out to twentie; at the end whereof they brought them with new Additions and Alterations, hoping that his Highneſs through haſt or unadviſedneſs would ſhutt his Eyes and ſupp them upp without more a doe: But the Prince read them, found out the Alterations, and upbraided them with the Practiſe, and when they excuſed themſelves as ignorant in the form, the Prince offered to help them with a Preſident, that taking the Oath uſed in the Marriage Treatie betweene King Philip and Queen Mary, and adding it to each Article agreed upon, they might draw it upp accordingly: Wherupon they ſnatched the Paper out of the Prince his Hands as reſolved to purſue this Direction, but a Sennight after brought them back again as raw and untoward as ever they were, ſo as the Prince was fayne to take them in Hand himſelf, who by the Miniſtry of the Earl of Briſtoll framed them up in a few Hours to the full approbation of all the Committee: But (as the Duke obſerved) yt was not the Diſpatch of the Buſines but the approach of the Heates, and conſequently the ſtaye of the Prince which was the Principall object of the Spaniſh Counſellors.

The Articles being at the laſt ſent for England the Juncta of Divines delivered their Opinions, that the Infanta could not be ſent over before the Springe enſuinge.

The Prince remembring a former Promiſe that the Juncta ſhould not retard his Negotiation for one Hower, reſolved once more to breake the Treatie upon this occaſion; this put the Conde to his invention again, and cauſed him to make unto the Duke and Sir Walter Aſton another Propoſition that if the Prince would ſtay untill the Ambaſſadors ſhould certifie out of England that the Articles were aſſented unto by our King, and putt in Execution, then the Lady ſhould go over with his Highneſs, (this Vote of the Divines notwithſtanding) His Grace anſwered to this Propoſition, that it was worſe in Subſtance then the other, for the Ambaſſadors might be ſiniſterlie affected, beſides that it was a Buſineſs of no ſmall importance to connive at ſo many Lawes as were pointed at in the Articles; many occaſions of Complaints might interveen hereupon in the large Circuit of England Scotland and Ireland; the Ambaſſadors might take a falſe Alarum therby and return their Certificat accordingly, and ſo the Prince his Stay ſhould be fruſtrated and made of noe effect:

Then the Conde deſired the Duke to go in unto the Commiſſion who were ſitting hard by and ask them their Opinions how the Difficulties might be facilitated;

The Duke replyed, he knew it was but loſt labour to go from him the proper Oracle to the Commiſſioners for the aſſoyling of that Riddle; yet the Conde preſſed his Grace to doe ſoe; and the Duke, ſtepping onward toward the Committee Chamber, was called back by the Conde and deſired to putt the Queſtion after this manner; what Requittal or Satiſfaction the King of Spayne could retorne for the Favour the Prince had done him by undertaking this Journey.

To the which his Grace replyed, that now the Queſtion was varied, and the State of yt altered;

Yet, quoth the Conde, for my ſake make your firſt approach uppon them with this Queſtion;

The Duke to ſatisfie the Conde went in unto them, who wondered much to ſee him. He told them he came by the Perſwaſion of the Conde to propound this Queſtion unto them, what Requitall or Satiſfaction &c. they looked one upon another, and in the end one of them made him anſwer, that he ſhould return to the Conde and take from him Satiſfaction to this Queſtion:

And ſo the Duke went back to the Conde, who preſentlie enquired what Anſwere he had received? the Duke told him ſuch a one as he expected, and if they had given him any other they had not ſo well deſerved that great Truſt and Imployment in the State which the King had moſt prudentlie impoſed on them;

Why? quoth the Conde, what was their Anſwer?

Surelie ſaid the Duke, to hold you no longer, it was this, that I ſhould retorne backe again to you to know it;

With that the Conde rapped with his Staffe and calling in the Counſailers he ſpake unto them in ſuch a perplexed Style as tho' he would have them to underſtand his meaning, but yet (for feare the Duke ſhould do ſo to) by any thing rather then by his words. At the laſt the Biſhopp of Segovia anſwered his Grace to this effect; He had heard heard ſomewhat of the Eſtate of our Kingdom, and had received from good Hands, that our King could not make a Tolleration without a Rebellion and he eaſily believed yt; becauſe the King of Spayne is not able in his Dominions to effect the like Enterprize without incurring the like Daunger, and therefore he concluded yt was unſafe to ſend the Lady hither at this tyme, becauſe wee having granted as much in effect as a Tolleration, yt was very probable ſhe ſhould be welcomed with a Riſing and Rebellion:

To the which the Duke replyed, that if the Favors which the King his Maſter had extended to his Catholiques, at the Mediation of that King, and the Advice of that very Committee be of ſo dangerous a Conſequence, yt ſeemed their Lordſhipps who gave their Advice for the Articles, though they pretended Religion, yntended playne and open Rebellion; But you muſt know, quoth the Duke, that if his Highnes had been of my Lord Biſhop's Opinion, that theſe Connivences had mounted to a Tolleration, he had never accepted of theiſe Articles to have gayned any Alliance in the univerſall World; This was but a temporary Suſpenſion of Penall Lawes but no Tolleration, which was never offred to be thruſt upon the Eſtate in England but by Conſent of Parliament:

Then they all looked wiſtlie at Gundamore as the Surveyor Generall of England and Author of that Intelligence, ſo that being eyed by them all, and in a manner pointed out, he ſaid, I muſt confeſs the King of England is a verie learned King, hath governed very longe, and is very Rich in the Harts of his Subjects, yet do I not hold it fitting to ſend the Infanta thither before the Articles be perfectlie put in execution; nay, Sir, you know very well that I have formerlie dealt playnlie and freelie herein with the King of Great Brittain;

To this the Duke replied, That now he had provoked him very far, for he had been acquainted with the Treatie from the beginning, and yet never heard a Word fall to that purpoſe; nay, on the contrary ſide, the Conde de Gundamore offered to our King the Daughter of Spayne, and begged this Alliance meerlie for the Alliance ſake, without any Prejudice to the preſent Government or the Religion eſtabliſhed; and that when we objected the Diſadvantage of Treating with the Catholique Kinge, becauſe of that back Door to ſlip in and out at his Pleaſure; to wit, the Pope's Conſiſtory; Gundamore replyed, the Pope durſt not but diſpence with this Match, if Spayne ſoe required; and for Proof alleadged divers Inſtances of Buſineſſes reſolved in Spayne, though diſliked by the Pope; to the which notwithſtanding his Holines gave his Conſent, for meer fear leaſt his Aſſent ſhould not be expected or required.

The Conde de Gundamore tooke this very offenſively at the Duke's Handes, to be told of thoſe Stories in Spayne which he had provided for the Meridian of England, and did his Grace no good Offices from that tyme forward, which the Duke litle regarded; yet one of his Requitals is very memorable, that at the very ſame inſtant he infuſed to the Prince his Highnes that the Duke was in Hart (as he ſaid all his Kindred were) a Roman Catholique; and to a Jeſuit of great Accompt and Zeale in thoſe Parts, that he was a moſt obſtinate perverſe and refractary Puritan, which bread his Grace much Hatred amongſt the zealous in thoſe Parts.

About this tyme yt was reported that his Highnes made ſome Proviſion to ſteale out of that Countrey ſecretly; And it is very true that the Waies were laied to intercept him, and in ſuch a caſe to deteyne him openlie and avowedlie as a Priſoner: Hereupon my Lord Duke was ſent unto them with this brave Remonſtrance, That although they had ſtollen thither out of Love, they would never ſteal from thence out of Feare; and however others were guilty of thinking, they two ſhould never be guilty of taking ſoe poore and unworthy a Courſe; and the Prince making about that tyme a Diſpatch unto his Father, ſent unto him this Meſſage by Maſter Grahyms, That if his Majeſtie ſhould receive any Advertiſement that he was detayned by that State as a Priſoner, he would be pleaſed for his ſake never to think on him any longer as a Sonne, but to reflect with all his Royall Thoughts uppon the Good of his Siſter, and the Safetie of his own Kingdomes: Nevertheleſſe the Prince commanded Grymes not to deliver this Meſſage unleſſe he heard that his Highnes was there deteyned:

And thus farr extends the ſecond part of this Narrative, the Treatie of the Match as it ſtood ſevered and divided.

The Treaty of the MATCH and RESTITUTION reciprocally ſubordinated.

When the Prince had refuſed the former Propoſition of the Conde to expect the Certificate from the Spaniſh Ambaſſadors, and was reſolved to ſtay no longer, the Conde betakes himſelf to his laſt Anchor, and offred unto his Highnes, in caſe he would accept of the tyme of the Infanta's going at the Springe, a blanke Paper to ſet down his own Conditions for the Reſtitution of the Palatinat; To this his Highnes began to liſten, as well remembring his Father's Commaundement laid uppon him at his Departure, that together with his Alliance he ſhould endeavor with the utmoſt of his Power the Peace of Chriſtendome, he therefore ſent the Duke and Sir Walter Aſton to the Conde to know whether he meant ſeriouſlie and really in this Offer? The Conde avowed that he did, and that this was the only way now left to regain the Palatinate by way of Treatie, otherwiſe the King our Maſter muſt reconquer it with his Arms if he will have it: This being juſtified to the Prince by the Duke and the Interpreter, whome in every Imployment the Duke brought ſtill to the Prince for the Witneſs of his Negotiation, his Highnes to prevent the further ſhedding of Chriſtian Bloud yealded to the Propoſition for his ſtay.

Here it is fit to obſerve this Paſſage, which is the Hindge whereupon all his Highnes his ſubſequent Actions are turned and moved; he had never ſtayed a Sennight longer in Spayne; he had never left any Proxie with the Earle of Briſtoll; he had never taken any Oath at the Eſcuriel; or ſo much as ever written a Letter of Complement to the Lady; but that he had ſtill before his Eyes as his Cynoſure the Promiſe made by the Conde for the Reſtitution of the Palatinate: This one Obſervation will ſerve as a Torch to caſt not onlie a Light but a Luſter uppon all his ſubſequent Actions.

At this ſtay of the Prince there appeared generally in the Court great Alacritie, ſuch Careſſes and Expreſſions of Joy, as the Duke profeſſed he never ſaw the like.

His Grace, layinge hold uppon this good Humour, thought it beſt ſtriking when the Iron was hot, and began to caſt about how to ſhorten theſe Monethes, and to haſten the Delivery of the Lady; He preſented unto the Conde how his Maſter was now in Yeares; The Prince was his only Sonne, and he longed to ſee Yſſue by him; That his Highnes would ſuffer much in his Honour and Reputation to retorne home without his Wife; That the Infanta's comeing in his Company would open unto her a wide Paſſage into the Hearts and Affections of all the People; That this would kill in the verie Roote the Practizes of other Princes to divert this Alliance; And laſtly, that this would put an eternal Obligation uppon the Duke himſelf, and a glorious Luſter and Repute upon this preſent Journey and Ymployment.

The Conde ſaid hereuppon that he was bewitched with theſe Reaſons, aſſured the Duke his Motion ſhould take effecte, onlie the Prince muſt not be acquainted therewith, but himſelf would preſentlie prepare for the Voyage, and would needs have the Prince name a Day for his Departure, which accordingly was deſigned and appointed.

Theſe Newes either came indeede, or was pretended to have come, to the Infanta; She is ſuppoſed to take it exceedinglie ill; The Condeſa d'Olivares, who hath the Care of her Education, ſent unto the Prince that it became him not to forſake the Company of ſuch a Lady for the gayning of a poor circumſtance of Tyme after ſo many and ſo extraordinary Expreſſions of Love and Affection, and (upon her Aſſurance that noe Advantage ſhould be taken of that Promiſe) prevailed with his Highnes to retorne this Complement, that rather then to give her Alteza any Diſguſt, he would ſtay for her ſeaven Years: The Conde (who winckt through his Fingars at theſe Actions of his Wife) preſſed to prepare for the Infanta's going, according to that Enchauntment the Duke had caſt upon him, burſt out into Oaths, and demaunded whether they thought he had nothing els to do with his Maſter's Money but to throw it out at the Window in this kind; and when the Prince replyed agayn, That if he were ſo carefull a Steward for his Maſter, his Highnes himſelf would defray the Preparations; he refuſed the Offer, and ſaid his Maſter expected no ſuch Supplies.

By this tyme Sir Francis Cottington is arrived with all things perfected by the Kinge, and Letters from the Ambaſſadors of good Satiſfaction, and a Command from our Kinge unto his Highnes to make his Returne within one Moneth after the Reception of theſe Letters; When the Prince expected to have founde them rapt with an Extaſie of Joy, they were in much Diſorder upon the hearing of the News, and infinitely troubled that his Majeſty had ſo well and ſo quietly overcome ſo many Particulars.

Here the Duke made this Annotation, That he would not poſitively affirm they meant to have bredd any Stirres in England, but this he well remembred, that when the Prince, to diſpute them out of their unreaſonable Demands in Matters of Religion, objected againſt them this Daunger of a Rebellion, they replyed again, That if he feared any ſuch thing, he ſhould be wayted uppon into England with a good and a ſtronge Army to decyde all Controverſies in Religion; A Courteſie, as the Lord Keeper obſerved, (in reporting the ſame) better underſtode in Millayne, Naples and Germanye, than hetherto (God be thanked) in this Iſland; But the Prince tould us his own Anſwer to this Complement of theirs, That the Remedy was farre worſe than the Diſeaſe.

Yet all this while there was no Preparation made by the Conde, not ſo much as for the Prince his Journey, which his Highnes ſaid was therefore differed in hope to have had him faſt and betroathed before his Departure.

Uppon the Certificate of the Ambaſſadors, brought by Sir Francis Cottington, the Duke preſſed the Conde with his former Promiſe to deliver the Lady, now the Condition beinge performed; The Conde told him the Time was paſt, and though his Grace offered to tarry to the verie brymme of Wynter for her Company, yet was the Motion ſleighted, and the Duke deſired to trouble himſelf no more with any Thought to that purpoſe.

About this tyme the Conde renewed the Treatie for the Reſtitution of the Pallatinate, ſaying, That the Lady ſhould by no meanes go into England before that Buſines were accomodated; and after Conference with the Germain Ambaſſadour, there was projected a Reſtitution of the Land to the Sonne uppon a Condition of Marriage with the Emperor's Daughter; which the Prince did not diſlike, but there was added withall another Condition, that his Sonne ſhould be bred in the Emperor's Court, which his Highnes utterlie rejected; as concerning the Prince Palatine himſelf, he muſt like Cain have a Marke of Infamy laid uppon his Perſon, and for the Electorate it was a thinge in Nubibus which hung in the Ayre, and altogether beyond their Reach and Power, nor would they by any meanes undertake for the ſame; Then the Prince demaunding of the Conde whether, in caſe the Emperor proved refractory, the King his Maſter would aſſiſte him with Armes to reduce him to reaſonable Termes? The Conde anſwered negatively, becauſe they had a Maxim of Eſtate, That the King of Spayne muſt never fight againſt the Emperor; he had indeede (for it was not to be denyed) dealt verie ill with them in this Particular, but if he ſhould beat and buffet them, they would not promiſe to employ their Forces againſt the Houſe of Auſtria; Hereuppon his Highnes made his Proteſtation to the Conde, Look to it, Sir, for if you hold your ſelfe to that there is an end of all, for without this you may not rely uppon either Marriage or Friendſhip, for I muſt (as I am required) retourne to my Father, and acquaint him with your Reſolution in this point; Looke for neither Marriage nor Friendſhip without Reſtitution of the Palatinat.

Yet was not the Earle of Briſtoll ſoe abſolutelie perſuaded of the Prince his Reſolution; for he offred (as was related in the Houſe of Commons) to lay with him a Ring worth a Thouſand Pounds, that for all his Father's Letter his Highnes would keepe his Chriſtmas at Madrid; which Wager the Prince layd with him, and gave away his Ringe before his Face.

About this tyme, when it was concluded that the Infanta ſhould not come away with the Prince, the Duke toke occaſion to open his Mynd with ſome Freedom to the Conde d'Olivares; he put him in minde how he had formerly told his Grace that they in Spayne could doe with the Pope what they would; and that his Holynes never aſſented to the Diſpenſation untill they had ſaid it was full tyme and had given him his Que: That he the Conde was the cauſe of calling the Juncta of the Theologues; which the Conde confeſſed, ſaying, That the Devill had put it into his Head ſoe to doe; alſoe that the Conde had offred unto his Grace the preſent conducting of the Lady ſo as he would but endaunger his Soule for the Favour and turn Roman Catholique:

To all this the Conde made anſwere, That there were but three Waies to wade through this Buſines, whereof two were good, the third an ill one; The firſt good one was the Converſion of the Prince, which now (God be praiſed) he found impoſſible; The ſecond good Way was, that as they were obliged by the Prince his free comming into Spayne, ſo they ſhould with the like Freedom deliver up the Infanta into his Hands, truſting him without further Condition; And the third Way (which he ſaid was a very ill one) was to wrapp him and ſwaddle him up as hard as they could with nyce Articles and ſtrict Conditions.

Whereupon the Duke replyed, That they had made Medea's Choice, diſcovered the beſt and choſen the worſt of all the Wayes.

The Conde replied againe, That, if he were a Counſaillor at large, he would adviſe the King to commit the Infanta unto his Highnes freelie and abſolutelie without Conditions; ſo he would do if he were the King, and as he was he would do ſo if the King were thirtie Yeres of Age; But being a Favorite, to anſwer the Actions of a Minor Kinge, (although he cannot deny but it lyes in his Power) yet he is reſolved the Infanta ſhall not go along with his Highnes but upon theiſe Conditions.

And by this tyme the braveſt Prince in Europe is grown cheap and vulgar in the Court of Spayne, ſoe as they will ſcarce beſtow a Viſit on him, and the Conde came very ſeldome at him; pretending for a Reaſon, That his Highnes looked but heavilie on him; that in fine the Duke was fayne to negotiate the Condeſa to procure her Lord to vouchſafe now and then to look upon his Highnes.

About this Place the Duke declared unto us, in thoſe Flaſhes and Lightnings of the Conde's Favour towards him, theiſe two Letters came to be produced, which are to be read by and by.

The Conde was in the good Humor and told his Grace that now certeinlie yt muſt be a Match, and that the Devil could not break it;

A.D. 1624. 21 Jac. I.

The Duke replyed, He thought ſoe to, and that the Match had need be firme and ſtronge, it had byn ſeaven Yeares in Soddering.

The Conde denyed it, and ſaid plainlie it had not byn reallie intended ſeaven Moneths.

The Duke rejoyned, That if he were ſure of that he could ingratiate himſelf very much with his Maſter, and receave many Thanks for this Journey and Ymployment, if he could make it appear unto the King that the Marriage was the Produce of this Negotiation only.

Then ſaith the Conde, I will fetch that out of my Deske that ſhall aſſure you thereof, and ſo produced theiſe two Letters: The firſt was written with the Kinge of Spayne's own Hand, read over five or ſix tymes, and the Subſtance collected in their Memory by the Prince and Sir Walter Aſton (the Duke having promiſed it ſhould not be coppied, and indeed the Time not permitting to do it) and by and by after ſet down in Writing; if We remember the Notary, Wee need not doubt but it is authenticall.

The ſecond Letter is tranſlated by the Prince himſelf.

The KING OF SPAYN's Letter of the fiſt of November one thouſand ſix hundred twenty two.

The King my Father declared at his Death, that his intent never was to marrie my Siſter the Infanta Dona Maria with the Prince of Wales, which your Uncle Don Baltazer underſtood, and ſo treated this Match ever with intention to delay it; notwithſtanding it is nowe ſo farre advanced, that conſidering withall the Averſnes unto it of the Infanta, it is tyme to ſeeke ſome meanes to divert the Treatie, which I would have you find it, and I will make it good whatſoever it be; but in all other things procure the Satisfaction of the King of Great Brittain who hath deſerved verie much, and it ſhall content me ſoe that it be not in the Match.

The Conde d'Olivares Letter of the Eight of November One thouſand ſix hundred twenty two, touching the Marriage.

Sir,

Conſidering in what Eſtate we find the Treatie of the Marriage between Spayne and England, and knowing certeinlie how the Miniſters did underſtand this Buſineſs that treated itt in the tyme of Philip the third that is in Heaven, that their meaning was never to effect it, but by inlarging the Treaties and Points of the ſaid Marriage to make uſe of the Friendſhip of the King of Great Brittain, as well in the matters of Germanie as in thoſe of Flanders and ſuſpecting likewiſe that your Majeſtie is of the ſame opinion, although the demonſtrations doe not ſeeme ſoe, joyning to theis Suſpitions, that it is certeine that the Infanta Dona Maria is reſolved to put her ſelf into the Diſcalzas the ſame Day that your Majeſtie ſhall preſſe her to make this Marriage; I have thought fitt to repreſent to your Majeſtie that which my good Zeale hath offred me in this occaſion, thinking it a good tyme to acquaint your Majeſtie withall, to the end you may reſolve of that which you ſhall finde moſt convenient with the Advice of thoſe Miniſters that you ſhall think fitt.

The King of Great Brittain doth find himſelfe at this tyme equallie engaged in two Buſineſſes; the one is this Marriage, to which he is moved by the conveniences that he finds in your Majeſties Frindſhip, with making an Agreement with thoſe Catholiques that he thinks are ſecretlie in his Kingdom, and by this to aſſure himſelf of them, as likewiſe to marrie his Sonne to one of the Houſe of Auſtria, knowing that the Infanta Dona Maria is the beſt borne Lady in the World;

The other Buſineſs is the Reſtitution of the Palatinate, in which he is yet more engaged, for beſides that his Reputation is at Stake, there is added the Love and Intereſt of his Grandchildren Sonnes of his onelie Daughter, ſo that both by the Law of Nature and Reaſon of State he ought to putt them before whatſomever Conveniencies might follow by diſſembling what they ſuffer.

I do not diſpute whether the King of Great Brittain be governed in this Buſines of the Palatinate by Art or Friendſhip, I think a Man might ſay he uſed both, But as a thing not preciſely neceſſary to this Diſcourſe, I omitt it; I hold it for a Maxime that theis two Ingagements, in which he finds himſelf are inſeparable, for although the Marriage be made we muſt faile in that which (in my way of underſtanding) is moſt neceſſary the Reſtitution of the Palatinate.

This being ſuppoſed, having made this Marriage in the form as it is treated, your Majeſtie ſhall find your ſelf (together with the King of Great Brittain) engaged in a Warr againſt the Emperour and the Catholique League, ſo that your Majeſtie will be forced to declare your ſelf with your Armes againſt the Emperor and the Catholique League (a thing which to hear with this uncerteintie will offend your godlie Ears) or declaring your ſelf for the Emperor and the Catholique League, as certeinly you will, your Majeſtie will find your ſelfe broken in a Warr, againſt the King of England and your Siſter married with his Sonne, with which all whatſoever Reaſons of Conveniences that were thought uppon with this Marriage doe ceaſe; if your Majeſtie ſhall ſhew your ſelf neutrall (as it may be that ſome will propound) the firſt will cauſe verie great Scandall, and with juſt Reaſon, ſince in matter of leſſe oppoſition then of Catholiques againſt Heretiques, the Armes of this Croune have taken the godlie againſt the convenient Party, and att this tyme the Frenchmen fomenting the Hollanders againſt your Majeſtie, your Piety hath byn ſuch, that you have ſent you Arms againſt the Rebells of that Croune, leaving all the great Conſiderations of State onlie becauſe theis Men are Enemies to the Faith and the Church: It will oblige your Majeſtie and give occaſion to thoſe of the League to make uſe of the King of Fraunce, and of other Catholique Princes ill affected to this Croune, for it will be a thing neceſſary for them ſoe to doe, and thoſe even againſt their own Religion will foment and aſſiſt the Heretiques for Hatred to us, without doubt they will follow the other Partie onlie to leave your Majeſtie with that Blemiſh that never hath befallen a King of theis Dominions.

The King of England will remaine offended and diſobliged, ſeing that neither Intereſt nor Helpes do follow the Alliance with this Crown, as likewiſe with particular Reſentment for having ſuffred his Daughter and Grandchildren to be ruyned for reſpect of the ſaid Alliance.

The Emperor, though he be well affected and obliged to us in making the Tranſlation at this time as Buſineſſes now ſtand; the Duke of Bavaria being poſſeſſed of all the Dominions, although he would diſpoſe all according to our Conveniencies, it will not be in his Power to do it, as your Majeſtie and everie Body may judge, and the Memoriall that the Emperor's Embaſſadors gave your Majeſtie Yeſterday, maketh it certaine; ſince in the Liſt of the Souldiers that every one of the League is to pay, Hee ſhewes your Majeſtie that Bavier, for himſelf alone, will pay more then all the reſt joyned together, the which doth ſhew his Power and Intention, which is not to accommodate Matters but to keep to himſelf the Superioritie of all in this broken tyme; The Emperor is now in the Diet, and the Tranſlation is to be made in it.

The Propoſition in this Eſtate is by conſidering the means of a Conference, which your Majeſtie's Miniſters will do with their Capacitie Zeale and Wiſdome; and it is certaine they will have enough to do with it all, for the Difficultie conſiſts to fynde a way to make the preſent Eſtate of Affairs ſtreight agayne, which with lingring (as it is ſaid) both the Power and Tyme will be loſt; I ſuppoſe that the Emperor, as your Majeſtie knoweth by his Ambaſſadors, deſires to marry his Daughter with the King of England's Sonne; I doubt not but he will be likewiſe glad to mary his Second Daughter with the Palatin's Sonne; Then I propound that theis two Marriages be made, and that they may be ſet on foot preſentlie, giving the King of England full Satisfaction in all his Propoſitions for the more ſtrict Union and Correſpondencie that he may agree to it; I hold it for certayne, that al the Conveniences that would have followed the Alliance with us will be as full in this; and the Conveniencie in the Great Engagement is more by this; For it doth accomodate the Matter of the Palatinate and the Succeſſion of his Grandchildren with Honor, and without drawing a Sword or waſting Treaſure; With this I Intereſt the Emperor with the Conveniences of the King of England and the Palatin, the onelie Means in my way of underſtanding to hinder thoſe great Dangers that do threaten this Meanes not to accomodate the Buſineſſes, and not to ſever himſelf from the Conveniences and Engagements of Bavaria; I reduce the Prince Elector, that was an Enemy to the Obedience of the Church, by breeding his Sonnes in the Emperor's Court with Catholique Doctrine.

The Buſines is great, the Difficulties greater then perchance have byn in any other caſe; I have found my ſelf obliged to repreſent unto your Majeſtie and ſhall ſhew, if you ſhall command me, what I think fit for the diſpoſing of the things, and of the great Miniſters that your Majeſtie hath, I hope, with the particuler notice of theſe things, and all being helped with the good Zeale of the Conde of Gondomar, yt may be that God will open a Way to a thing ſo much for his and your Majeſtie's Service.

It was obſerved by reaſon of a pertinent Queſtion moved by the Lord Chamberlaine, that theiſe Letters were written when Porter was in Spayne.

His Highnes remembred that Sir Walter Aſton was ſtruck mute at the reading of theiſe Letters; for upon the Death of the late King of Spayne, he and Sir Francis Cottington, going from our Maſter to the King that now is, to know his mynde concerning the Treatie of the Marriage, received from that King and retorned it to his Majeſtie; That he was verrie ſorrie he had not the Honor to begin it, but now he would purſue it with all Alacritie; Yt went before in his Father's tyme, yt ſhall run now; Then it had leaden Heels, he would now give it Wings.

And hetherto extends the third Part of the Narrative which comprehends the Treaties of the Marriage and Reſtitution as unyted and reciprocally ſubordinated the one to the other.

The PRINCE his Retorne from Spayne.

And now the Prince retorning for England, being engaged to leave his Proxie, did depoſite the ſame in the Hands of the Earl of Briſtoll, who was to keep it and uſe it as his Proctor; that is, as he ſhould receave his Highnes his Directions from tyme to tyme; his Order for the preſent was, that if the Confirmation came from Rome cleare and entyre (which it did not) then within ſo manie Dayes he ſhould deliver it to the King of Spayne: A ſecond Direction was ſent unto him by a Letter which his Highnes ſent him, betwene his Departure from the Eſcuriel and his coming to the Sea-ſide, to this effect; That for fear a Monaſterie ſhould rob him of his Wiſe, he ſhould ſtay the Delivery of the Powers untill that Doubt were cleared, and that his Highnes ſhould ſend him in the Premiſſes ſome further Direction.

A.D.1624

Here, becauſe my Lord of Briſtoll, in his Letter of the firſt of November one thouſand ſix hundred twentie three, doth preſſe ſo vehementlie the Prince his Faith not to retract this Proxie, and that Serica the Secretarie had inſerted ſuch a Clauſe in the Inſtrument ſigned and ſealed authenticallie; the Lord Keeper in his Report in this Place collected all thoſe Parts of the Narration which might ſerve to cleere this Act of his Highnes, and added ſome Reaſons to mayneteyne the ſame:

Firſt, The Prince avowed openlie before both Houſes that he had never by Oath or Honor engaged himſelf not to revoke the Powers more then by that Clauſe (De non revocanda Procuratione) inſerted in the Inſtrument it ſelfe.

Secondlie, His Highnes added in the Upper-houſe, that when he firſt heard that Clauſe read he ſtumbled at it, but was anſwered again, That it was but a matter of meer Forme; and altho' eſſentially of no bynding Power, yet uſually thruſt into every ſuch Inſtrument.

Thirdlie, The Lord Keeper ſaid, and appealed therein to all the Civilians Attendants in that Houſe, that it is lawful by the Civil and Cannon Law for anie Man to revoke his Proxie for Marriage, notwithſtanding it hath the Clauſe, De non revocanda Procuratione, inſerted in it; yea and this may be done without any ſolempne Notification thereof; And therefore he concluded, that the Earle of Briſtoll, in charging this upon the Prince, had much forgot himſelf, and that his Highnes might juſtlie honorablie and legallie, not onlie ſtaie as he did, but withall (if he had ſo pleaſed) abſolutlie have revoked his owne Proxie.

And ſo much of the fowerth Part of this Narrative, the Circumſtances of his Highnes Retorne from Spayne.

The ſubſequent Proceedings of his MAJESTIE in both the Treaties ſithence the Retorne of his Highnes.

And here the Duke told us how the Prince at the laſt, by the Mercie of God and his own wiſe and judicious Demeanor, came to Royſton, and made his Relation to the King of all that had paſſed: His Majeſtie was glade of this exact Carriage of his Sonne in ſo great a Negotiation, and told his Highneſs that he had acted well the parte of a Sonne, and now the part of a Father muſt come uppon the Stage, which was to provide with all Circumſpection that his onelie Sonne ſhould not be married with a Portion of Teares to his onelie Daughter; And therefore his Majeſtie commaunds by an expreſs Diſpatch the Stay of the Proxie in the Earle of Briſtoll's Hands, untill he had ſome better Aſſurance of the Reſtitution of the Palatinate: Hereupon the Lord Keeper obſerved, that this is no upſtart or ſpringing Condition, but the verie ſame offered by Olivares his blanke Paper to his Highneſs, and preſſed by his Highneſs his laſt Anſwere to Olivares.

His MAJESTIE's Letter to the EARL OF BRISTOLL of the eight of October one thouſand ſix hundred twenty three.

Wee have received yours brought us by Greſly, and the Coppie of yours to our deare Sonne, and We cannot forbeare to lett you know how well We eſteem your dutifull diſcreet and judicious Relation and humble Adviſe to our ſelf and our Sonne; Whereupon having ripely deliberated with our ſelf, and communicated with our dear Sonne, we have reſolved with the great Liking of our Sonne, to reſt upon that Securitie, in Point of Doubt of the Infanta's

Infanta's taking a Religious Order, which you in your Jugement ſhall think meete: We have further thought meete to give you Knowledge that it is our ſpeciall Deſier that the Betrothing of the Infanta with Words de præſenti, ſhould bee upon one of the Daies in Chriſtmas new Style, that holie and joyfull Tyme beſt fitting ſo notable and bleſſed an Action.

But firſt Wee will that you repaier preſentlie to that King, and give him Knowledge of the ſafe Arrivall of our deere Sonne, to our Court, ſoe ſatisfyed and taken with the great Enterteynment, perſonall Kindneſs, and Favour and Reſpect he hath received from that King and Court, as he ſeems not able to magnifie it ſufficientlie, which makes us not know how ſufficientlie to give Thankes, but will, that by all meanes you endeavour to expreſs our Thankfulneſs to that King, and the reſt to whom it belongs in the beſt and moſt ample Manner you can; And hereuppon you may take Occaſion to let that King know, That according to our conſtant Affection to make a firme and undiſſoluble Amitie betweene our Families Nations and Crownes, and not ſeem to abandon our Honour, nor at the ſame time Wee give Joy to our onelie Sonne, to give our onelie Daughter her Portion in Tears; by the Adviſe of that King's Ambaſſadors, (they have offered themſelves as our Councellors,) Wee have entered a Treatie concerning the Reſtitution of the Palatinate as will more particularlie appear to you by the Copies herewith ſent:

Now We muſt remember you that Wee have ever underſtood and expected that uppon the Marriage of our Sonne with the Infanta, Wee ſhould have a cleere Reſtitution of the Palatinate and Electorall Dignitie to our Sonne in Lawe, to be really procured by that King, according to the Obligation of our Honour, as you have well expreſſed in your Reaſons whie the Perſon of our Sonne in Lawe ſhould not be left out of the Treatie, but that the Emperour ſhould find out what greater Title, or by encreaſing the number of Electorate Styles wherewith to ſatisfie the Duke of Bavaria; Wee now therefore require you that preſentlie, in your firſt Audience, you procure from that King a punctuall Anſwere, What courſe that King will take for the Reſtitution of the Palatinate and Electorate to our Sonne in Lawe? and in Caſe that either the Emperor or the Duke of Bavaria will oppoſe any part of the expected Reſtitution, What Courſe that King will take to give us aſſurance for our Content in that point? Whereof Wee requier your preſent Anſwer, and that you ſoe preſſe Expedition herein, that Wee may together receive the full Joy of both at Chriſtmas, reſting Our ſelf uppon that faithful Diligence of yours We have approved in all your Services; Though almoſt with the lateſt, Wee muſt remember you as a good Ground for you to worke on, that our Sonne did write to us out of Spayne, that that King would give us a Blanck in which We might forme our own Conditions concerning the Palatinate, and the ſame our Sonne confirms to us now; What Obſervation and Performance that King will make, Wee requier you to expreſſe, and to give us a ſpeedie Accompt.

Given, &c.

Hereabouts the Duke deſired us to obſerve well the Spaniſh Proceedings, and if wee found them not ſtill to be built uppon Generalls, without any one diſtinct or certaine Particuler Obligement, he would acknowledge his own Weaknes and Incapacitie in theis Affaires.

You would conceave, ſaith the Duke, that uppon this Diſpatch the Earle of Briſtoll would lay hold upon all Hints and emergent Occaſions to put of the Deſponſorios, without this required Aſſurance of Aſſiſtance by Armes firſt obteyned; but the Truth is, he did not ſoe; for,

First the Confirmation came from Rome clogged and mangled, and inſteed of challenging them thereuppon he labours with no ſmall Strength of Witt to hide and palliate the ſame.

Secondlie when, in the temporall Articles, the Portion was altered from ſix hundred thouſand Pounds in ready Caſh to ſome fourſcore thouſand Pounds in Money, a few Jewells, and a Penſion of twentie thouſand Pounds per Annum; inſtead of quarrelling this maine Alteration, he ſeems to approve and applaud the Payment.

Thirdlie for the Aſſurance of Reſtitution of the Palatynate, the main Fundation of both Match and Friendſhip, hee is ſo farr from providing for it before, which was the method preſcribed him by the King, that he leaves the it to be mediated by the Infanta after the Marriage.

Lastlie, Inſteed of putting of the Contract, as any Man in the World (uppon the Diſpatch from Royſton) would have done, he is come to prefix a preciſe Day for the Deſponſorios. Theis thinges appeare verie plainelie by the Letters of the foure and twentith of October one thouſand ſix hundred twentie three, and the firſt of November one thouſand ſixe hundred twentie three; Which follow.

May it Please your most excellent Majestie.

I have received your Majeſtie's Letters of the eight of October on the one and twentith of the ſame Month ſome Howers within Night, and have thought it fitt to diſpatch backe unto your Majeſtie with all poſſible Speed, referring the Anſwere to what your Majeſtie hath by theis Letters commaunded mee, to a Poſt that I ſhall purpoſelie diſpatch when I ſhall have negotiated the Particulars with this King and his Miniſters, wherein (God willing) all poſſible Diligence ſhall be uſed.

But foraſmuch as I finde, both by your Majeſtie's ſaid Letters, as likewiſe by Letters which I have received by the Prince his Highneſs, that you continue your Deſires of having the Match proceeded in, I held it my Dutie that your Majeſtie ſhould be informed, that although I am ſett free in as much as concerneth the doubt of the Infanta's entring into Religion, for the delivering of the Powers left with me by his Highneſs, yet by this new Direction I now receive from your Majeſtie that the Deſponſorios ſhould be deferred till Chriſtmas, the ſaid Powers are made altogether uſeles and invalid, it being a Clauſe in the Body of the ſaid Powers that they ſhall onelie remayne in Force untill Chriſtmas and noe longer, as your Majeſtie may ſee by the Coppie of them which I ſend herein incloſed.

Your Majeſtie, I conceive, will be of Opinion that this ſuſpending of the Execution of the Powers, untill the Force and Validitie of them be expired, is a direct and effectual Revoking of them; which not to do, how farr his Highnes is in his Honor engaged, your Majeſtie will be beſt able to judge by viewing the Powers themſelves: Further, if the Date of theis Powers doe expire (beſides the Breach of the Capitulations) although the Match it ſelf ſhould not by Jealouſies and Miſtruſts be hazarded, yet the Princeſſes coming at the Spring into England, will be almoſt impoſſible; For by that Tyme new Commiſſions and Powers ſhall be (after Chriſtmas) graunted by the Prince (which muſt be to the Satisfaction of both Parties) I conceive ſo much of the Yeare will be ſpent, that it will be impoſſible for the Fleets and other Preparations to be in a readynes againſt the Spring; For it is not to be ymagined that they will here proceed effectually with their Preparations untill they ſhall be aſſured of the Deſponſorios, eſpecially when they ſhall have ſeen them ſeveral times deferred on the Prince his part; and that upon Pretexts that are not new nor growen ſince the granting of the Powers, but were before in being, and often under Debate, and yet were never inſiſted upon to make ſtay of the Buſines; ſo that it will ſeem that they might better have hindred the granting of them than the Execution of them; now if there were no ſtaggering in former Reſolutions, the which although really there is not, yet cannot it be but ſuſpected, and the cleering of it betweene Spayne and England will coſt much tyme.

I muſt humbly crave your Majeſty's Pardon if I write unto you with the Playnnes of a true-hearted and faithfull Servant, who have ever co-operated honeſtlie unto your Majeſtie's Ends if I knew them: I know your Majeſtie hath long been of Opinion that the greateſt Aſſurance you could get that the Kyng of Spayne would effectually labour the entyre Reſtitution of the Palatynate was, that he reallie proceeded to the effecting of the Match, and my Inſtructions under your Majeſtie's Hand were to inſiſt upon the reſtoring of the Prince Palatyne, but not to annex it to the Treatie of the Match as that thereby the Match ſhould be hazarded; for that your Majeſtie ſeemed confident they here would never grow to a perfect Concluſion, without a ſetled Reſolution to give your Majeſtie Satisfaction in the Buſines of the Palatinate: The ſame Courſe I obſerved in the Carriages of Buyſineſſes by his Highnes and my Lord Duke at their being here; who though they inſiſted on the Buyſines of the Palatinate, yet they held it fit to treat of them diſtinctlie, and that the Mariage ſhould ſhould proceed as a good Pawne for the other.

Since their Departure my Lord Ambaſſador Sir Walter Aſton and my ſelf, have much preſſed to have this King's Reſolution in Writing concerning the Palatinate, and the Diſpatches, which your Majeſtie will receive herewith concerning that Buyſines, were written before the Receipte of theis your Majeſtie's Letters, and doubtles it is now a great part of their Care that that Buyſineſs may be well ended before the Infanta's coming into England; and his Highnes will well remember, that the Conde de Olivares often proteſted the Neceſſitie of having this Buyſines compounded and ſetled before the Marriage, ſaying, Otherwiſe they might give a Daughter and have a Warr within three Monethes after, yf this Ground and Subject of Quarrell ſhould ſtill be left on Foote; The ſame Language he hath ever held with Sir Walter Aſton and my ſelf, and that it was a firm Peace and Amitie, as much as an Alliance, which they ſought with his Majeſtie; ſo that it is not to be doubted but that this King, concluding the Match, reſolveth to imploy his utmoſt Power for your Satiſfaction in the Reſtitution of the Prince Palatine: The Queſtion now will be, whether the Buyſines of the Prince Palatine, having relation to many great Princes that are intereſted therein living at great diſtance, and being indeed for the Condition and Nature of the Buyſines it ſelfe impoſſible to be ended but by a formal Treatie, which of neceſſitie will require great Length, whether the Concluſion of the Match ſhall any way depend upon the Iſſue of this Buyſines? Which I conceive to be farr from your Majeſtie's Intention; For ſoe the Prince might be long kept unbeſtowed, by any Averſnes of thoſe that might have particuler Intereſt in the Prince's remayning unmarried, or diſlike of his Matching with Spayne; but that which I underſtand to be your Majeſtie's Ayme, is onlie to have the Concluſion of this Match accompanied with a ſtrong Ingagement as can be procured from this King for the joyning with your Majeſtie; not onelie in all good Offices for the intyer Reſtitution of the Palatinate, but otherwiſe, if need require, of his Majeſtie's Aſſiſtance herein:

I have theis Daies paſt laboured with all Earneſtnes and procured this King's publike Anſwere, which I am told is reſolved of; And I ſhall within this few Daies have it to ſend to your Majeſtie, as likewiſe a private Propoſition which will be put into your Hands, and ſhall not fayle further to purſue your Majeſtie's preſent Directions of procuring this King's Declaration, in what ſort your Majeſtie may relye upon this King's Aſſiſtance, in caſe the Emperor or the Duke of Bavaria ſhall oppoſe the entyer Reſtitution of the Prince Palatyne? But I conceive, if it be your Majeſtie's Intention, that I ſhould procure here firſt this King's peremptorie Aunſwere in the whole Buyſines, and how he will be aſſiſtant unto your Majeſtie, in caſe of the Emperor's or the Duke of Bavaria's Averſenes? And that I ſhould ſend it unto your Majeſtie, and receive again your Anſwer befor I deliver the Powers for the Deſponſorios, the Match would thereby, if not be hazarded, yet I conceive the Infanta's going at Spring would be rendred altogether impoſſible; For if, uppon the Arrivall of the Pope's Approbation, I cannot refuſe them but uppon ſome Ground; if I alleage your Majeſtie's Deſier of having the Deſponſorios deferred untill Chriſtmas, they know as well as my ſelf that his Highnes Proxie is then out of Date, beſides the infringing of the Capitulations: and they will judge it as a great Scorn put uppon this King, who ever ſince the Prince's granting of his Powers, hath called himſelf the Infantas Deſponſado; and to that effect the Prince hath writ unto him in ſome of his Letters; Beſides, it will be held here of great Diſhonor unto the Infanta, if the Powers, called for by her Friends, ſhould be deteyned by the Prince his part, and whoſoever els may have deſerved ill, ſhe certeinlie hath neither deſerved Diſreſpect nor Diſcomfort: Further, upon any Refuſall to deliver the Powers, all Preparations, which now go on cheerfully and apace, will be ſtayed, aud there will enter in ſo much Diſtruſt and ſo many Jealouſies, that if the mayne Buyſines run not hazard by them, at leaſt much tyme will be ſpent to clear them.

I muſt therefore in Diſcharge of my Dutie tell your Majeſtie, that all your Majeſtie's Buyſines here are in a fair Way; The Match and all that is capitulated therein they profeſs punctually to performe.

In the Buyſines of the Palatynate they proteſt that they infinitelie deſire, and will to the uttermoſt of their

Powers endeavour to procure your Majeſtie's Satisfaction,

The Prince is like to have a moſt worthie and vertuous Lady, and who much loveth him, and all things elſe depending upon this Match, are in a good and hopefull way.

This is now the preſent Eſtate of your Majeſtie's Affaires as it appeareth unto me and to Sir Walter Aſton, with whom I have communicated this Diſpatch, as I do all things elſe concerning your Majeſtie's Service, and I muſt cleerlie let your Majeſtie underſtand, that I conceive by reteyning of the Powers, When this King ſhall call for them, and offering to deferr the Deſponſorios untill Chriſtmas, that your Majeſtie's Buſſineſſes will run a great Hazard, What by the Diſtaſts and Diſguſts that will be raiſed here, and what by the Arts and Induſtrie of thoſe which are Enemies to the Match, Wherof every Court of Chriſtendom hath plentie.

That therefore which I preſume with all Humility to offer unto your Majeſtie is, that you would be pleaſed to give me Order, with all poſſible Speed, that when the Buſineſs ſhall come cleered from Rome, and that the Powers of the Marriage ſhall be demaunded of me in the behalf of this King, that I may deliver them and noe wayes ſeek to interrupt or ſuſpend the Deſponſorios, but aſſiſt and help to a perfect Concluſion of the Match.

And that for the Buſineſs of the Palatinate I contynue my earneſt and faithfull Endeavours to ingage this King, as farr as ſhall be poſſible, both for the doing of all good Offices for the Palatynes entier Reſtitution, as likewiſe for this King's Declaration of Aſſiſtance, in Caſe the Emperour or the Duke of Bavaria ſhall oppoſe the ſaid Reſtitution; herein I will not faile to uſe all poſſible Meanes, and I conceive the Diſpatch of the Match will be a good Pawne in the Buſines, and the Helpe and Aſſiſtance which the Princeſſe, being once Betrothed, would be able to give in this Court to all your Majeſtie's Buſineſſes, would be of good Conſideration: Soe fearing I have already preſumed too farre upon your Majeſtie's Patience, I humbly crave your Majeſtie's Pardon, and recommend you to the holie Protection of God, reſting

Your Majeſtie's moſt humble and faithfull Subject and Servant,

Madrid 24. Oct.
1623. BRISTOLL.

The EARLE OF BRISTOLL to his Majeſtie the firſt of November one thouſand ſix hundred twenty three.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR MAJESTY,

I find that uppon the News that is come from the Duke of Paſtrana, that the Pope hath cleerlie paſſed the Diſpenſation which is now howerlie expected here, there is an Intention to call preſentlie upon me for the Princes Powers for the Marriage left in my Hands, the which I know not uppon what ground or reaſon to deteyne, the Prince having engaged in the ſaid Powers the Faith and Word of a Prince noe Way to revoke or retract from them, but that they ſhould remayne of full force till Chriſtmas, and delivered unto me with publique Declaration of his Pleaſure, that uppon the coming of the Diſpenſation I ſhould deliver them unto this King that they might be putt in due Execution, and hereof likewiſe was there by Secretary Cerica as a publique Notarie, an Inſtrument draun, atteſtated by all the Witneſſes preſent. If I ſhall alleage your Majeſties Pleaſure of having the Marriage deferred untill one of the Chriſtmas Holydaies, although they ſhould condeſcend thereunto, that is ympoſſible, for the Powers will be then expired; if I ſhall inſiſt uppon the Reſtitution of the Palatinate, this King hath therein declared his Anſwere, and it will be much wondred, Why that ſhould be now added for a Condition of the Marriage, having ever hitherto been treated of as a Buſines apart, and was in being at the granting of the ſaid Powers, and hath been often under Debate but never ſpecified, nor the Powers delivered uppon any Condition of having any ſuch Point firſt cleared; and I muſt confeſs unto your Majeſtie I underſtand not how with Honor and that exact Dealing which hath byn ever obſerved in all your Majeſty's Actions, the Powers can be deteyned, unleſſe there ſhould appear ſome new and emergent Cauſe ſince the granting of them (Whereof as yet I heare none ſpecified) I therefore being loth to be the Inſtrument, by whoſe Hands any thing ſhould ſhould paſs that might have the leaſt Reflexion uppon your Majeſtie's or the Prince's Honor (which I ſhall ever more value then my own Life or Saſetie) and my judging it likewiſe to conduce more to your Service, and aſſuring my ſelf that your Majeſtie's late Direction to have the Marriage upon one of the Holy Daies in Chriſtmas, was for Want of due Information that the Powers will be then expired, I have thought it fitt (with the Adviſe of Sir Walter Aſton) to raiſe no Scruple in the Delivery of the ſaid Powers, but do intend when they ſhall be inquired, to paſſe on to the nominating of a prefixed Day for the Deſponſorios, But I ſhall endeavour to deferr the tyme untill I may be advertiſed of your Majeſtie's Pleaſure, if it may be within the ſpace of foure and twentie Daies, and will labour to finde ſome handſome and fairer Occaſion for the deferring of them, without alledging any Directions in that kinde from your Majeſtie or the Prince.

The Reaſons whie I have thought it fitt to take this Reſolution are,

FIRST, I find by your Majeſtie's Letters and the Princes, that your Intent is to proceed in the Marriage, and to that purpoſe your Majeſtie and the Prince have lett me free to deliver the Powers according to the firſt Intentions, by removing that Scruple of the Infanta's entring into Religion, Whereuppon they were onlie ſuſpended.

SECONDLY, your Majeſtie's Letter intimateth onelie a Deſier (not a Direction) of having the Marriage uppon one of the Holie Daies in Chriſtmas, Which I conceive is to be underſtood if it may well and fittinglie be ſo, not if there ſhall be an Impoſſibilitie therein by reaſon of the expiring of the Powers before; and that the Intention of having it then ſhould be overthrown thereby, When I am confident that what your Majeſtie writeth is for Want of due Information of the Clauſe of Expiration of the Powers.

THIRDLIE, if your Majeſtie, uppon theis Reaſons and ſuch as I have formerlie alledged unto your Majeſtie ſhould, as I no Way doubt but your Majeſtie will, give me Order for the preſent Proceeding to the Marriage yet by my refuſing of the Powers, and alledging your Majeſties or the Princes Directions (though afterwards all things ſhould be cleared) yet would it caſt ſome kinde of Aſperſion and Jealouſie uppon the Sinceritie of your Majeſties and the Princes Proceedings: On the contrary ſide, if your Majeſties Intentions be not to proceed in the Match, (whereof I ſee no Ground) the Intimation of that may be as wel a Month hence as now, and I judge it Duty in a Servant (eſpecially in a Buſineſs in ſo high conſequence) and wherein your Majeſtie hath ſpent ſo much tyme, to give his Maſter leiſure to repaier unto his ſecond Cogitations, before he do anie Act that may diſorder or overthrow itt.

This I offer with all Humilitie unto your Majeſties wiſe and juſt Conſideration, and beſeech you to make Interpretation of my Proceedings herein according to my dutifull and zealous Care of your Honor and Service; I have of Purpoſe diſpatched this Poſt with this Letter, to the end I may receive your Majeſties Directions in this particular with all poſſible Speed, Which I hope ſhall be to proceed directlie to the Marriage according to the Capitulations, and ſo to order all things for the Princeſſe her Journey in the Spring: And for the Palatinate, your Majeſtie may be confident there ſhall be all Diligence uſed in procuring a ſpeedie and good Reſolution: Soe &c.

Madrid 1. Novembris 1623. Stilo Vet.

Now from this raſh fixing of the Day of the Deſponſorios in Spaine, which was controuled again by an Expreſs from hence, yſſued an unneceſſary Diſcourteſie put upon that King, and in a manner wantonlie by the Earle of Briſtoll; From that proceeded a great Affront put upon the Prince, the taking away the Title of la Princeſſa from the Infanta, and the debarring of our Ambaſſadors from any further Acceſſe unto her Perſon as her Servants or Attendants; and, with theiſe, the greateſt Diſcourteſie of all put upon the King our Maſter, that when they retorned unto us a poor lean and meagar Diſpatch concerning the Reſtitution of the Palatinate, yet the Earle of Briſtoll accompanied it with this Item, That they were faine to antedate the Paper for their Honors ſake; or elſe, if they had taken notice of the Stay of the Deſponſorios, they had ſent it ten tymes worſe; you will not beleeve his Lordſhip when you have read it.

The King of Spaine's Anſwer of the ſixt of December one thouſand ſix hundred twenty three, to the Ambaſſadors Memoriall touching the Buyſines of the Palatinate.

That which his Catholique Majeſtie hath commanded ſhould be given in Anſwer to the third Memoriall, which the Earl of Briſtoll and Sir Walter Aſton, Ambaſſadors Extraordinarie and Ordinary to his Majeſtie the King of Great Brittaine, delivered unto him touching the Buyſines of the Palatinate.

That his Majeſtie hath ſeen the third Memoriall which they delivered touching the Buyſines of the Palatinate, and that the Anſwers which of late he hath commaunded ſhould be given unto the reſt which they have delivered in that Buyſines; preſuppoſed it ſeemeth to him that there is nothing els which can be added in anſwere to that which they now preſent, ſince the Anſwere therein required is not neceſſary untill that all which is there propounded on the behalfe of the Counte Palatine hath firſt taken effect, and that he hath endeavoured to give the Emperor Satisfaction by the Demonſtrations and Satisfactions there mentioned; For that it were Injuſtice in his Catholique Majeſtie to ſhew any Diſtruſt that the Emperor his Uncle ſhould not uſe his Mercie and Clemencie, and give the King's Majeſtie of Great Brittaine all poſſible Satisfaction, in caſe the Count Palatine performe ſuch Acts of Submiſſion and Aſſurance as are in the ſaid Memoriall propounded; eſpecially being accompanied with the Favour and Interceſſion of his Majeſtie, which is, and ever ſhall be, interpoſed for the effecting of it; and that in doing otherwiſe, his Majeſtie ſhould loſe the Power which he hath as an Arbitrator and Mediator in this Buyſines, in accommodating of it to the Content and Satisfaction of his Majeſtie the King of Great Brittaine, as he much deſireth and ſhall endeavor; and to doubt of the effecting of it, ſeemeth to his Majeſtie, were to injure the Emperor, conſidering their Amitie and good Correſpondencie, and the confident Aſſurance he hath of his Interceſſion with him; and is likewiſe of Opinion that, to the end the good Offices which his Majeſtie ſhall do in this Buyſines may take the good Effect which he wiſheth, and that the King of Great Brittain may receive all Satisfaction, it is fit that his Catholique Majeſtie ſhould not make himſelf a formal Partie in it as it is preſſed by the Ambaſſadors.

Madrid 6. Dec. 1623.

Here the Prince obſerved that, whereas the King of Spaine ſaith in this Paper that he hath no Power over the Emperor, in other Treaties he toke upon him to have much Power over him, ſoe that his Highnes ſaied he verilie believed that he had not Power at his own Pleaſure.

Well, for all that Bravado and Menace uppon the former Diſpatch, they have taken their Pen in hand again, and have ſent unto his Majeſtie a Project of a Letter, the which, if his Majeſtie ſhall make an Invitation to that effect, ſhall be ſent unto his Majeſtie from the King of Spain; and this Letter is the Hercules Pillar, and the nihil ultra in all this Negotiation of the Palatinate.

The King of Spayne his Anſwere the firſt of January one thouſand ſix hundred twenty four Stilo novo, touching the Palatinate.

For the Eſtimation which his Majeſtie maketh of your Lordſhip and Sir Walter Aſton, and for the Deſier he hath to ſatisfie the Inſtances that you have made that he would write unto the King of Great Brittaine in the Buyſines of the Prince Palatine, he hath condeſcended thereunto; But this is to be done when you ſhall bring any Letters from the King of Great Brittaine touching the ſaid Buyſines, and hath in the mean tyme commaunded mee to ſend you this Copie, which is the Anſwere which his Majeſtie commandeth to be given to that which was laſt propounded by you in that Buyſines, and that when you ſhall bring the ſaid Letter from your King, then the

the Original Letter of the King my Maſter ſhall be delivered unto you with a great Deſire of giving full Satisfaction: God preſerve your Lordſhip, &c.

Jan. 5. 1624.

Juan de Serica.

Having given Anſwere to your Majeſtie's Ambaſſadors, and to ſuch Memorialls as they have hitherto delivered unto me touching the accommodating of the Buſineſs of the Prince Palatine, and having made known my Deſier and Intention herein, they have againe of late with much Earneſtnes ſollicited mee in the three Points following.

The First, That I ſhould do all good Offices of Mediation with the Emperor to the end he may yeeld unto the entier Reſtitution of the Prince Palatyne to his Poſſeſſions and Dignities.

The Second, That a limited Time might be appointed for the negotiating by way of Mediation.

The Third, that I ſhould forthwith declare my ſelf, That the ſaid Mediation not taking Effect, within the lymitted Tyme, I would employ my Armes againſt the Emperour.

Touching the First, Your Majeſtie may reſt aſſured that I am readie reallie and effectually to aſſiſt your Majeſtie with the beſt Offices I ſhall be able, to the end you may receive entier Satisfaction, the Prince Palatyne performing the due Submiſſions and what els is requiſite, as hath byn ſaid in my former Anſwers, touching the Alliance and Securitie on his Part; and that I will contynue the ſaid good Offices untill the final Concluſion of the Buyſines.

As for the Second Point, I am well content that there be a lymited Tyme appointed how long the Offices of Mediation are to endure; But ſince the Buſineſs cannot be accommodated without a formal Treatie, which cannot be but in thoſe Parts, your Majeſtie taking ſuch Term of Time as ſhall ſeem requiſite for ſo great and difficult a Buyſines, may agree on it there, either with the Infanta my Aunt, or with my Ambaſſadors, and I doe from this tyme approve thereof; and ſo your Majeſtie may give order that, without the Loſſe of any further Tyme, the Treatie begin for the accomodating of the Buyſines, wherein your Majeſtie may likewiſe make ſuch Propoſitions for the ſatisfieing the Duke of Bavaria as ſhall ſeem fitting.

Concerning the Third Part, wherein I am entreated in your Majeſtie's Name by your Ambaſſadors, that I would forthwith declare my ſelf, that in caſe the Mediation take not effect, I would ymploye my Arms againſt the Emperor, although I am moſt certaine and confident that by your Majeſtie's and my Interceſſion, together with the Submiſſion of the Prince Palatyne, and the Performance of what els ſhall be neceſſary as is aboveſaid; The Emperor my Uncle will, without all Doubt ſhew his Clemencie, and give your Majeſtie entire Satisfaction; yet the making of ſuch a Declaration, beſides that it were to bereave me of the Power as Arbitrator and Mediator in the Buyſines by making my ſelf a formal Partie, that were likewiſe to give juſt occaſion of Offence to the Emperor my Uncle, and to faile in the due Reſpect which is fitting I ſhould ſhew towards him, if I ſhould accompanie the Offices of Mediation with Menaces of Armes; But your Majeſtie may be confident that I will procure by all meanes poſſible with the Emperor, that this Buyſines may be effected to your Majeſtie's full Satisfaction, without withdrawing my Hand from it untill that which your Majeſtie deſireth be accompliſhed.

This Letter his Majeſtie hath alreadie ſcanned to a Syllable, and ſuppoſing ſome Virtue might be extracted out of that Phraſe Alzar la mano, and the King will not take his Hand from off the Buyſines untill our Maſter ſhall receive Satisfaction; his Majeſtie ſent unto the Spaniſh Ambaſſadors Men of great Underſtanding and Qualitie for a Key or a Comment to open the ſame, and behold this is all they retorn back unto his Majeſtie, nor take of his Hand; id eſt, hee will imploy without Intermiſſion his beſt Offices to procure Satisfaction unto his Majeſtie; and hitherto that Hand of Mediation hath proved but an unluckie Hand in all this Buſines.

Here the Lord Keeper related ſomewhat that was delivered by Cerica unto the Earl of Briſtoll at the ſame inſtant with this Project of the Letter, as Maſter Clerk, who was then preſent, hath told the Duke of Buckingham; videlicet, That, whereas the Kyng of Spayne had found his Error in going on faſt with the Treatie of the Match before he had cleared the Treaty of the Reſtitution of the Palatinate, he is now reſolved to invert his Method and to perfect the Treatie of the Reſtitution of the Palatinate before he will proceed any further in that of the Marriage; ſo as the two Treaties as they move in Spain, are now quit the one with the other; as formerlie the Treatie of the Marriage did juſtle out the Treatie of the Palatinate; ſoe now the Treatie of the Palatinate hath quite excluded the Treatie of the Marriage: And here my Lord Duke acquainting us, as Admirall, the Advertiſements he had received of the Fleete prepared in Spayne, the Arreſt of ſome of our Shipps, and the coming over of Padre Maiſtro made an end of the firſt Part of his Narrative, which conteyned the ſubſequent Proceedings of his Majeſtie by a ſelect Committee of Councellors in both theſe Treaties ſithence the Retorne of his Highnes from Spayne.

The Stating of the Queſtion ſuper totam materiam.

The Queſtion the Duke ſtated after this Manner:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

All your ſpeedy and faithful Adviſe concerning this laſt Diſpatch that ymplieth (in the Word Alliances) the Education of the Prince Palatine his Sonne in the Emperor's Court, and promiſeth no Aſſiſtance by Arms to recover the Palatinate, is that his Majeſtie expecteth from both the Houſes at this tyme, whether this Project of a Letter, being the full Effect and Produce of all that Negotiation which I have opened to you, be ſufficient, ſuper totam materiam, for his Majeſtie to relie upon with anie Safetie, as well for the Marriage of his onelie Sonne, as for the Releiſe of his onlie Daughter? Or that, theiſe Treaties ſet aſide, his Majeſtie were beſt to truſt to his own Strength, and to ſtand upon his own Feet? And ſo his Grace ended with this Concluſion;

That if the bringing of us from Darknes to Light did deſerve any Thankes, we owe it and muſt whollie aſcribe it to the Prince his Highnes.

Memorandum that the Prince was preſent at the Narration, and aſſiſted the Duke of Buckingham therein, and rectified many Particulars thereof, and it being reported this Day to the Houſe, his Highnes approved the ſame.

Et in Pomeridiano ejuſdem Diei, ſcilicet, Viceſimi ſeptimi Februarii, ex Juſſu Dominorum, prædictæ Literæ Juan de Cerica Secretarii Regis Hiſpaniarum, Datæ quinto Januarii 1623 Stilo novo, unà cum prædicta Reſolutione dicti Regis, denuò perlectæ erant, ut verus Status magni iſtius Negotii rectè intelligatur, ac etiam Literæ Comitis Briſtoll Datæ apud Madrid viceſimo primo Octobris 1622. Stilo veteri & Domino Regi directæ, coram ipſis Dominis lectæ erant in hæc verba; videlicet,

May it please your most excellent Majestie.

I received your Majeſtie's Letters of the nyneth of September the three and twentieth of the ſame Month, and by them underſtand that your Majeſtie hath received much Satisfaction by what I had formerlie written unto your Majeſtie, both concerning the Reſtitution of the Prince Palatine as likewiſe of this King's Reſolution to proceed to the Concluſion of the Match; but that your Majeſtie findeth the Effects very inſuitable, both by the Proceedings at Bruſſels and in the Palatinate, as alſo by what you underſtand from Rome by Maſter Gage, of the Pope's Demaunds. I hope, by the Arrivall of Maſter Cottington, your Majeſtie will have received Satisfaction, in ſome meaſure at leaſt, that there hath been no Diligence or Time omitted, either for the redreſſing of any thing that hath been amiſſe, or for the advanceing of your Majeſtie's Affairs; the verie Day I received your Majeſtie's Letters I ſent a Gentleman Poſt unto the King, who was gone unto the Eſcuriall, to crave Leave to attend him, which he preſentlie graunted me, and I repaired thither unto him uppon the third of October; The Conde de Gundamar being likewiſe commaunded to wait upon the King; I was there well received, and preſentlie uppon my Arrivall, The Conde de Olivares came to me to the Lodgings which were appointed for me to reſt in; To him I delivered fullie, in the Preſence of Sir Walter Aſton and the Conde de Gundamar what I had to negotiate with the King, both in the Buſineſs of the Match and of the Palatinate; In the Match I repreſented how much it imported imported your Majeſtie that a ſpeedie Reſolution might be taken therein, both in regard of the Prince being your Majeſties onelie Sonne, now arrived to the Age of two and twentie Yeares, and for the ſetling of your Affaires in England: I repeated unto him all the Paſſages in this Treatie, how many Yeares had bene alreadie ſpent in it, and that after ſo long an Expectation, the Diligences uſed in Rome for obteyning of the Diſpenſation had wrought but ſmall effect, ſince the Pope had latelie made ſuch Demands as were altogether impoſſible for your Majeſtie to condeſcend unto; and therefore your Majeſtie, ſeeing the Buſineſs ſtill delayed, held it fitt that ſome ſuch Courſe might be taken, that both your Majeſties might ſpeedilie know what you were to truſt unto; and therefore had commanded me to ſignifie unto this King your utmoſt Reſolution how farr you could condeſcend in Point of Religion towards what the Pope demanded. And if herewith this King could be ſatisfied, your Majeſtie deſired what We might proceed to a final and ſpeedie Concluſion; otherwiſe that this King would likewiſe clearlie declare himſelf, that your Majeſtie might looſe no more Tyme in the diſpoſing of the Prince your Sonne.

Hereunto the Conde de Olivares anſwered with ſome Length, the Subſtance I ſhall onelie preſume to ſett down brieflie to your Majeſtie:

Hee profeſſed a ſincere Intention and Reſolution in this King to make the Match, and that there ſhould not be one Day loſt, for that the ſpeedie Diſpatch thereof imported them as much as your Majeſtie, and to the End that no Tyme might be loſt, this King had the next Day after the Death of Don Baltazar de Zuingà appointed Don Fernanda dè Gyron in his Place in the Commiſſion; that for the going of Maſter Gage from Rome, and the Popes Demands, they were abſolutelie ignorant of them; that the King had done all that I my ſelf deſired for the redreſſe of this Error; that I might aſſure your Majeſtie that you ſhould finde here all Sinceritie and cleer Proceeding without any Hours Delay more then of Neceſſitie the Nature of the Buſineſs required:

As for the Buſineſs of the Palatinate; I repreſented at large the Meritt of your Majeſties Proceeding; the many Promiſes made from hence; yet notwithſtanding, whileſt your Majeſtie was treating at Bruſſells, Heidlebergh one of the three Places which were onelie left, and where your Majeſtie had Garriſons, was beſieged by the Archduke Leopold and Monſier Tilley; that this King had withdrawn his Forces, and ſo expoſed the Palatinate abſolutelie to the Emperor and Duke of Bavaria;

A.D.1624.
21 Jac. I.

The Conde of Olivares anſwered me, by acknowledging how much your Majeſties Proceedings had deſerved at the Emperor and this King's Hands; that whatſoever your Majeſty could expect, or had byn at any tyme promiſed, ſhould by this King be really performed; that the Prince Palatine's owne Courſes hitherto had bene the onelie Hinderance of the effecting of it: That he referred it unto your Majeſtie's own juſt Judgment, whither the calling of this King's Forces out of the Palatinate were with any ill Intention or meerlie for the Defence of Flanders which otherwiſe had been putt in great Hazard by Count Maunſfeild, as your Majeſtie ſaw by what had reallie paſſed; that the Siege of Heidlebergh was no Way by the Conſent or Knowledge of this King or any of his Miniſters, but was generally diſapproved by them all:

I told him I conceaved that was not ynnough, for that your Majeſtie had engaged your ſelf to this King, that in Caſe your Sonne in Lawe would not conforme himſelf, you would not onely forſake him, but would declare your ſelf againſt him, and give the Emperour Aſſiſtance for the reduceing of him to Reaſon; and that your Majeſtie could not but expect a like reciprocall Proceeding from this King:

He anſwered, Your Majeſtie ſhould ſee this King's Sinceritie by the Effects; and that if Heidlebergh ſhould be taken and the Emperor refuſe to reſtore it, or to condeſcend to ſuch an Accomodation as ſhould be held reaſonable, this King would infalliblie aſſiſt your Majeſtie with his Forces; and this he ſpoke with great Aſſurance, and wiſhed me to deſire your Majeſtie to be confident you would find nothing but reall and ſincere Proceedings from hence.

I was then preſentlie called for to the King, to whome I ſpoke firſt in Buſineſs of the Match, and delivered him the Contents thereof in Writing, which I have ſent to Maſter Secretary. I received from him the ſame Anſwer in in effect as from the Conde de Olivares; That he deſired the Match no leſſe then your Majeſtie; That on his Part there ſhould be no Tyme loſt for the bringing of it to a ſpeedie Concluſion:

In the Buyſines of the Palatinate I ſpoke unto the King with ſome Length, repeating many Particulars of your Majeſtie's Proceeding, and how much your Honour was like to ſuffer; that now, whileſt you were Treating Heidlebergh, defended by your Garriſon, was like to be taken:

The King anſwered me, He would effectuallie labour that your Majeſtie ſhould have entier Satiſfaction; and rather then your Majeſtie ſhould faile thereof, he would imploye his Armes to effect it for you.

My Lord Ambaſſador Sir Walter Aſton accompanied me at my Audience, and was a Witnes of all that paſſed as well with the King as with the Conde de Olivares.

Within fewe Dayes after the News of the taking of Heidlebergh came hither, whereupon I diſpatched again to the King in ſuch ſort as I have at large advertized to Mr. Secretary Calvert; The Effect of my Negotiation was, That they, on the Thirteenth of October, diſpatched Letters away to the Infanta, to ſtop the Emperor's and the Duke of Bavaria's Proceedings; but preſſing them further in regard their former Letters have wrought ſo litle Effects, they have given me at preſent a ſecond Diſpatch, which I have ſent unto the Infanta, and whereof Mr. Secretary will give your Majeſtie an Accompt, which I conceive will procure your Majeſtie better Satiſfaction then hitherto you have received from the Emperor and his Partie.

For the Buyſines of the Match I have written to Maſter Secretarie what is to be ſaied at preſent, and will onelie add, That as I ſhould not willinglie give your Majeſtie Hopes upon uncertain Grounds, ſoe I would not conceale what they profeſſe; which is, That they will give your Majeſtie reall and ſpeedie Satiſfaction therein; and if they intend it not, they are falſer then all the Divells in Hell, for deeper Oaths and Proteſtations of Sinceritie cannot be made.

It will onelie remaine that I humblie caſt my ſelf at your Majeſtie's Feete for that Addition of Title wherewith it hath pleaſed you to honor me and my Poſteritie; my Gratitude and Thankfulnes wanteth Expreſſion; and ſhall onelie ſay unto your Majeſtie, That as all I have either of Fortunes or Honor, I hold it meerlie of your Bountie and Goodnes, ſo ſhall I ever cheerfullie lay them down with my Life into the Bargaine, for the Service of your Majeſtie and yours: So with my humbleſt Prayers for the Health and Proſperitie of your Majeſtie, I humblie recommend your Majeſtie to God's holie Protection, and reſt,

Your Majeſtie's moſt humble
Servant and Subject,

MOST GRACIOUS SOVERAIGNE,

It may pleaſe your Majeſtie to remember that, at my coming out of Spaine, I ſignified unto your Majeſtie how far the Duke of Lerma had uppon ſeveral Occaſions intimated unto me an extraordinary Deſier of this King and State, not onelie to mainteyne Peace and Amitie with your Majeſtie, but to lay hold of all Meanes that might be offered for the nearer uniting of your Majeſties and your Crowns; And that from this Generalitie he had deſcended often to have Diſcourſe with me of a Match for the Prince his Highnes with the Second Daughter of Spaine, aſſuring me that in this King and his Miniſters there was a verie forward Diſpoſition thereunto; But from me he then received no other Anſwer but to this effect; That I in the Treatie of the former Match for the late Prince, had received ſo ſtrange and unexpected an Anſwer from them, and that their Demands had ſeemed ſo unproper and unworthie, that I conceived your Majeſtie had litle Reaſon to be induced again to give Eare to any ſuch Overture, or that I ſhould again enter into any ſuch Treatie, much leſſe to be the Motioner thereof; although I would confeſs that if I were fullie perſuaded of the Sinceritie of their Intentions, and of a Poſſibilitie of having the ſaid Match effected, I knew not any thing wherein I would more willinglie imploy my Endeavors; But as the Caſe now ſtood, I was certain, that if I ſhould but make any ſuch Motion in England, I ſhould onely drawe an Ymputation of much Weaknes upon myſelf, and no whit advance the Cauſe; for that your Majeſtie and your Miniſters would make no other Conſtruction of that Motion, but that it was onelie to amuſe your Majeſtie and to divert the Match of France which was then treated of; For that your Majeſtie, who but the Yeer before had received ſo unpleaſing and unequall an Anſwere, ſhould now be perſuaded that there was here ſo great a Change as that a Match was really deſired, there would now need more then ordinary Aſſurance:

But the Duke of Lerma contynuing ſeverall tymes in the ſame Profeſſion, and telling me beſides, That the greateſt Caſes might be altered by Circumſtances, and that the Age of this Prince was much more proper then that of his Brother:

I freelie let the Duke know, That in caſe I might ſee that it was reallie deſired here, and that I might be able to propound unto my Maſter Conditions of ſo much Advantage and Certeintie as might put him and his Miniſters out of Doubt that this Overture was not againe revived from hence, either for Diverſion, or wynning of Tyme, I would then willinglie intimate unto your Majeſtie the Inclination and Deſier I found here of having a Propoſition for this Match once again ſet on Foote:

The Duke told me that he would have further Conference with me, and that he no Waies doubted but then to give me ſuch Satiſfaction as might well aſſure both your Majeſtie and your Miniſters, That they ſincerely deſired the Match in generall, and would omit nothing on their ſide for the accomodating of Particulars that might give Furtherance unto it:

But the verie Night before the Duke had appointed a Meeting with me, there came a Poſt diſpatched out of England from the Spaniſh Ambaſſador, upon the Arrival of Sir Thomas Edmonds in England, who brought Word that the Match with France was abſolutelie concluded; and that within few Daies it was to be publiſhed:

Whereupon the Duke at our Meeting the next Morning tould me, that it would be needles now to deſcend to any Particulars in the Buyſines whereof we were to treate, ſince that they had newlie received Advertiſement that the Match with France was fullie concluded:

And thus for that preſent the Matter reſted, until ſome five or ſix Weeks after; about which tyme myſelf was to go into England, and ſo taking Leave of the Duke, he asked me whether I had not received Advertiſement that the Match with France was publiſhed?

I told him no; but that I had certeinlie heard that it was not as yet fullie concluded; Whereupon he entreated me, that in caſe I found not the French Match in ſuch Forwardnes as it could not be ſtayed, I would let him know of it; and that if I ſhould ſee any kind of Poſſibilitie that the Buyſines wee had ſpoken of might be ſet on Foote, I would advertiſe him, and that thereupon he would proceed to thoſe Particulars which he formerlie intended for my Satiſfaction.

Herewith I acquainted your Majeſtie, and finding that the Spaniſh Ambaſſador in England had Notice from the Duke of our former Proceedings, and order to further them by all poſſible Means he could, eſpecially if he ſhould underſtand that your Majeſtie were not fullie reſolved of the French Match, I thought it fit by his Means to let the Duke underſtand in what Eſtate I found thoſe Buyſineſſes in England, and thereuppon, with your Majeſtie's Permiſſion, wrot a Letter unto him to this effect.

That although it were true that the Match with France had been treated of with much Earneſtnes on both Sides, and with great likelihood of being concluded, yet there dailie aroſe ſoe many Difficulties and new Caſes of Delay, that I judged it far from anie perfect Concluſion; neither did I ſee cauſe abſolutelie to deſpair of the Buſines which our ſelves pretended, unles the Difficulties of the Conditions ſhould make it deſperate; But if thoſe things ſhould be expected by Spaine which in the Treatie for the late Prince were demaunded, yt were better by much not to renew the Buyſines, then by impoſſible or unfitting Propoſitions on either Side, to give Diſtaſt or leſſen the Freindſhip which now was betwixt your Majeſties; and therefore except that in Spaine they would be contented with ſuch Conditions as your Majeſtie might fittinglie and convenientlie yeild unto, and all other Catholique Princes were willing to content themſelves with, I neither ſaw Cauſe to hope for good Succeſs, nor Reaſon to ſet the Treatie on Foote; But in caſe that I might know that the Conditions in Point of Religion might be ſuch as I ſhould ſee a Poſſibilitie of your Majeſtie's condeſcending unto them, I ſhould be far from deſpairing of ſome good Effect; for that I knew that divers, not of the meaneſt nor leaſt Power with your Majeſtie, were thereunto enclyned, and would give their helping Hands, &c.

Hereuppon the Spaniſh Ambaſſador diſpatched his Secretarie into Spaine, and received Anſwere from the Duke, that he ſhould give me all Aſſurance that there was here a great Deſier and Inclination to the making of the Match; and that, at my Returne into Spaine, they no way doubted but I ſhould receive ſuch Satisfaction as ſhould make it appeare, That on their part there ſhould be nothing wanting for the effecting of it.

It now remaineth that I ſignifie unto your Majeſtie what hath paſſed herein ſince my laſt coming to this Court: I arrived here in Madrid onelie a Day or two before their Chriſtmas; and having come ſix Days after to my Audience appointed by the King, whileſt I was in a Withdrawing Chamber expecting the King's coming forth, the Duke of Lerma came thither to bear mee Companie; and after many reſpectfull Demaunds of your Majeſtie's and the Queen's and Prince his Health, and ſome few Complements unto my ſelfe concerning my Welcome againe unto this Court, he fell to ſpeak of the falſe Alarums wee hadd hadd in England concerning a Spaniſh Armada, ſeeming much to be diſpleaſed that any Credit ſhould be given to any thing to his Maſter's Diſhonour and Want of Fidelitie, (as he termed it;) but your Majeſtie, he ſaied, did never beleive it; and it ſeemes he had heard of ſome pleaſant Anſwere your Majeſtie ſhould make to ſome one of your Miniſters that in great Haſt came unto your Majeſtie when you were a Hunting, and told you, That the Spaniſh Fleete was in the Sleeve: From this he entred into great Proteſtations of the Sinceritie of this King's Affection and Intention towards your Majeſtie, telling me that I ſhould now ſee how much they deſired to work a greater Nearnes and Uniting between your Majeſties; and that of the principall Buyſines, of which wee had in former tyme ſpoken (meaning the Marriage) he deſired to ſpeak with me, but it muſt be at more leaſure:

I anſwered him, That I would not faile ſhortlie to waite on him, and that he ſhould finde me anſwerable to the Profeſſions I had made, which was, that being induced thereunto by ſuch ſufficient and good Grounds as might ſatisfie my Maſter, both for the Conveniencie and Fittingnes of having ſuch a Treatie to be ſet on Foote, and likewiſe might take away all Objections of their Intents of enterteyning and diverting your Majeſtie hereby, I would be as ready to do all good Offices, and give Furtherance to the Buyſineſs as any Miniſter the King of Spaine had; and this was all that at our firſt Meeting paſſed in this Buyſines.

About ſome eight Daies after, I having not all this tyme ſtirred out of my Houſe, under the colour of being ill diſpoſed, though the Truth was indeed to inform my ſelf of ſome Particulars which concerned your Majeſtie's Service before I would ſpeake with the Duke, he being, as I have ſince underſtood, ſomewhat troubled that in all this tyme I made no meanes to come unto him, one Morning by Nyne of the Clock verie privatlie came to my Houſe, without advertiſing of his Coming (as the Cuſtom is here) until his Coach ſtaied at my Gate; and then he ſent in a Gentleman unto me, telling me that the Duke was there to ſpeak with me; When I had conducted the Duke into a Roome where wee were private, he fell into the forſaid Matter, and in the manner as I ſhall here ſet down unto your Majeſtie, without making any other Pretence or Intent of his Coming, or without uſeing, in the ſpace of an Hour, any Speech touching any other Buyſines.

After ſome few Queſtions of your Majeſtie and the Queen, he began to aſke many things of the Prince, as of his Age, his Stature, his Health, his Inclination, to what Sports he was chieflie given; and then ſuddenlie as it were with a paſſionate Expreſſion of Affection, he deſired God to bleſſe him, and to make him the Meanes by which your Majeſties might be conjoyned in a nearer Allyance, and your Kingdomes in a perpetual Amitie; ſaying unto me, That he was out of doubt of my good Inclination to this Buyſines, both by what had formerlie paſſed between our ſelves, as likewiſe by my Proceedings in England, whereof he had been fullie informed by the Spaniſh Ambaſſador, and therefore he would in few Words deale with me with much Freenes and Clearnes, aſſuring himſelf he ſhould receive the like Meaſure from me; and thereupon entred into a ſolempne Proteſtation how much this King deſired the Match, and for himſelf he ſolempnlie ſwore there was no one thing in the World he more deſired to ſee before he died then the effecting thereof; But my Lord Ambaſſador (ſaid he) you muſt deal as juſtlie with me, to let me underſtand whither you conceive the like Deſire to be in the King of England and his Miniſters, and then I ſhall proceed to ſpeak further unto you.

I anſwered the Duke, That I ever eſteemed more the Reputation of a Man of Truth and Integrity then of Skill or Subtiltie, which I did hope he would well perceive by what I was to ſaie, for that I was much more deſirous fairlie to go off from this Buyſines then eaſilie to enter into it; and therefore if he would have me ſpeak my Conſcience, I neither conceived that either in your Majeſtie or any of your Miniſters there was any kinde of Inclination thereunto; For that they having formerlie given ſoe reſolute and diſtaſtfull an Anſwere, your Majeſtie had juſt Cauſe never again to caſt ſo much as your Thoughts this Way; and though it might be already that the Fitnes of the Princes Yeares, and other civil Regards, might cauſe new Reſolutions, yet the Differences of Religion were ſtill the ſame, and the ſame were the Tenents and Opinions of Divines in Matter of Conſcience; And therefore it could not but be a thing of great Difficultie to perſuade your Majeſtie or your Miniſters, that a Match ſhould be hearkned unto, much leſs deſired from hence, but upon the ſame Terms, the very Thought and Remembrance whereof is yet unpleaſing in England; ſo that to deal plainelie with him I neither found either in your Majeſtie or in the Councell any kind of Thought or Ymagination of any Poſſibilitie of having any ſuch Motion again revived; but this I found not to grow from any particuler Diſlike or want of Affection in your Majeſtie towards Spaine, or that many of the greateſt or principalleſt Perſons in England judged not the Nearnes and Allyance with Spaine equallie valuable with anie other of Chriſtendome, but that out of a Diſtaſtfulneſs of the former Anſwer given from hence all Expectations of any Buſineſſes of this nature were abſolutelie extinguiſhed; and therefore again to revive it there would need more then ordinary Endeavors or ordinary Aſſurances; but in caſe that they might be given, I knew that this Match would neither want Wellwillers nor Aſſiſters, and for my own Part I would freelie make Profeſſions that noe Man more deſired it then my ſelf, or would more willinglie employ his Endeavors for the furthering thereof, when by the deſcending to Particulers I ſhould ſee, both in Regard of the Conditions and the Aſſurance of ſincere Proceedings, the Motion worthy and fitt by a diſcreet and good Servant to be offered unto his Maſter; neither then ſhould I be wholly out of Hope of good Succeſſe, though I could not but eſteem it a Buſineſs of infinite Difficulties:

The Duke replyed, that anie Courſe I thought fitt herein ſhould be condiſcended unto, for that all tyme was loſt that was ſpent in Generalities, and therefore if I ſo liked he would move this King, that ſome one or two beſides himſelf might be appointed to have conference with me, for that if he ſhould onelie retaine it in his Hands by reaſon of his manie Occupations, it would have a ſlower Progreſſe then he wiſhed; but if We would by Way of Conference digeſt the Difficulties into Heads and Particulars, he would, as often as he might, be preſent at our Meetings; but for his owne Part he ſaid he apprehended few but what would ariſe out of Difference of Religion:

I told the Duke, that I verie well approved of the deſcending into Particulars, neither ſhould I refuſe Conference with anie herein whom this King ſhould appoint to ſpeak with me, but if his meaning were that theis Perſons ſhould be nomynated or joyned by Way of Commiſſion, I thought fit to let him underſtand, that I neither had at any tyme, nor did at preſent ſpeak of this Buſineſs either by Order or Direction, no nor ſo as by your Majeſties Privitie, but as a Miniſter that deſired to lay hold of all Occaſions for the encreaſing of further Love and Nearneſs betwixt his Maſter and the Prince to whom he is imployed, I ſhould be glade to the utmoſt of my Power to advance and further this Cauſe, as that which I apprehended to be the greateſt which the World now affordeth for the firm

uniting of your Majeſties and your Eſtates:

The Duke told me, that this King would make no Scruple to declare his good Inclination and Deſire to have this Match proceeded in; and that for the accomodating of the Difficulties he had already uſed divers Offices and Diligences with the Pope, as likewiſe with greateſt Divines of this Kingdom; whereof he named ſome unto me, whom he ſaid he found very well inclined unto the Match; he tould me alſo he would be glad they might ſpeake with me, to the end I might trulie underſtand by them all kinds of Scruples that could be alleadged:

I anſwered that I deſired nothing more, and that I could not but approve of theſe Courſes he preſcribed as the moſt Probable to produce a good Effect, and that I hoped God would give a happy Succeſſe unto the Buſines; but I ſhould be bold in one thing to deliver my Opinion, which was no Waies to intereſt our Maſters herein, unles, by the Underſtanding and Clearing of the Difficulties on both ſides, there ſhould be a great Appearance and Probabilitie that the Buſines would take Effect; for if their Names ſhould be therein uſed, and after the Treatie ſhould not be ſucceſsful, it would but exaſperate and breed a greater Diſtaſt betwixt your Majeſties:

The Duke told me he miſliked not my Opinion, though he ſaid; That howſoever the Buſineſs ſucceeded, yet your Majeſtie ſhould have reaſon to accept kindlie this King's good Intentions; for that if it miſcarried it ſhould appear not to be through their Default, but that they had ſtretched as farr as Honor or Conſcience would give them Leave; and thus much he ſaied I might write unto your Majeſtie if I thought fitt, or to my confident Friends in England uppon his Word and Aſſurance; and ſo telling me that he would preſentlie appoint thoſe that ſhould conferr with me in this Buſineſs, We then parted.

Within two Days after, I went to the Duke, and after I had ſpoken unto him of the Buſines of Cleves according to my Inſtruction, whereof I give an Accompt unto Maſter Secretarie in a Diſpatch directed unto him, We fell again into Speech of the Match.

The Duke told me, that he had well conſidered of that which I had ſaied unto him and much approved it, not to intereſt our Maſters in the Buſineſs till We ſhould ſee ſome likelihood of good Succeſs; and for that he ſuppoſed the Difference of Religion like to prove the onlie Difficultie of Conſideration, he thought fitt that it ſhould firſt be cleared; and therefore he would break the Matter with the Cardinall of Toledo and the King's Confeſſor, and with them ſhould be joyned another learned Man one Father Fredericke, who ſince I underſtand is a Jeſuite, but trulie hath the Report of a moderate Man; theiſe the Duke ſaied ſhould have Order to confer with me, and charge to go as farr as might be, reſerving ſafe the Grounds and Sinceritie of their Religion:

I anſwered the Duke, that I was well ſatisfied herewith, and that if their Demands were ſuch as might content any other Catholique Prince, I ſhould have Hope of good Succeſſe; if otherwiſe, I ſhould yet judge it a Hapineſs to be put out of doubt and Suſpence, and ſoe Wee paſſed from this Subject.

I preſume to ſett down unto your Majeſtie all the Paſſages of this Buſineſs with ſo much Length and Fulneſs, For that I no Way dare adventure to offer to your Majeſtie any Opinion or Beliefe of my own, either for the Fitnes of the Match, or for the Sinceritie of their Intention, or the Poſſibilitie of accomodating Differences of Religion; But your Majeſtie ſeeing undiſguiſedlie all that hath hitherto paſſed with every Circumſtance, may be pleaſed, out of the Conſideration and Knowledge of theiſe Particulers, to frame unto your ſelfe, both ſuch a Beleife of their direct Meaning, and ſuch a Reſolution for the further Proceeding herein, as ſhall be moſt ſutable to your Majeſtie's Wiſdome; onlie I ſhall think it fit to ſet down further unto your Majeſtie, the particuler Ends which may be conceaved they ayme at by ſetting this Buſines on Foot at this preſent in caſe they ſhould not intend really to performe it:

The First may be to ſtagger and divert your Majeſtie's Treatie with France.

The Second, for the enterteyning your Majeſtie with faier Hopes and Promiſes, thereby to keepe you from declaring yourſelfe oppoſite unto them in the preſent Buyſines of Juliers and Cleeves, it remayning ſtill uncompounded: But this being ſo, your Majeſtie may be pleaſed to underſtand, That they ſerve themſelves with this Occaſion, not that there could any ſuch thing be primarilie in their Intention; For that the Expreſſion of their Deſier to the Match was the laſt Yeare long before theis Differences hapened.

Further the Duke of Lerma ſhould be the moſt falſe and diſhonorable Man living, without Chriſtianitie or Soule, if he ſhould voluntarilie ſo deeplie damm himſelf with Oathes and Proteſtations of a thing that he ſincerely meant not; and truelie he ſhould deal contrary to the Wiſdom of his other Proceedings, wherein he layeth all Actions of Diſtaſt or Diſcourteſie upon other inferior Miniſters, labouring ſtill to clear himſelf of the Ymputation of them, if in this he ſhould make himſelf the Author and Inſtrument of ſo indirect and unjuſt Proceeding between Princes; But the courſe of moſt Securitie and Caution is, That your Majeſtie ſuffer none of your other Reſolutions to be interrupted by this Overture, onelie if your Majeſtie be pleaſed for a while to enterteyne and ſuſpend the Concluſion of the Match with France, I conceive it can be litle to your Majeſtie's Diſadvantage.

It laſtlie now remaineth that I become an humble Suytor to your Majeſtie for your clear and full Directions in this Buſines, deſiring, that if your Majeſtie will have it further enterteyned, that I may have ample Inſtructions from your Majeſtie, both that I may intimate what may be expected in Point of Dowry, and in all other things to be required by your Majeſtie, as likewiſe how farr I may proceed in ſatisfying them in Point of Religion; For it is not to be ſuppoſed that they will proceed with that Freenes and Directnes which is to be wiſhed, unles in a fitting Meaſure they ſhall ſee me likewiſe able and willing to declare my ſelf in ſuch Poynts wherein they may expect Satisfaction; I intend not hereby to move for a formall Commiſſion to treate, but onelie a private Inſtruction for my Direction and Warrant how to behave my ſelf as may be moſt advantagious to the Cauſe and your Majeſtie's Ends: So humbly beſeeching your Majeſtie to commaund this Bearer to be diſpatched back with all convenient Speed, I recommend your Majeſtie to the holie Protection of God,

Tour Majeſties faithfull Subject and Servant,

And FIRST, They and We do give moſt humble and hartie Thanks unto Almightie God, that, out of his gracious Goodnes, he hath byn pleaſed now at laſt to diſpell that Cloud and Miſt which for ſoe many Yeares hath dimmed the Eyes of a great part of Chriſtendom in that Buſineſs whereof we doe now conſult.

21 Jac. 1.

materiam, preſent this our humble Adviſe unto your Majeſtie;

That the Treaties both for the Marriage and for the Palatinate may not any longer be continued with the Honor of your Majeſtie, the Safetie of your People, the Welfare of your Children and Poſteritie, as alſo the Aſſurance of your ancient Allies and Confederates.

Ad quod reſponſum fuit ab ipſo Domino Rege noſtro in hæc verba; videlicet,

My Lords and Gentlemen all,

I have cauſe firſt to thank God with my Heart and all the Faculties of my Mind, That my Speech which I delivered in Parliament hath taken ſoe good effect among you, as that with unanime Conſent you have freelie and ſpeedilie given me your Adviſe in this great Buſines; for which I alſo thank you all as heartilie as I can.

I alſo give my particular Thanks to the Gentlemen of the Lower Houſe; for that I heard when ſome amongſt you would have caſt Jealouſies and Doubts between Me and my People, you preſentlie quelled thoſe Motions which otherwiſe might have hindred the happie Agreement I hope to find in this Parliament: You give me your Adviſe to break off both the Treaties, as well concerning the Match as the Palatinate; And now give me Leave as an old King to propound my Doubts, and hereafter to give you my Anſwere.

First, It is true that I, who have been all the Daies of my Life a peaceable King, and have had the Honor in my Titles and Impreſſes to be ſtiled Rex Pacificus, ſhould without Neceſſitie ymbroyle my ſelf in Warr, is ſoe farr from my Nature, and from the Honor which I have had at Home and Abroad in endeavouring to avoyd the Effuſion of Chriſtian Blood (of which too much hath been ſhed) and ſo much againſt my Hart, that unleſſe it be upon ſuch a Neceſſitie that I may call it, as ſome ſay merelie of Woemen, malum neceſſarium, I ſhould be loath to enter into it.

And I muſt likewiſe acquaint you that I have had no ſmall Hopes given me of obteyning better Conditions for the Reſtitution of the Palatinate, and that even ſince the ſitting down of the Parliament; But be not jealous nor think me ſuch a King that would, under Pretext of asking your Adviſe, put a Scorn upon you by diſdaining and rejecting it; for you remember that in my firſt Speech unto you, for Proof of my Love to my People, I craved your Adviſe in theiſe great and weightie Affaires; But in a matter of this Weight I muſt firſt conſider how this courſe may agree with my Conſcience and Honor; and next, according to the Parable uttered by our Saviour, after I have reſolved of the Juſtnes and Neceſſitie of the Cauſe, to conſider, How I ſhall be enabled to raiſe Forces for this Purpoſe?

21 Jac. 1.

As concerning the Caſe of my Children, I am now old, and would be glad as Moyſes ſaw the Land of Promiſe from an high Mountain (though he had not leave to ſet his foot in it) ſo would it be a great Comfort to me that God would but ſo long prolong my Daies as if I might not ſee the Reſtitution, yet at leaſt to be aſſured that it would be, That then I might with old Simeon ſay, Nunc dimittis ſervum tuum, Domine, &c. Otherwiſe it would be a great Regret unto Mee, and I ſhould dye with a heavy and diſcomforted Hart: I have often ſaied, and particulerlie in the laſt Parliament, and I ſhall be ever of that Mynde, That as I am not ambitious of any other Mens Goods or Lands, ſoe I deſire not to brook a Furrow of Land in England Scotland or Ireland without Reſtitution of the Palatinate, and in this Mynd I will live and die.

But let me acquaint you a litle with the Difficulties of this Caſe; He is an unhappie Man that ſhall adviſe a King (and it is an unchriſtian thing) to ſeek that by Blood which may be had by Peace; Beſides, I think your Intentions are not to engage me in a War, but withall you will conſider, How many things are requiſite thereunto.

I omit to ſpeak of my own Neceſſities, they are too well known; Suer I am I have had the leaſt Helpes in Parliaments of any King that reigned over you theiſe many Yeares; I muſt let you know that my Diſabilities are increaſed by the Charge of my Sonne's Journey into Spaine, which I was at for his Honor and the Honor of this Nation; By ſending of Ambaſſadors; By Maintenance of my Children; and by aſſiſting of the Palatinate, I have incurred a gerat Debt to the King of Denmarke which I am not able to pay.

The Low Countries, who in regard of their Nearnes are fitteſt to helpe for the the Recovery of the Palatinate, are at ſo low an Ebb, that if I aſſiſt them not they are ſcarce able to ſubſiſt.

The Princes of Germanie, that ſhould do me any Good, are all Poor Wrecked and Diſharted, and do expect Aſſiſtance from hence.

For Ireland, I leave it to you if that be not a Back Door fit to be ſecured.

For the Navie, I thank God, it is now in better Caſe then ever it was, yet more muſt be done, and before it can be prepared as it ought to be, it will require a new Charge, as well for the owne Strength as for ſecuring my Coaſts.

My Children, I vow to God, eate no Bread but by my Meanes, I muſt maynteyne them and not ſee them want in the mean tyme till the Palatinate be recovered.

My Cuſtomes are the beſt part of my Revenue, and in effect the Subſtance of all I have to live on, all which are farmed out upon that Condition, That if there be Warr thoſe Bargaines are to be annulled, which will enforce a great Defalcation.

Subſidies aske a great tyme to bring them in; Now if you aſſiſt me that way, I muſt take them upp beforehand uppon Credit, which will eat upp a great part of them.

This being my Caſe, to enter into a War without ſufficient Meanes to ſupport it, were to ſhew my Teeth and do no more.

In the mean tyme I hartilie thanke you for your Adviſe, and will ſeriouſlie think upon it, as I pray you to conſider of theiſe other Parts.

My Treſorer, to whoſe Office it appertains, ſhall more at large inform you of theiſe things that concern my Eſtate.

Thus freelie do I open my Hart unto you, and having your Harts, I cannot want your Helpes; For it is the Hart that openeth the Purſe, and not the Purſe the Hart.

I will deale franklie with you, ſhew me the Meanes how I may do what you would have me doe; and if I take a Reſolution uppon your Adviſe to enter into a Warr, then your ſelves by your own Deputies ſhall have the diſpoſing of the Money, I will not medle with it, but you ſhall appoint your own Treſorers; I ſay not this with a Purpoſe to invite you to open your Purſes, and then to ſleight you ſo much as not to follow your Counſell; For I will not take your Money unleſſe I take your Counſell, nor ingage you unleſſe I be engaged my ſelf; Give me what you will for my owne Meanes, but I proteſt none of the Money which you ſhall give for thoſe Uſes ſhall be iſſued but for thoſe Ends, and by Men elected by your ſelves, yf upon your Offer I ſhall finde the Meanes to make the Warr honorable and ſafe, and that I reſolve to imbrace your Adviſe; Then I promiſe you in the Word of a King, that although Warr and Peace be the peculier Prerogatives of Kings, yet, as I have adviſed with you in the Treaties on which Warr may enſue, ſo I will not treat nor accept of Peace without firſt acquainting you with it, and hearing your Adviſe, and therein goe the proper Way in Parliament in conferring and conſulting with you in ſuch great and weightie Affaires: And happilie Conditions of Peace will be the better when we are prepared for Warre, according to the olde Proverbe, That Weapons boad Peace.

Your kind Carriage gives me much Contentment, and that comforts me which my Lord of Canterbury ſaied, That there was not a contrary Voyce amongſt you all, like the Seventie Interpreters, who were ledd by the Breath of God.

I am ſo deſirous to forget all Rends in former Parliaments, that it ſhall not be my Default if I be not in Love with Parliaments and call them often, and deſire to end my Life in that Entercourſe between Me and my People, for the making of good Lawes, reforming of ſuch Abuſes as I cannot be well informed of but in the Parliament, and mainteyning the good Government of the Commonwealth.

Therefore goe on cheerfullie, and adviſe of theiſe Points, and my Reſolution ſhall then be declared.

Et poſtquam Domini Spirituales & Temporales, ac ipſi de Domo Communi, de Reſponſione Regis prædictâ, & de Auxilio in eadem petito, diu & mature conſuluerunt; tandem unanimiter conſentiebant Auxilium ſuum Domino noſtro Regi præbere quandocumque Majeſtati ſuæ placuerit ſeipſum declarare de Diſſolutione duorum illorum Tractatuum cum Hiſpanienſibus.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR SACRED MAJESTIE.

Wee are come unto you again from your moſt faithfull Subjects and loyall Servants the Lords and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled; and firſt We do humblie lett your Majeſtie know how much We hold our ſelves bounden unto Almightie God that he hath ſett a King to rule and reign over us who is pleaſed, in the greateſt and weightieſt Cauſes, to ſpeak and to be ſpoken to in Parliament by his good and loving People, which maketh the King to underſtand them over whom he beareth Rule, and them againe to underſtand him, and is a true Bond that tyeth the Hart of the Soveraigne to the Subjects, and of the Subject reciprocallie to their Liege Lord and Soveraigne:

And next Wee rejoyce that your Majeſtie hath ſhewed your ſelf ſenſible of the Inſinceritie of that People with whom of late you have had a double Treatie, and of the Indignities offred by them unto your bleſſed Sonne the Prince and to your Royall Daughter; and that your Kinglie Hart is filled with an earneſt Deſire to make Reparation to her noble Conſort and her ſelfe of the Palatinate their Patrimoniall Poſſeſſion, which is agreeable unto Juſtice and unto all Lawes of God and Man.

For the effecting whereof, to teſtifye with what Alacrite with what Expeditenes and Uniformitie of Hart both your Houſes of Parliament, in the Name of your whole Kingdome, have born themſelves unto your Majeſtie, with Offer to give you their reall Aſſiſtence, we have digeſted it into a Writing, leaſt by the verball or vocall Deliverie of any one Perſon it may miſcarrie, or the Expreſſion of our Zeale be weakened and diminiſhed, which Wee humblie pray your Majeſtie to give me Leave to reade to you.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

Wee your Majeſtie's moſt humble and loyall Subjects the Lords and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, having latelie received and taken into our ſerious Conſideration your gracious and prudent Anſwer, given to the unanimous and humble Adviſe preſented to your Majeſtie in the Name of both Houſes, That the two Treaties, the one of the Marriage, the other of the Palatinate might be diſſolved; doe in all Humbleneſs render unto your Majeſtie our moſt dutifull Thanks that you have bene pleaſed to take into ſoe good part the manner of our Proceedings in that weightie Buſineſs, as likewiſe graciouſlie to intimate your Royall Inclination not to reject that Counſell which your ſelfe was pleaſed to aſke, and which accordinglie hath been humblie offered unto your Majeſty in the Name of your whole Kingdom, and whereas in your Princelie Wiſdome you have made knowen unto us; that your own Treaſure, by reaſon of your extraordinarie Charge and Expence at this tyme is too much exhauſted for your Majeſtie by your own meanes to ſupporte a Warre which happelie may follow upon the Breach of theiſe Treaties; Wee do moſt humblie beſeech your Majeſtie, that neither that, nor any other Conſideration may hinder your preſent Reſolution; for with a moſt cheerfull and univerſall Conſent (noe one diſagreeing) Wee do with dutifull Affections aſſure your Majeſtie, and hereby manifeſt and declare, that in Purſute of our Adviſe, upon your Majeſtie's Declaration made to diſſolve both the ſaid Treaties (the deferring whereof may prove dangerous) Wee will be readie in a Parliamentarie Manner with our Perſons and Abilities to aſſiſt your Majeſtie.

Cui talis eſt Reſponſio Regis; videlicet.

My Lords and Gentlemen all,

I have nothing to ſaie to the Preamble of my Lord of Canterbury but that he intimated ſomething in it which I never ſpake, for where he ſaid that I have ſhewed my ſelf ſenſible of the Inſinceritie of thoſe with whom I have had latelie to deale, and of the Indignitie offered unto my Children, In this you muſt give me Leave to tell you, that I have not yet expreſt my ſelf to be either ſenſible or inſenſible of their good or bad Dealing.

Buckingham made a relation unto you by my Commandement which you are to judge uppon, But I never yet delivered my Mynde uppon it; when Jupiter ſpeaks he uſes to joyn his Thunder to it, and a King ſhould not ſpeak except he maynteyne it by Action.

As

As for the matter of your Declaration unto my Demand, which you have couched in that Paper now read unto me, I confeſs it is without Example that any Kinge hath had ſo large an Offer, and with God's Favor I need feare nothing in this World having ſo much the Harts of my People; for your large Offer of Aſſiſtance I hold it to be more then Millions of Subſidies, and indeed it is an ample Reward for that Truſt and Freedom which I have uſed with you.

But, my Lords and Gentlemen all, you muſt give me Leave on the other ſide to conſider the Poſſibility of the Action; for in this Caſe I muſt do as a Man that makes a Fortification which muſt have Outworkes and Inworkes, ſo I muſt not onelie deale with my own People, but with my Neighbors and Allies to aſſiſt me in ſo great a Buſines as the Recoverie of the Palatinate; and in this Caſe it is not ſufficient to have the Harts of my Subjects without the Helpe of my Neighbors and Allies; and except particular meanes be ſett downe, it will neither be a Bridle to the Adverſaries of that Cauſe nor a Comfort to my Friends who ſhall joyn with me; general Words will not carry it; therefore I muſt reſort to particular meanes and follow the Counſell of our Saviour Chriſt in the Goſpell, before I begyn a Warr to ſee how I can maynteyne it, as I told you in my former Anſwer. God knowes it is a longeſome Worke, yet I deſire with Moſes (as I ſaid before) to ſee the Land of Promiſe though I ſhould not live till it be reallie recovered: but unleſſe particular meanes be diſcovered it is litle to the Point. Therfore ſeeing you give me ſuch fair general Promiſes, I will deale freelie with you, and tell you playnelie what I think will doe the turne: But whether it be by Subſidies onelie, or other Meanes that may be equivalent is all one to me, for being donne in Parliament, is donne by a Parliamentarie Way; I would deſire that you would be pleaſed to beſtow upon this great Buſines five Subſidies and two Fifteens to every Subſidie; and for my own Neceſſities, my crying Debts are ſo heavie that noe Man can beare them with a greater Grief of Hart and Sting of Conſcience than I have done and do, and I now growing ould would be glade to ſee a meanes for the ſatisfieing of my Debts before I goe out of the World, and for this end I deſire you would give me one Subſidie and two Fifteenes yearlie untill my Debts be paid.

Here the Prince his Highneſs taking notice of an Objection made, that this might ſeem contradictory to that which his Highnes had told the Committees of both Houſes, that the King's Majeſtie would ask nothing for his own particuler till the Warre were provided for, the Prince ſaid that the Duke of Buckingham in his Abſence had moved this doubt to the King: Whereuppon the Duke affirmed, that ſpeaking with the King about it, his Majeſtie was pleaſed to ſay, that if We would add one Subſidie and two Fifteens to make it up ſix Subſidies and twelve Fifteens for the War, he was well content to quit what he had asked for his own Neceſſities, but his Majeſtie ſaid in this, for the Earneſtneſs he hath for the well going of this great Buſineſs, it ſhould not make them the colder for giving him ſo meane a ſupplie for ſo great and urgent Neceſſities.

Yf this may be done I am reſolved to follow your Adviſe, for I would never have asked your Adviſe to reject it and ſoe put a Scorn uppon you, as I told you in my former Anſwere. For the levying of theſe Subſidies and Fifteens, I would have you conſider how to cleere theſe two Difficulties that ſeems to fight one againſt another. Yf you leavie them ſuddenlie it may be heavie for the People, if you ſtay too long it will not ſerve the turne. But to reconcile theſe two Straits I leave it to your wiſe Conſiderations, for if uppon the one Parte you ſhould be too haſtie in leavying of it, it might prove an unſupportable Burden to my People whereof I ſhould be very ſorry; and uppon the other ſide if it come in too ſlowly the Buſineſs would ſuffer and be miſcarried in the lingring; and ſince I likewiſe leave it to your ſelves to receive the Mony and expend it by your own Committees of both Houſes you may be the more ſecure. I told you before that I had in this great Buyſines to looke to my Conſcience and mine Honor as well as the means:

For the Meanes I muſt have it from you, my Conſcience and mine Honor is myne own, of which I have thought and do think daylie, and how I ſhall be able to do therein as a King ought to doe; In this Point I am alreadie reſolved in a great Part, but if any Scruple ſhall remeyne with me I will acquaint you with them, and not onelie ſeeke but follow your Adviſe.

Here the Prince ſaied he had ſpoken with his Father to know of him wether he were ſatisfied in Honor and Conſcience that he might in this Caſe undertake a Warr; and that his Majeſtie anſwered he was alreadie ſatisfied and reſolved therein, but for the manner of publiſhing it he would take our Advices.

The Duke of Buckingham told us the reaſon whie his Majeſtie uſed thoſe Words was, that having formerlie ſpoken of his Conſcience and Honor, if he ſhould now have left them out, it might have been thought that onelie Monie had drawn him to it; But the King ſaied he was alreadie ſatisfied and reſolved, yet would have our Adviſes for the declaring of it.

. I told you before that this was the Way to make me in Love with Parliaments; and to ſhew my Inclination to contynue them ſtill, my Reſolution is to make this a Seſſion with the paſſing of as many good Lawes as in convenient tyme may be prepared, and at Michaelmas, or within few Daies after to have a new Seſſion, and another in the Spring; and in the mean tyme you may be down and acquaint your ſelves with the Grievances of my People, and you ſhall ſee my Care to make good Lawes and to reform Abuſes, that ſo my Subjects may finde the good Fruits of Parliaments and rejoyce in them; And I proteſt, as I have asked your Adviſe in theiſe Points (which I needed not to have done) ſo I will never enter into any Agreement or Treatie of Compoſition for Satisfaction or Peace which is the End of Warr (elſe it is unjuſt and unchriſtian) without your Adviſe.

Et poſt diverſas alias Conſultationes & Communicationes inter Dominos & Communes, prædictos de Auxilio ab ipſo Domino Rege jam petito conceſſuro, quando de eodem inter ipſos concluſum erat, Propoſitionem ſuam inde per dictum Archiepiſcopum Cantuar. alioſq; Commiſſionarios prædictos Regiæ ſuæ Majeſtati Die Martis viceſimo tertio Die Martii prædicti apud Whitehall exhibuerunt in hæc verba.

Most gracious Soveraigne,

Wee, your Majeſtie's moſt humble and loyal Subjects, the Lords and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, doe firſt render unto your Sacred Majeſtie our moſt dutiful Thanks for that, to our unſpeakable Comfort, you have vouchſafed to expreſſe your ſelf ſo well ſatisfied with our late Declaration made to your Majeſtie of our general Reſolution, in Purſuite of our humble Adviſe, to aſſiſt your Majeſtie in a Parliamentary Way with our Perſons and Abilities;

And whereas your Majeſtie in your great Wiſdome and Judgment, forſeeing that it would make a deeper Impreſſion both in the Enemies of that Cauſe, and in your Freinds and Allies, if they ſhall not onelie heare of the cheerful Offers, but alſo ſee the real Performance of your Subjects towards ſo great a Work; Your Majeſtie was pleaſed to deſcend to a particular Propoſition for the Advancement of this great Buſines.

Wee in all Humblenes, moſt ready and willing to give your Majeſtie and the whole World an ample Teſtimonie of our ſincere and dutiful Intentions herein, have, uppon mature Adviſe and Deliberation, as well of the Weight and Importance of this great Affair, as of the preſent Eſtate of this your Kingdome (the Weale and Safetie whereof is in our Judgments apparantlie threatned if your Majeſtie's Reſolution for the diſſolving of the Treaties now in queſtion be longer deferred, and that Proviſion for Defence of your Realme and Aide of your Freinds and Allies be not reaſonablie made) have with a cheerfull Conſent of us your Commons, noe one diſſenting, and with a full and cheerfull Conſent of us the Lords, reſolved, That upon your Majeſtie's publike Declaration of the utter Diſſolution and Diſcharge of the two Treaties of the Marriage and Palatinate; in Purſuite of our Adviſe therein, and towards the Support of the Warr which is like to enſue; and more particularly for thoſe fower Points propoſed by your Majeſtie; Namelie, The Defence of this Realme; the ſecuring of Ireland; the Aſſiſtance of your Neighbours the States of the United Provinces, and other your Majeſtie's Freinds and Allies; and for the ſetting forth of your Royal Navie; Wee will graunt for the preſent the greateſt Aide which was ever graunted in Parliament to be levied in ſo ſhort a tyme; that is, Three entier Subſidies and three Fifeteens to be all paied within the Compaſſe of one whole Year after your Majeſtie ſhall be pleaſed to make the ſaid Declaration, the Money to be paid into the Hands, and expended by the Direction of ſuch Committees or Commiſſioners as hereafter after ſhall be agreed upon in this preſent Seſſion of Parliament.

And Wee moſt humblie beſeech your Majeſtie, graciouſlie to accept of theiſe firſt Fruits of our hartie Oblation dedicated to that Worke, which wee infinitelie deſier may proſper and be advanced; And for the future to reſt confidently aſſured, that if you ſhall be engaged in a real Warr, wee your Loyal and Loving Subjects will never faile to aſſiſt your Majeſtie in a Parliamentary Way in ſoe Royal a Deſign, wherein your own Honor, and the Honor of your moſt Noble Sonne the Prince; and the auncient Renown of this Nation; the Welfare and very Subſiſtence of your noble and onlie Daughter and her Conſort and their Poſteritie; the Safety of your own Kingdomes and People; and the Proſperitie of your Neighbours and Allies are ſoe deeplie engaged.

Quibus DOMINUS NOSTER REX reſpondet in hæc verba; videlicet,

My Lords and Gentlemen all,

The laſt tyme I ſpake to you anent this great Buſineſs, I told you what in myne Opinion was neceſſarilie required for the Begining of it; the Reaſons whereof you have trulie ſet down out of my laſt Speech, wherein I ſhewed you what Good it would do and what Harme it might free us from, to expreſs particular Aides at this tyme as well as general Promiſes; It is true, I muſt confeſs, that how farr you yet declare your ſelves is ſufficient for the preſent Entrance into the Buyſines, though a great deal ſhort of what I told you it would require; But as God bears me Record, and I think the Harts of all my loving Subjects will teſtifie for me, I never ſtuck for Money, but onlie deſired you to cleare your ſelves by Particulers, that I might ſee how I might be able to go through ſoe great a Matter, at leaſt to make a good Begynning of the Warre, for when the End will be God knows; ſo, on the other part, I gave you Thanks for your generall Offers by which you did engage your ſelves in your Lives and States, which is more than fortie Subſidies if you had named them, and more Worth then a Kingdom; for the Strength of a King ſtands, next under the Protection of God, in the Harts of his People, and I muſt needs ſay in this Particular it is without Example that ever any Parliament for a Begynning gave to a King ſo great a Supplie to be levied in ſo ſhort a tyme; This may well ſerve for a Preparation, and for my part, firſt conſidering your generall Offer, which is ten tymes more to me then all Subſides, and next conſidering that theiſe Particulers coming from you be as much as the People are able to pay in ſo ſhort a tyme, being within a Yeare, and as much as may be well expended, therefore with as much Love and great Thancks as a loving and kind King can give to ſo loving and dutiful a People, I thanke you for your offer and do accept it; I told you before that I never would have craved your Adviſe to reject it and ſo to put a Scorne uppon you; Think me not that Man.

It is true that I think noe wiſe King can undertake ſo great a Bargain but he muſt well bethinke himſelf beforehand, and I hold it better that a King adviſe well before he take a Reſolution, then adviſe raſhlie and after repent; Therefore, my Lords and Gentlemen, I declare unto you, that as I am willing to follow your Adviſe in the annulling and breach of thoſe two Treaties both of the Match and of the Palatinate, ſo on the other part I aſſure my ſelf that ye will make good what ye have ſaid, that in what you adviſe me unto you will aſſiſt me with your Wiſdom and Counſell and Forces if need require.

I pray you have a charitable Opinion of me as you are to have of a King who hath ſoe long ruled and governed over you, and I may vaunt my ſelf thus farr to have done it with Juſtice and Peace, that as I told you before all my Forbearance hath been for ſparing the Effuſion of Chriſtian Bloud, and as the moſt eaſie and probable Way for recovering of the Palatinate for my Children: It is true, I have been ſo long delayed and paied with Generals that I dare not truſt longer unto them, which made me enjoyn Bukingham to make a particular Relation unto you of all that Buſines (and I am ſure ſuch an Account was never before given in Parliament) that hereby you might know what to truſt to: I could in this caſe have reſolved my ſelf, but I thought it could not be but a Strength and Honor both unto me to have the Adviſe of my People.

My Lords,

In the latter Parliament I then declared unto you that I was reſolved, without reſpect of Friendſhip or Match or whatſoever, to have the Palatinate

one

A.D. 1624.
21 Jac. I.

one way or other, I hope you all remember it, God is my Judge and Saviour, I never had any other End, and it is pity I ſhould live to any other End; and for my part, except by ſuch Means as God may put into my Hands I may recover the Palatinate, I could wiſh never to have byn born: I am old but my onelie Sonne is young, and I will promiſe for my ſelf and him both, that no Means ſhall be unuſed for the Recovery of it; and this I dare ſay, as old as I am, if it might doe good to the Buyſines, I would goe in my own Perſon, and think my Travaile and Labour well beſtowed though I ſhould end my Daies there. For if I ſhould ſpare any Means poſſible for the Recovery of it, then let me not be thought worthie to raign over you; and, good Faith, I never reſolved to live with other Mynde, nay I will ſay more, there was never any Enemy of my Sonne in Lawe, with whom I talked of that Buyſines, or any that I ever ſpake with of that ſide, which did not ſay and confeſs that I had reaſon to have the Palatinate one way or other; And when they ſay ſo, that is a good Reaſon which they themſelves allow, and it was a good Spurre to me to think on it.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Thus far aſſure your ſelves that I will go cheerfully about it to prepare all things poſſible for it, and as you have given the Meanes, ſo will I employ them towards it.

And in the next Degree I hope you will think on me, but that I leave to gour own Counſell and Conſideration; But, I proteſt to God, a Penny of this Money ſhall not be beſtowed but upon this Worke, and by your own Committees and I aſſure my ſelf you will think on me for a double Reaſon; my Cuſtoms are like to fall by Reaſon of the Warr, and my Charges will encreaſe; But undertaking the Warre I muſt go through with it one way or other, though I ſhould ſell Jewels and all.

In the next Seſſion you will conſider how this hath byn husbanded, and according to that think what is next to be done; and it will ſpurre you the more to enable me for the reſt, whereof I ſpake to you before.

Here, for the clearing of ſome Things which his Majeſtie ſpake the laſt tyme, his Majeſtie called for the Notes of that Speech, but the ſame not being readilie to be had, his Majeſtie ſaid, I'le tell you by Tounge, and then he ſaid,

A.D. 1624.
21 Jac. I.

I will clear you in ſome things, but I will not deale with you in any thing but freelie and clearlie as a King; and though I have broken the neck of three Parliaments one after another, I hope that in this Parliament you ſhall be reſolved of the Sinceritie of my Hart, and I of your duties and Affections, that this ſhall be a happie Parliament and make me greater and happier than any King of England ever was: In my laſt Speech I promiſed that if I accepted your Offer I would follow your Adviſe, and would not after harken to any Treatie of Peace without firſt acquainting you and requiring your Adviſe, and I likewiſe promiſed nothing ſhould be ſpent of theſe Monies but by your Committees; But I deſire you to underſtand I muſt have a ſecret and faithful Councell of War that muſt not be ordered by a Multitude, for ſoe my Deſignes might be diſcovered aforehand. A Penny of this Money ſhall not be beſtowed but in the ſight of your own Committees; But whether I ſhall ſend Two thouſand or Ten thouſand? whether by Sea or by Land? Eaſt or Weſt? by Diverſion or otherwiſe? by Invaſion uppon the Bavarian or the Emperour? you muſt leave that to the Kinge.

Aſſure your ſelves my Delay hitherto was uppon hope to have gotten it without a Warre; I held it by a Haire, hoping to have gotten it by Treatie; But ſince I ſee no Certeintie by that Way, I hope that God who hath put it into your Harts thus to adviſe me, and into my Hart to follow your Adviſe, will ſoe bleſſe it that I ſhall clear my Reputation from Obloquie; and in deſpight of the Devill and all his Inſtruments, ſhew that I never had but an honeſt Hart, and I deſire that God would bleſſe our Labour for the happie Reſtitution of my Children; and whoſoever did the Wronge I deſerved better at their Hands.

Whereas our late deare Siſter Queen Elizabeth, upon the lamentable and piteous Complaynts and Supplications of divers her loving Subjects being Priſoners in the Priſons of the King's Bench and Fleete, in Commiſeration of their Diſtreſſes, by the Advyſe of her Privye Counſell, did, by her Commiſſion under the Great Seale of England, bearing Date the twentieth Day of Aprill in the eight and twentieth Yere of her Reigne, authoriſe certein Commiſſioners therin mentioned for the ordering and compounding of the Controverſies and Cauſes betwene the ſaid diſtreſſed Priſoners and their Creditors, and ſuch others by whome they were deteyned Priſoners or in Execution, and to do divers other things in the ſame Commiſſion expreſſed, as thereby at large appeareth; which ſaid Commiſſion contynued in Force from the Date thereof untill the Deceaſe of the ſaid Queen Elizabeth: and whereas for that certeine Clauſes conteyned in the ſame Commiſſion have ſeemed unto ſome to be derogatorye to the Common Lawes of this our Realme of England; and alſo for that by Colour of the ſaid Commiſſion, which was intended for the charitable Reliefe of poor miſerable and diſtreſſed Perſons, ſondrye refractorie and obſtinate Debtors, which rather wanted Will than Meanes to ſatiſfie their juſt Debts, toke occaſion to moleſt and trouble their Creditors.

Wee whoſe Princely Care and Vigilancye alwaye watcheth to prevent all Occaſions of inconveniencye to our loving Subjects, eſpecially ſuch as tend to the Breach of our Lawes, did for many Yeares forbeare the renewing of the ſaid Commiſſion; which our forbearance as it wrought a good Effect by diſcouraging of obſtinate and wilfull Debtors that ſeek nothing more then Evaſions to avoyde the Payment of their juſt Debts, ſo it was found by Experience, that for Want of that or ſome other like charitable Courſe for the Releife of ſuch as are truly and indeed poor diſtreſſed and miſerable and want meanes to ſatiſfie their Creditors, hath been an Occaſion to peſter and fill our Priſons with the Bodyes of ſuch Perſons whoſe Ympriſonment can no Way avayle their Creditors, but rather is an Hinderance to the Satisfaction of their Debts, for that that, during the tyme of their Reſtreynt, they are in no wiſe able to go about to attend their lawfull Buſineſs but muſt of force conſume themſelves and that litle they have miſerably in Priſon.

Wee therefore, uppon due Conſideration had of the Premiſſes, by the Adviſe of our right truſty and wellbeloved Counſellor Francis Viſcount St. Alban then our Chancellor of England and alſo of divers of our Principall Judges of our Courts of Weſtminſter did, by our Commiſſion under our Great Seal of England, bearing Date the eleventh Day of November in the ſixteenth Yere of our Reign of England, authoriſe the Commiſſioners therein named to proceed, according to the Tenor of our ſaid Commiſſion, for the Releiſe of the Poor Priſoners in the aforeſaid Priſons: Howbeit Wee have been informed that our ſaid Commiſſion hath not taken that good Effect which was expected; whereuppon at the humble Inſtance and Petition of the ſaid diſtreſſed Priſoners, We have thought fitt and determyned, by the renewing of the ſaid Commiſſion, to preſcribe and direct ſome ſuch moderate Courſe, as that neither the Inſolencye of wilfull and obſtinate Debtors ſhould be thereby incouraged to the Derogation of our Lawes, nor yet our Grace and Clemency be wanting to ſuch to whome it ſhall be meete to extend the ſame.

Know ye therefore that We, of our eſpeciall Grace certeyne Knowledge and meere Motion have made conſtituted and appointed, and by theſe Preſents doe make conſtitute and appoynte, you to be our Commiſſioners, and doe hereby give and grant unto you, or any three or more of you full Power and lawfull Authority att all and everie tyme and tymes from henceforth, ſoe often as to you, or any three or more of you as aforeſaid, ſhall ſeem conveynent and needfull, to aſſemble and meete together, in ſome convenient Place in or neere our Citye of London, as you, or any three or more of you, ſhall think fitt, for the Execution of this our Commiſſion, and before ſuch your Meetings by Warrant under your Hands, or the Hands of any three or more of you as is aforeſaid, upon reaſonable Warning, and at the Charge of the Priſoners, to call before you, as well ſome Perſon or Perſons ſufficiently inſtructed, for and on the behalf of ſuch diſtreſſed Priſoners as now are or hereafter ſhall happen to be ympriſoned in our ſaid Priſons of King's Bench and the Fleete or either of them, by reaſon of, or for any Action or Actions of Debts uppon the Caſe Treſpaſs Detynue Trover or other perſonall Action Judgment Execution or Executions, unles the ſame be uppon Counter Bonds, or Bonds to perform Covenants, where the principall or due Debt, without Forfeiture or other Penaltye, or the Damages alone in Caſe of other perſonall Actions not being for Debt, ſhall not exceed the Somme of two hundred Pounds, and alſo the Creditors, and ſuch others as have Benefite of the Actions Suyts Jugements or Executions for which they are deteyned in Priſon, and the Executors Adminiſtrators and Attorneys of everye of them, and all other Perſons whatſoever to whom it ſhall appertayne, or ſome Perſons ſufficiently authoriſed and inſtructed for and on their behalfe; whom We do hereby command to appear before you uppon ſuch your Warrant, eyther in theire owne Perſons or by ſome other ſufficientlye inſtructed and authoriſed on their behalfe:

And att ſuch your Meetings to receave the Supplications and Complaynts of the ſaid diſtreſſed Priſoners and by all Wayes or Meanes to informe your ſelves, as well of the due Debt Damage and Dutye for ſuch Actions Suyts Playnts Jugements or Executions, is or ſhall be proſecuted obteyned or gotten, as of the certein Eſtate and Abilitye of the Priſoners howe to paye and diſcharge the ſame: And thereuppon, by all good and lawfull Wayes and Meanes, to treat perſuade mediate and procure Compoſitions and Agreements with the Creditors, or the other Perſons which have or ſhall have the Benefitt of ſuch Actions Suyts Judgments or Executions; wherein our Pleaſure is, that ſome of the Juges of the Courte by or from which the ſaid Priſoner or Priſoners ſhall be committed, ſhall be privye and conſenting to the Concluſion of ſuch Compoſitions and Agreements: And that ſuch of you our ſaid Commiſſioners, as ſhall go about ſuch Compoſitions, ſhall doe your beſt Indeavours that the poore Priſoners by your Meanes and Mediation may be releived, and have ſuch reaſonable Yeres Dayes and Times of Payment for ſuch their Debts and Damages as they ſhall not be preſently able to ſatisfye tisfye, and with ſuch Securitye for Payment thereof, as in Equity and good Conſcience, having Reſpect to the Ability of the Priſoner, and Charge of Wife and Children, and other Incidents to pious Caſes conſiderable, by you ſhall be thought fitt.

Streightly charging and commanding you and every of you that, for the better Expedition and further Accompliſhment of our charitable Intent and Will, in remedying the grievous Diſtreſſes of our ſaid Poor Subjects and diſtreſſed Priſoners; you, or ſome three or more of you as is aforeſaid, do from tyme to tyme, and as often as it ſhall be needfull, aſſemble your ſelves together in ſome ſuch convenyent Place as aforeſaid, as you tender our Pleaſure:

Provided nevertheles, and our Will and Pleaſure is, that you our ſaid Commiſſioners, or any of you, ſhall not proceed to the Execution of this our Commiſſion for or touching anye ſuch Matter or Cauſe as is before mentioned, wherein you ſhall be occaſioned to call, or cauſe any Perſon reſident or abiding or remayning in any Place being above tenne Miles from our ſaid Citye of London, to give Attendance uppon you, but only within or during the tyme of the Termes, or within ſeaven Dayes before the Begining or ten after the end of every Terme:

And if anye ſuch Creditor or Creditors, or other Perſon or Perſons for whoſe Debt Coſts or Damages ſuch diſtreſſed Priſoner or Priſoners ſhall remayne in Priſon as aforeſaid, ſhall refuſe uppon your ſaid Precepts or Warrants to appeare before you, or appearing refuſe to attend the Commiſſioners further Pleaſure, or to ſend ſome other Perſon or Perſons ſufficientlie authoriſed and inſtructed to treate and conclude with you as aforeſaid; uppon due Conſideration of the Nature and Qualitye of ſuch Refuſall and Contempt, you ſhall make and take ſuch Order for Puniſhment of the ſame, and for procuring ſuch Perſons Appearance, as to you ſhall be thought meete: And that you, or any three or more of you, ſhall and doe uſe all lawfull Wayes and Meanes to cauſe ſuch Creditors, or other Perſon or Perſons, to yeld to take and to perform ſuch moderate and reaſonable Compoſitions and Agreements as by you, or any three or more of you, ſhall be thought meete and ſett down.

And for that our meaning is to be ayding and aſſiſting with our Grace and Favor to the Miſerye and Calamities of ſuch as are trulye poore and diſtreſſed, and not to ſuch as lye in Priſon rather of Willfulneſs and Obſtinacye, and out of a Reſolution to reteyne large and ample Eſtates to themſelves by hindering their juſt and honeſt Creditors of their due Debt and reaſonable Damage; therefore We do hereby ſtraightly charge and command you and every of you, that, in all your Proceedings by vertue of this our Commiſſion, you be very circumſpect and carefull to trye and finde out ſuch willfull and obſtinate Perſons, and in no wiſe ſuffer them or any of them to partake of our Grace or Mercy which Wee hereby intend to them that are and ſhall be willing with their own Eſtate, bonâ Fide and without Fraude, ſo farr forth as it will extende to ſatiſfye their juſt Debts and Damages for which they ſhall be ſoe deteyned in Priſons ſoe as Care being had of themſelves theire Wives and Children; and unto ſuch poore and miſerable Perſons as have not wherewithall to ſatiſfie their Debts, but ſhal be conſtreyned miſerablie to periſh in Priſon, except in Pittye they ſhall be releived,

And to the ende you our Commiſſioners maye the more readilye and eaſily execute this our Commiſſion amongſt other our weighty Affayres, our further Will and Pleaſure is, that this our Commiſſion ſhall contynue in force: And Wee do hereby authoriſe you our ſaid Commiſſioners, or anye three or more of you, to proceed in the Execution thereof, and of all and everye Matter and Thing therein conteyned, from tyme to tyme and as often as you, or any three of you, ſhall thinke convenyent; albeit the ſame Commiſſion be not from tyme to tyme contynued by Adjornement

A Proclamation for avoiding the Conſumption of Coyn and Bullion.

A.D.1624. Pat. 22. J. I. p. 1. n. 4.

WHEREAS THE KING's MAJESTY, by ſundry Proclamations, did heretofore reſtrayn and forbid the unlawfull melting and fyning of Gold and Silver Threed, Goulde and Silver Follyatt, and other like Manufactures, and not fynding the Effect which his Highnes aymed at, did grante a Charter of Incorporation to the Governors Aſſiſtants and Communalty of Goldwyer Drawers of the Cittye of London, hoping by reduceing of thoſe Trades under Order and Government to avoyde the unneceſſary Waſt and Conſumption of Coyne and Bullion within this Realme; But his Majeſty having fully underſtood, as well by the Complaynte of his Commons in the late Seſſions of Parliament, as upon diligent Tryall and Examination of that Buſines by the Lordes of his Privy Councell, that not onely the ſaid Corporation, which is thereuppon revoked and declared to be voyd, but alſo the Manufactures of Gould and Silver Threed, Gould and Silver Folyatt, Purles Oes Spangles and other like, are unfytt to be continued within this Realme, his Majeſtie is reſolved to aboliſh the ſaid Manufactures, and to put in Execution the good and wholſome Lawes of this Realme againſt thoſe and other like meanes of the Conſumption of Coyne and Bullion in this Kingdom.

And therefore his Majeſty doth hereby ſtraightly charge and command that noe Fyner of Goulde or Silver, nor Parter of the ſame by Fyer or Water, from henceforth allay noe Fyne Silver nor Goulde, nor none ſell in any otherwiſe, ne to any Perſon or Perſons, but onely to the Officers of his Majeſtie's Myntes Changes and Goldſmythes within this Realme onely, for the Augmentation and amending of Coyne and Plate.

And that no Fyner nor Fyners Parter nor Parters ſell to noe Perſon any manner of Silver in Maſſe moulten and allayed;

And that noe Gouldſmyth within this Realme melte or allay any fyne Silver, but only for making of Amels and for amending of Plate to make it as good as Sterling, as by the Statute in that Caſe ys provided; nor that they ſell noe fyne Silver, nor other Silver allayed molten into Maſſe to any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, nor one Gouldſmith to another, but that the Statute in this behalf made in the fourth Yeere of the Raign of his Majeſtie's moſt noble Progenitor, King Henry the ſeaventh be in all Points duly obſerved and kepte, upon Payne that everie Perſon offending to the contrary ſhall incurr his Majeſtie's high Indignation, and ſuch Puniſhment as by the Lawes or his Majeſtie's Prerogative Royall may be inflicted for ſuch Miſdemeanor and Contempte.

A Proclamation concerning Royall Mynes.

A.D.1624.
Pat.22. J. I. p. I. n. 3. d.

THE King's most Excellent Majesty,

Having, both by the Judgment and Opinion of ſondry Perſons of Skill, and by divers Tryalls and good Experimentes, received Advertizement of great Probabilitie and aſſured Hopes of fynding, within his Realmes of England and Ireland and the Domynion of Wales, many riche Mynes of Silver, and other Mettalls having in them Silver and Gould, which by his Majeſtie's Lawes and Prerogative Royall doe of Righte belong to his ymperiall Crowne; and having received divers Overtures and Propoſitions for the diſcovering and working the ſame, hath been pleaſed, as in a matter of ſpeciall Ymportance for the enriching of this Kingdome not onely to commend the ſame to the ſerious Conſideration of his Privy Councell, but maturely to conſult and adviſe thereon himſelfe; and in the end after many and deliberate Debatementes thereof hath, with the Adviſe of his Privye Councell, reſolved upon theſe enſuing Articles.

First, That Leaſes for one and twenty Yeres ſhall be made under the Greate Seale of England of any the ſaide Mynes unto ſuch as will undertake the ſame, either in his Majeſtie's owne Landes and Soyle, or in the Lands and Soyle of any others within either of the ſaide Realmes or Domynion, excepte the County of Cardigan.

Secondly, That, for Encouragement of the ſaid Leſſees, they ſhall hould the ſame twoe Yeres from the Date of the ſaid Leaſes free from any Rente or Paymente to his Majeſtye.

Thirdly, In Caſe the ſaid Leſſees ſhall diſcover any ſuch myne within the Lymitts and Boundes conteyned in their Leaſes, and after opening thereof the Veyne ſhall be founde to runne into any other Groundes adjacent, and being without the Lymitts and Boundes conteyned in the ſaid Leaſes, the Leſſees ſhall be enabled to followe and worke after the ſame Veyne into all other Places, excepting Mynes opened by others in the ſame Grounde into which the Vayne runneth before the Diſcoverie made by ſuch Leſſees; alwayes allowing unto ſuch Owners and Poſſeſſors of the Grounde for the tyme being, into which the Veyne runneth and is followed, double the Value of the Damage they ſhall ſuſtain any Way, the ſame to be valued by the two next Juſtices of Peace. And in caſe that by colour hereof any Wrong be maliciouſly done, then further Recompence to be given to the Party grieved upon his Complainte to the King's Majeſty or the Lordes of the Privye Councell as the Qualitye of the Cauſe ſhall meritt; and the ſaide Leaſes ſhall conteyne ſuch other ample Privileges Clauſes and Covenaunts as ſhall be fitt, and may beſt encourage the ſaid Workes.

Fourthly, To the Intente the ſaid Mynes ſhall not lye unproffitable as heretofore; his Majeſtie's Pleaſure is, that the ſaid Undertakers ſhall ſo prepare and begyn theire Worke with ſuch convenyente Expedition as that from the ende of two Yeres after the Date of their Leaſes, they ſhall allow and pay his Majeſty the Proportion of Silver and other Metall hereafter mentioned, and ſhall effectually proceed therein with ſuch competent Stocke and Nomber of Workemen, as the Scituation Richnes and Condition of the Mynes ſhall requyre and ſhall yeilde to his Majeſty from the end of the ſaid two Yeres, the tenthe Part of all the Goulde Silver Copper and Ledd extracted and refined which ſhall proceed or come of the ſaid Mynes.

And for the more Eaſe and Expedition of ſuch as ſhall ſue for any ſuch Leaſes, the Lord Treaſorer and Chauncellor of the Exchequer within the Realm of England or either of them in the Vacancye of the other, ſhall and may, without other Suite to his Majeſty, appointe the Lymitts and Boundes to be conteyned in each Man's Leaſe, and give Order accordingly to his Majeſtie's Attorney Generall.

And his Majeſtie, in Favor to the Owners of the Landes within which the ſaid Mynes are, ys pleaſed that they or ſuch as they ſhall nomynate, be preferred to the ſaid Leaſes before all others, ſoe as they attende the ſaid Lorde Treaſorer or Chauncellor, and take the ſame within three Moneths after

A.D.1624.
22 Jac. 1.

after the publiſhing of this his Royall Proclamation in the County where the ſaid Landes lye; and in Caſe they do not attende and take the ſame within that Space, then ſuch Perſons ſhall be admitted to take Leaſes thereof as ſhall firſt make Suite for the ſame.

A Proclamation concerning Building in and about London.

ibid. p. 1. n. 2. d.

WHereas Wee, by divers our Royall Proclamations yet in Force, have heretofore publiſhed our Pleaſure gounded upon juſt and ymportant Reaſons, concernyng the Publique, as well for reſtreynyng Building upon newe Foundations in and neere the Cittye of London, as for preſcribing the Materials and manner of Building there, and ſundrye other thinges in the ſame Proclamations mentioned.

And to the ſame end and purpoſe have awarded ſeverall Commiſſions under our Greate Seale of England unto ſundrye of the Lordes of our Privy Councell and others; and whereas the ſame our Royall Providence, for the Weale and Honour of that our Ymperiall Cittye, hath produced good Effects, and moſt Men, eſpecially Perſons of beſt Ranke and Qualitie in and about the ſaid Cittye, have readily ſubmitted to our Princely Directions:

Nevertheles, becauſe ſome others in and about the ſaid Cittye have endeavored to withſtand and croſſe ſo honorable a Deſign, We have thought fyt eftſoones to publiſh and declare our conſtant Reſolution, that our former Directions given by our ſaide Proclamations and Commiſſions ſhall from henceforth, as heretofore, be duly obſerved and put in exacte Execution.

And therefore Wee doe hereby forwarne all Perſons of whatſoever Eſtate Degree or Condition they be whome the ſame may any way concerne, that they do yeild all dutifull Obedience thereto, upon Payne of our Indignation and high Diſpleaſure, and ſuch further Paynes Penalties and ſevere Puniſhmentes as in the ſaid Proclamations are conteyned: Wee being fully reſolved to call all ſuch as have or ſhall offende therein to ſtricte Accompte, any former Forbearance or Connyvance of any our Officers or Miniſters truſted therein notwithſtanding.

And, to the intente our Pleaſure in this behalfe may take the better Effecte, We do hereby ſtraightly charge and commande, not onelie the Mayor and Sheriffs of the Cittye of London, and all and ſinguler Juſtices of Peace, and other Officers within the Extente of our former Proclamations and Commiſſion, to execute and performe all and everie thing which by the ſaid former Proclamations they are commanded to doe, but alſoe all and everie the Aldermen of the ſeveral Wards within the ſaid Cittye of London and their Deputies, that they and everie of them in theire reſpective Wardes and Precinctes, do diligentlie obſerve and enquire out all Offences which are or ſhall be committed contrarie to the Greeting.

Whereas heretofore,

At the humble Suite and Requeſte of divers our loving Subjects, intending to deduce a Colony, and to make Habitation and Plantation of ſundry our People in that Parte of America commonly called Virginia and

A.D. 1624. 21 Jac. I.

other Partes and Territories in America; Wee,

Greatly commending and graciouſly accepting theire Deſires to the furtherance of ſoe Noble a Worke, which might by the Providence of Almightie God, thenafter tende to the Glory of his Majeſtie, in propagating Religion to ſuch People as then lived in Darkneſs and miſerable Ignorance of the true Knowledge and Worſhippe of God, and might in tyme bring the Infidels and Savages in thoſe Partes to human Civilitye and to ſetled and quiett Government;

Did, by our Letters Patentes in the fourth Yere of our Raigne of England, graunte to divers Knightes Gentlemen and others, for the more ſpeedie Accompliſhmente of the ſaid Plantation; that they ſhould devide themſelves into twoe Colonies, the one conſiſting of divers Knightes Gentlemen Merchantes and others of our Citye of London, called the Firſt Colony, and the other of ſundrie Knights, Gentlemen and others of the Cities of Briſtol and Exeter, the Towne of Plymouth and other Places called the ſecond Colony.

And Wee did by the ſame Letters Patentes grante that the ſaid Colonies might make theire Plantations and Habitations in certayne Places in the ſame Letters Patentes expreſſed. And Wee did thereby alſo grante that the ſaid Colonies ſhould have divers Lands Groundes Havens Portes Commodities and Hereditaments, and divers Priviledges and Liberties, for their quiett Setling and good Government in the ſaid Plantations; In and by which Letters Patentes Wee did declare our Pleaſure that, We our Heirs and Succeſſors would from tyme to tyme ordeyne and give ſuch further Inſtructions Lawes Conſtitutions and Ordinances for the better Rule and Government of ſuch as ſo ſhould make Plantation there, as to Us our Heires and Succeſſors ſhould from tyme to tyme be thought convenient.

And whereas Wee accordinge to the Effecte and true Meaning of the ſaid Letters Patents did, by ſeverall Letters under our Privy Seal preſcribe and give Orders Ordinances and Conſtitutions for directing and ordering the Affayres of the ſame firſt Colony.

And whereas afterwards, upon the Petition of divers of our loving Subjects, as well Adventurers as Planters of the ſaid firſt Colony, Wee did by our Letters Patentes in the ſeaventeenth Yere of our Raigne mention to incorporate divers Noblemen Knights Gentlemen and others therein particularly named, and all others that ſhould be admitted to joyne with them, by the Name of Treſorer and Company of Adventurers and Planters of the Cittye of London for the firſt Colony in Virginia, graunting unto them divers Landes Territories and Countries in the ſaid Letters Patentes mentioned; with Proviſion that they ſhould diſtribute convey and aſſigne under theire common Seale ſuch particular Portions of Lands to the ſaid Adventurers and Planters as upon a Commiſſion of Survey to that Purpoſe, ſhould be named appointed and allowed:

A.D. 1624. 22 Jac. I.

And Wee did thereby alſo graunte that there ſhould be a Councell here reſident for the managing of the Affaires of the ſaid Colonye, with Power to place and diſplace Officers, and make Lawes and Ordinances for the Government of the ſaid Colonye and Plantation and the Affaires of the Company; and Wee granted unto the ſaid Treſorer and Company and their Succeſſors divers Powers Liberties and Authorities.

And afterwards, by our Letters Patents in the nynth Yere of our Raigne of Englande, Wee, for the Conſiderations therein expreſſed, did further mention to give to the ſaid Treſorer and Company and their Succeſſors divers other Iſlandes within the Ocean Seas within the Lymits in the ſaid Letters Patentes expreſſed, with other Powers and Authorities, as by the ſaid Letters Patentes may appeare.

And whereas Wee, out of our Zeal and Affection to the furthering of the ſaid Plantations, having a watchfull and carefull Eye to the ſame, and finding the Courſes taking for the ſetlinge thereof had not taken that good Effect which Wee intended and ſo much deſired, did by our Commiſſion lately granted to certaine Perſons of Quality and Truſte, cauſe the State of the ſaid Countrie of Virginia to be examyned howe yt ſtood, as well in Pointe of Lyvelyhood as Government? and how and in what manner the great Sommes of Money collected and intended for the Good thereof had been expended and disburſed? to the end (if good Cauſe were) We might by our Royal Hand ſupplye what ſhould be found defective.

A.D.1624. 22 Jac. 1.

And whereas our Commiſſioners, after much Care Labour and Paynes expended in Execution of our ſaid Commiſſions, did certifye us that our Subjects and People ſent to inhabite there and to plant themſelves in that Countrye, were moſt of them by God's Viſitation, Sicknes of Bodye Famyne, and by Maſſacres of them by the native Savages of the Lande, dead and deceaſed, and thoſe that were living of them, lived in miſerable and lamentable Neceſſity and Want: But the Country, for any thing appered to the ſaid Commiſſioners to the contrary, they conceived to be fruitfull and healthfull, after our People had been ſometime there; and that yf Induſtrie were uſed yt would produce many ſtaple and good Commodities, though as yet the ſixteene Yeres Government now paſt had yielded few or none; and that this neglecte they conceived, muſt fall on the Governors and Company here, who had Power to direct the Plantations there, and that the ſaid Plantations are of greate Ymportance, and would as they hoped remayne a laſtinge Monument of our moſt gracious and happy Government to all Poſterity, yf the ſame were proſecuted to thoſe ends for which they were firſt undertaken; And to that purpoſe that yf our firſt Grante herein mentioned, and our moſt prudent and princely Inſtructions given in the begyning of the Plantation for the Direction of the Affaires thereof by thirteene Councellors in Virginia all nomynated by us, had been purſued, much better Effects had been produced than had been by the Alteration thereof into ſo popular a Courſe and amongſt ſo many Handes as then yt was, which cauſed much Contention and Confuſion; whereuppon We entering into mature and deliberate Conſideration of the Premiſſes, did, by the Adviſe of the Lordes of our Privie Councell, reſolve by altering the Charters and Letters Patentes of the ſaid Company as to the Points of Governemente wherein the ſame might be found defective, to ſettle ſuch a courſe as mighte beſt ſecure the Safetye of our People there, and cauſe the ſaid Plantation to floriſh, and yet with Preſervation of the Intereſt of everie Planter or Adventurer ſoe farr forth as theire preſent Intereſts ſhall not prejudice the publique Plantations: But becauſe the ſaid Treſorer and Companye did not ſubmitt theire Charters to be reformed, our Proceedings therein were ſtayed for a time, untill, upon a quo Warranto brought, and a legall and judiciall Proceeding therein by due courſe of Lawe, the ſaide Charters are avoided.

A.D.1624. 22 Jac. 1.

Nowe foraſmuch as We are ſtill reſolved and determyned to proceed in the Courſe which We ever intended for the Good of the ſaid Plantation, which our Deſire is to effecte and eſtabliſh by a new Charter, to be made in ſuch manner as ſhall be founde moſt convenyent for the generall Good of the ſaid Plantation and Colony; And becauſe the Pointes of the ſaid Charter newly to be granted may be many and, as well in reſpecte of the Nomber as of the Nature and Conſequence of them, will require adviſed Conſideration and Deliberation before yt be paſſed, and much Tyme Care and Paynes muſt be taken therein, and yet the leaſte Delay may prove perilous to the ſaid Plantations and Colony which may ſuffer much Inconveniency for wante of good Government and Direction, yf in the mean tyme it be not well ordered.

Knowe yee that Wee, for the better Progreſſion to the effecting of this our Royall Pleaſure, and repoſing aſſured Truſte and Confidence in the Underſtanding Care Fidelity and Circumſpection of you,

The ſaid Lorde Preſidente of our Councell,

Raph Hamor Eſquire,
John Martin Eſquire,

Abraham Percey Eſquire,
Iſaack Maddiſon Eſquire,
And William Clayborn Eſquire,
Greeting.

Whereas heretofore, at the humble Suite of divers our loving Subjects, intending to deduce a Colonie, and to make Habitation and Plantation of ſundry our People in that Parte of America commonly called Virginia, and other Parts and Territories in America;

Wee,

Greatly commending and graciouſly accepting their Deſires to the Furtheraunce of ſoe noble a Worke,

Did, by our Letters Patents in the ſowerth Yere of our Raigne of England, graunt to divers Knights Gentlemen and others, for the more ſpeedy Accompliſhment of the ſaid Plantation, that they ſhould devide themſelves into twoe Colonies, the one conſiſting of divers Knights Gentlemen Marchants and others of our Cittie of London, called the Firſt Colonie; and the other of ſundry Knights Gentlemen and others of the Citties of Briſtoll and Exeter, the Towne of Plimouth and other Places; called the Second Colonie; and we did by the ſame Letters Patents graunt that the ſaid Colonie might make their Plantations and Habitations in certaine Places in the ſame Letters Patents expreſſed; and that the ſaid Colonies ſhould have divers Lands Grounds Havens Portes Commodities and Hereditaments, and divers Priviledges and Liberties for the quiet Setling and good Government in the ſaid Plantations; In and by which Letters Patents Wee did alſo declare our Pleaſure that Wee our Heires and Succeſſors, ſhould from tyme to tyme ordayn and give ſuch further Inſtructions Laws Conſtitutions and Ordinances for the better Rule and Government of ſuch as ſoe ſhould make Plantation there, as to Us our Heires and Succeſſors ſhould from tyme to tyme be thought convenient.

And whereas Wee, according to the Effect and true Meaning of the ſaid Letters Patents, did, by ſeverall Letters under our Privy Seale, preſcribe and give Orders Ordinances and Conſtitutions for the directing and ordering of the Affaires of the ſaid firſt Colonie;

And whereas afterwards, uppon the Petition of divers of our loving Subjects, as well Adventurers as Planters of the ſaid firſt Colonie, Wee did by our Letters Patents in the ſeaventh Yeare of our Raigne mention to incorporate divers Noblemen Knights Gentlemen and others, therein particularly named, and all others that ſhould be admitted to joyne with them by the Name of Treaſurer and Company of Adventurers and Planters of the Cittie of London for the firſt Colonie in Virginia, granting unto them divers Lands Territories and Countries in the ſaid Letters Patents mentioned; with Proviſion that they ſhould diſtribute convey and aſſign under their common Seale ſuch perticuler Portions of Land to the Adventurers and Planters as uppon ſuch a Commiſſion of Survey to that purpoſe ſhould be named appointed and allowed.

And wee did thereby alſoe graunte that there ſhould be a Councell here reſident for managing of the Affaires of the ſaid Colonie, with Power to place and diſplace Officers and make Lawes and Ordinances for the Government of the ſaid Colonie and Plantation, and the Affaires of the Companie; and afterwards, by our Letters Patents in the nynth Year of our Raigne of England, Wee for the Conſiderations therein expreſſed, did further mention to give to the ſaid Treaſurer and Companie, and their Succeſſors divers other Iſlands within the Ocean Seas within the Limitts in the ſaid Letters Patents expreſſed with other Powers and Authorities, as by the ſaid Letters Patents may alſoe appeare.

And whereas Wee, out of our Zeal and Affection to the furthering of the ſaid Plantations, having ſtill a watchfull and carefull Eye to the ſame, and finding the Courſes taken for the ſetling thereof had not taken the good Effect which wee intended and ſo much deſired, did, by our Commiſſion lately graunted to certaine Perſons of Qualitie and Truſt, cauſe the State of the ſaid Country of Virginia to be examined how it ſtood as well in Point of Livelihood as Government; and howe and in what manner the great Sommes of Money collected and intended for the Good thereof had bin expended and disburſed; to the end yf good Cauſe were Wee might by our Royall Hand ſupply what ſhould be found defective.

And whereas our Commiſſioners, after much Care and Paines expended in Execution of our ſaid Commiſſions, did certifie Us that our Subjects and People ſent to inhabite there, and to plant themſelves in that Country, were moſt of them by God's Viſitations, Sickneſs of Bodie, Famine, and by Maſſacres of them by the native Savages of the Land, dead and deceaſed, and thoſe that were living of them lived in Neceſſitie and Want, and in Danger by the Savages, but the Country, for any thing appeared to the ſaid Commiſſioners to the contrary, they conceaved to be fruitfull and healthfull after our People had bin ſome time there; and that if Induſtry were uſed it would produce divers good and ſtaple Commodities, though in the ſixteene Years Government paſt it had yealded fewe or none; and that this Neglecte they conceaved muſt fall on the Governors and Companie here, who had Power to direct the Plantations there, and that the ſaid Plantations were of great Importance, and would as they hoped remayne a laſting Monument of our moſt gracious and happie Government to all Poſteritie, yf the ſame were proſecuted to thoſe Ends for which

which they were firſt undertaken; and to that purpoſe that yf our firſt Graunte herein mentioned, and our moſt prudent and princely Inſtructions given in the beginning of the Plantation for the Direction of the Affaires thereof by thirteene Councellors in Virginia and as manie here, all nominated by Us, had bin purſued, much better Effect had bin produced then had bin by the Alteration thereof into ſoe popular a Courſe, and amongſt ſoe many Hands as then it was, which cauſed much Contention and Confuſion: Whereupon Wee, entring into mature and deliberate Conſideration of the Premiſſes, did by the Adviſe of the Lords of our Privie Counſell reſolve, by altering the Charters of the ſaid Company as to the Point of Government, wherein the ſame might be found defective, to ſettle ſuch a Courſe as might beſt ſecure the Safetie of the People there, and cauſe the ſaid Plantation to flouriſh, and yet with the Preſervation of the Intereſt of every Planter or Adventurer ſoe far forth as their preſent Intereſts ſhall not prejudice the publique Plantations; but becauſe the ſaid Treaſurer and Company did not ſubmitt their Charters to be reformed, our Proceedings therein were ſtayed for a tyme untill, uppon a Quo Warranto brought, and a legall and judiciall Proceeding therein by due Courſe of Lawe, the ſaid Charters were and nowe are and ſtand avoyded.

And becauſe Wee were and are ſtill reſolved to proceed unto the perfecting of that Worke which Wee have begune for the Good of the ſaid Plantation, by a newe Charter to be made in ſuch manner as ſhall be found moſt fitt and convenient; yet for that the Points and Parts of the ſaid Charter muſt neceſſarily be manie and difficult and will require much Tyme and Care and Adviſe to weigh and conſider the ſame before it be paſſed, and yet the leaſt Delay might prove dangerous to the ſaid Colonies and Plantations, yf during the tyme of this Deliberation they ſhould want Direction and Government; for the better Progreſſion therefore to the effecting of this our Royall Pleaſure, Wee by our Comiſſion under our Great Seale of England, bearing Date the fifteenth Day of July in the Yeare of our Raign of England France and Ireland the twoe and twentith, and of Scotland the ſeven and fiftieth, did give Power and Authoritie unto our righte truſtie and right wellbeloved Coſen and Counſellor, Henry Viſcount Mandevill Lord Preſident of our Counſell, and divers others of our Privie Counſell and others, to treate conſult and conſider of all Matters whatſoever concerning the ſaid Colonie and Plantation, as well for the Safetie of our People there, Strength of the Place, and Government to be exerciſed there, as for managing of the Buſineſs and Affaires thereof here in England, and to execute and performe divers other things conduceing thereunto, in ſuch Sorte as by our ſaid Commiſſion may at lardge appeare. In the Execution of which our Commiſſion, our ſaid Commiſſioners have already made ſome good beginning, and have given Us this humble Adviſe, that by a like Commiſſion from us Wee would appointe and authoriſe ſuch other diſcreet Perſons, reſiding in the Parts of Virginia, as We ſhould think fitt to be our preſent Councell for the ordering managing and governing of the Affairs of that Colonie and Plantation and of the Perſons there already inhabiting, or which hereafter ſhall be or inhabit there; untill ſome other conſtant and ſetled Courſe be reſolved uppon and eſtabliſhed by us.

Know yee therefore that Wee, repoſing aſſured Truſt and Confidence in the Underſtanding Care Fidelitie Experience and Circumſpection of you the ſaid Sir Francis Wyatt, Francis Weſt, Sir George Yardeley, George Sandys, Roger Smith, Ralph Hamor, John Martin, John Harvy, Samuell Mathews, Abraham Perrey, Iſaacke Madiſon, and William Clayborne, have nominated and aſſigned, and do hereby nomynate and aſſigne, you the ſaid Sir Francis Wyatt to bee the preſent Governour, and you and the ſaid Francis Weſt, Sir George Yardeley, and the reſt beforementioned to be our preſent Councell of and for the ſaid Colonye and Plantation in Virginia, Giving and granting unto you, and the greater Number of you by theis Preſents reſpectively, full Power and Authoritie to performe and execute the Places Powers and Authorities incident to a Governer and Councell in Virginia reſpectively, and to direct and governe correct and puniſh our Subjects nowe inhabiting or being, or which hereafter ſhall inhabite or be in Virginia, or in any the Iſles Portes Havens Creakes or Territories thereof, A.D.1624. 22 Jac. I. of, either in tyme of Peace or Warre and to order and direct the Affaires touching or concerning that Colonie or Plantation in thoſe forraigne Partes onely; and doe execute and performe all and every other matters and things concerning that Plantation, as fullye and amplye as any Governor and Councell reſident there, at any time within the Space of five Yeares now laſt paſt, had or might performe or execute: Neverthelés our Will and Pleaſure is that yee proceed therein according to ſuch Instructions as yee, or ſuch of you as have bene heretofore of our Councell there, have received, or according to ſuch Instructions as you ſhall hereafter receave from Us or our Commiſſioners here to that Purpoſe or Intent.

And our further Pleaſure is, and we doe hereby give Power and Authority and doe will and commaunde, that you the ſaid Sir Francis Wyat, Francis Weſt, Sir George Tardeley, George Sandys, Roger Smyth, Raphe Hamor, or anie two of you who have already beene of our Councell in thoſe Partes for the Plantation there, ſhall miniſter unto the ſaid John Martin, John Harvey, Samuell Mathewes, Abraham Perrey, Iſaack Maddiſon and William Clayborne and everie of them, the like Oath uppon the holy Evangeliſt as yee, or any of you, have already taken as Councellor of or for the ſaid Colony or Plantation, willing and requiring you to bee diligent and attendant in the Execution of this our Service and Commaundement; and alſoe willing and commaunding all other our loveing Subjects to be directed and governed by you, or the greater Number of you in all things according to the Intention and true Meaning of theſe Preſents. A.D.1624. 22 Jac. I.

And laſtly our Will and Pleaſure is, that this our Commiſſion ſhall continue in force untill ſuch tyme as Wee by ſome other Writing under our Signett Privie Seale or Greate Seale, ſhall ſignifie our Pleaſure to the contrary.

A Proclamation concerning Tobacco.

A.D.1624. Pat 22. J. I. p.1. n.8. d. WHEREAS our Commons aſſembled in our laſt Seſſions of Parliament became humble Petitioners unto Us, that for many waighty Reaſons much concerning the Welfare of our Kingdom and the Trade thereof, we would by our Royal Power utterly prohibite the Uſe of all Foreyne Tobacco, which is not of the Growth of our own Domynions:

And whereas wee have upon all occaſions made known our Diſlike we have ever had of the Uſe of Tobacco in generall, as tending to the Corruption both of the Health and Manners of our People, and to that purpoſe have, at ſeverall Tymes heretofore, prohibited the Planting of Tobacco both in England and Wales as utterly unfyt in reſpect of the Clymate to cheriſhe the ſame for any Medicinall Uſe, which is the only Good to be approved in yt; and at other tymes have alſo prohibited the diſorderly Trading for Tobacco into the Partes beyond the Seas; as by our ſeveral Proclamations publiſhed to that purpoſe yt may appeare:

Neverthelés, becauſe we have been earneſtly and often ymportuned by many of our loving Subjects, Planters and Adventurers in Virginia and the Sommer Iſlandes, and lately our Commiſſioners for Virginia, that we would be pleaſed to take into our Royal Care that part of our Dominions by our Royal Authority, and by the Induſtrye of our Loyal Subjects added to the reſt of our Empyre, for the Propagation of Chriſtian Religion, and the Eaſe and Benefyt of this populous Realme; and to conſider that thoſe Colonies and Plantations are yet but in their Infancy, and cannot be brought to Maturity and Perfection unles we will be pleaſed for a tyme to tollerate unto them the planting and venting of the Tobacco, which is, and ſhall be of the Growth of thoſe Colonies and Plantations; Wee, taking into our Princely Conſideration theiſe and many other ymportant Reaſons of State, have been graciouſly pleaſed to condeſcend to the Deſires and humble Petitions of our loving Subjects in this behalfe.

And therefore we doe by theiſe Preſents ſtraightly charge and command, that no Perſon whatſoever, of what Degree or Quality ſoever, doe at any tyme hereafter ymporte, or cauſe to be ymported, from any parte beyonde the Seas, or out of our Kingdome of Scotland, into this our Realme of England or Dominion of Wales, or into our Realme of Ireland, any Tobacco which is not of the proper Growth of the Plantation of Virginia and the Sommer Iſlandes, or one of them, upon Payne of Forfeiture unto Us of all ſuch Tobacco to be ymported, contrarie to the true Meaning of theiſe Preſents, in whoſe Handes ſoever the ſame ſhall be found, and upon ſuch further Pains and Penalties as by the Lawes and Statutes of theiſe our Realmes, or by the Severitie or Cenſure of our Courte of Starchamber in either of thoſe Kingdomes reſpectively, may be inflicted upon the Offendors for Contempte of this our Royall Commaunde, and to be reputed and taken as Enimyes to our Proceedings and to thoſe Plantations which ſoe much concern our Honor, and the Honor and Profit of theſe our Kingdomes.

And we further will and command, upon the Penalties aforeſaid, that from henceforth no Perſon or Perſons whatſoever preſume to ſowe ſett or plante, or cauſe or permit or ſuffer to be ſowed ſett or planted in any of his or their Groundes any Tobacco whatſoever within theiſe our Realmes of England or Ireland or Domynion of Wales, or any Iſles or Places belonging thereto; or permit or ſuffer any ould Stock Plant or Roote of Tobacco, formerly ſett ſowed or planted there, to contynue not plucked upp and utterly deſtroyed, contrary to the Tenor and true Meaning of a former Proclamation made and publiſhed by Us to that purpoſe, bearing Date the thirtith Day of December in the ſeaventeenth Yere of our Raigne of England.

And we further ſtraightly charge and command, upon the Paines and Penalties aforeſaid, that no Perſon whatſoever preſume to buy or ſell any Tobacco which from henceforth ſhall be ymported or brought from any the Partes beyonde the Seas, or from our Realme of Scotland, which is not or ſhall not be of the proper Growth of the Collonies aforeſaid of Virginia and the Sommer Iſlandes, or one of them.

And becauſe wee underſtand that ſome, whoe intende their owne private more then the publique, conceiving yt to be probable that we would grant the Petition of our Commons in Parliamente, to prevent the Effect thereof, have lately ymported ſecretly and by Stealth great Quantities of Forrayne Tobacco, for which they have payed noe Subſidye or other Dutye unto Us; Wee further will and commande, under the Payns and Penalties aforeſaid, that noe Perſon whatſoever, from and after the five and twentieth Day of March now nexte enſueing, preſume to ſell, or offer to put to Sale within theiſe our Realmes or Domynion any Tobacco which hath been formerly ymported into this Realme, which is not of the proper Growth of the Colonies or Plantations aforeſaide or one of them; nor that any Perſon whatſoever, willingly or knowingly, take or uſe any Tobacco from and after the firſt Day of May nowe next enſuing, which is not nor ſhall be of the proper Growth of the ſaid Collonies or Plantations or one of them: yet becauſe the ſaid Forreyne Tobacco may not lye on the Handes of the Owners thereof, wee are graciouſly pleaſed, that at any tyme within Fourteen Dayes after the ſaid five and twentieth Day of March ſuch Forrayne Tobacco may be freely exported by any Perſon whatſoever, without paying any Subſidye or other Dutye for the ſame.

And becauſe noe Man ſhall pretend Ignorance, and thereby endeavour to excuſe his Offence in any of the Premiſſes, wee doe further chardge and commande, and doe hereby ſignify and declare our Will and Pleaſure to be, that all and everie other Perſon and Perſons Merchaunte or other, whoe uſeth to ſell, or hath any purpoſe to ſell Tobacco, whoe have in his or theire Handes Cuſtody or Poſſeſſion, or in the Handes Cuſtody or Poſſeſſion of any other by their Delivery or to their Uſe, any Tobacco heretofore ymported into this our Realme, or planted ſett or ſowen within this Realm; ſhall, before the twentith Day of October nowe next comeing, bring the ſame into our Cuſtome houſe within our City of London; yf ſuch Tobacco be in any other City Towne or Place within this our Realme of England or Domynion of Wales or Realm of Ireland, ſhall bring the ſame to the Townhouſe, or other fyt Place which ſhall be to that purpoſe appointed by Us in that Cittye or Coporate Town, neereſt neereſt to which the ſaid Tobacco ſhal be; and ſhall before the firſt Day of December nowe next coming, there require and cauſe the ſame to be marked and ſealed by ſuch Perſon or Perſons, and with ſuch Seale and Marke as wee ſhall thereunto aſſigne or appointe for that purpoſe, without giving any Fee or Allowance for the ſaid Seal or Mark: And whatſoever Tobacco ſhall not be ſealed or marked as aforeſaid, within the ſeveral Tymes aforeſaid, ſhall be confiſcated and forfeited unto Us for ſuch their Default and Contempte.

And for the avoyding of all Deceipt and Abuſe in diſguiſing of Forreyne Tobacco, or mingling the ſame with the Tobacco of Virginia or the Sommer Iſlands thereby to defraude the true Intente of theſe Preſents; We further ſtraightly charge and commaunde under the Paynes and Penalties aforeſaid, That noe Perſon who ys or ſhall be a Seller of Tobacco ſhall have or keepe ready cut above the Quantity of one Pounde of Tobacco at once, nor ſhall myngle any Foreyne Tobacco with any Tobacco of the Growth of the Sommer Iſlandes or Virginia.

And wee ſtraightly chardge and commaunde, that all the Planters of Tobacco in the Collonies aforeſaid or any parte thereof, ſhall make the ſame good and merchantable, and ſhall not preſume to ſend over into this Realme of England any Tobacco which ſhall not be good and merchantable and well made up in Roll, without Stalkes or other bad or corrupt Stuff, upon Payne of Confiſcation thereof, or ſoe much thereof as, uppon due Tryall made, ſhall be found to be otherwiſe, to the intent that ſuch of our Subjects as ſhall deſire to uſe the ſame may not be abuſed or deceived therewith to the ympayring of theire Health.

And to the Intente that the Tobacco of the Colonies and Plantations aforeſaid thus tollerated by Us, may be knowne and diſtinguiſhed from ſuch as ſhall be ſecretly and without Warrant brought in by Stealth, Wee doe likewiſe ſtraightly charge and commaund, upon the Paynes and Penalties aforeſaid, that all ſuch Tobacco as ſhall be broughte from the Collonies aforeſaid, ſhall be all brought and landed at the Key of our Cuſtome Houſe in our Citty of London, and not elſewhere in any of our Realmes or Domynions, and ſhall be there regiſtred and ſhall not be removed from our ſaid Cuſtom Houſe, untill yt ſhall be there firſt tryed ſealed and marked by ſuch Perſon or Perſons, and with ſuch Seal or Mark as we ſhall thereunto aſſign and appoint; ſuch Seal or Mark to be ſett thereto without Fee or other Reward whatſoever.

And Wee doe further ſtraightly charge and command upon the Payns and Penalties aforeſaid, that all Owners of Shippes be carefull to ymploye ſuch Maiſters in their Shippes or other Veſſells from whome they will take good Caution not to offend in the Ymportation of any Tobacco, contrarie to this our Royall Pleaſure: And We do further ſignifye and declare by theiſe Preſentes, that Wee will require an exacte Accompte of the Maiſter of every Shippe or other Veſſell, that he ſhall make ſuch diligent and carefull Search over the Marriners and Paſſengers in his Shippe or other Veſſell, that none of them ſhall convey over into theiſe our Realmes of England or Irelande or Domynion of Wales, or into any Porte Haven Creeke or other Parts thereof, any Tobacco to be ymported contrarie to the true Intent and Meaning of theſe Preſentes.

And that our Cuſtomers or their Deputies in everie Port of theis our Realms of Englande and Ireland, ſhall uppon Oath examine everie Maſter of a Ship or other Veſſell or other Officers and Marriners in the ſaid Ship or Veſſell, whether they have made ſearch in the Ship or Veſſell for Tobacco? and whether any Tobacco be in the ſaid Shippe or Veſſell to their Knowledge? and whether any Tobacco were laden in the ſaid Shippe or Veſſel and be taken out thereof? and what is become of the ſame? and yf any Maiſter of a Shipp or other Veſſell ſhall willfully or negligently permitt or ſuffer any Tobacco to be ymported, or ſhall otherwiſe offend contrarie to theiſe Preſentes, everie ſuch Maiſter, becauſe it is in his Power to prevent the ſame ſhall alſo be anſwerable to Us for his Contempte herein, and ſhall be ſubject and lyable to all the Paynes and Penalties aforeſaid, as well as yf he himſelf had actually and purpoſely committed the ſaid Offence.

And whereas Wee are informed that ſome Traders in Tobacco do uſe to ymporte Tobacco in forrayne Bottoms; Wee ſtraightly chardge and command that noe Perſon whatſoever, either Stranger Denizen or naturall borne Subjecte, preſume to ymport any To- bacco whatſoever in any forraine Bottom at any time hereafter, upon Pain of Confiſcation not only of the ſaid Tobacco but alſo of the Ship or Veſſell wherein the ſame is ſo ymported and upon the other Paynes and Penalties aforeſaid;

And for the better Execution of our Pleaſure herein, Wee doe hereby command all and ſinguler Cuſtomers Comptrollers Searchers Wayters and other Officers, attending in all and everie the Portes Creekes or Places of lading or unlading, for the taking collecting or receiving of any of our Cuſtoms Subſidies or Duties, to take notice of this our Pleaſure: And Wee doe hereby command and give Power and Authoritie unto them and everie of them, from tyme to tyme as well to ſearch any Shippe or other Veſſell or Bottome, riding or lying within any Porte Haven or Creeke within their ſeveral Charge of Attendance, for all Tobacco ymported contrary to the Intente of this our Royal Proclamation, and the ſame being founde to ſeize and take to our Uſe; and alſoe to take Notice of the Names, and apprehend the Bringers in and Buyers of the ſame, to the end they may receive condign Puniſhment for their Offences, upon Payne that everie of the ſaid Officers which ſhall be found negligent remiſſe or corrupte therein, ſhall looſe his Place and Entertaynemente, and undergoe ſuch Paynes and Penalties as by our Laws or by the Cenſure of our ſaid Courte of Starchamber may be inflicted upon them for the ſame.

And Wee do likewiſe will ordeyne and appoint that yt ſhall and may be lawfull for ſuch Perſon or Perſons, as ſhall be thereunto authoriſed and appointed by us, by him or themſelves or his or their Deputie or Deputies, with a lawfull Officer, to ſearch any Ship or other Veſſell, and to enter into any Shoppe Houſe Sellar Warehouſe or other ſuſpected Places at lawfull and convenient tymes, and there to ſearch diſcover and finde out any Tobacco imported uttered ſould or vented, or to be uttered ſould or vented, not marked or ſealed as aforeſaid contrarie to the true meaning hereof, and all ſuch Tobacco ſo founde to ſeize take away and diſpoſe of and the Owners thereof or in whoſe Cuſtody the ſame ſhal be found, to informe and complayne of, to the end they may receive Punyſhment according to our Pleaſure before herein declared.

A Proclamation concerning the Prorogation of the Parliamente.

A.D.1624. Pat. 22. J. 1. p. 1. n. 7. dorſ.

THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY, with the Adviſe of the Lordes of his Privy Councell,

Having taken into Conſideration that a generall Sickneſs and Diſeaſe, which proves Mortal to many, and Infectious to more of his loving Subjects, even now towards Winter, hath diſperſed it ſelf within the Cittyes of London and Weſtminſter, and that yf the meeting of both Houſes of Parliament ſhould hold according to the laſt Prorogation thereof on the ſecond Day of November nexte, the ſame might prove dangerous, as well to his Majeſtie's owne Royall Perſon and his Deere Sonne the Prince, the Occaſions of Parliament often requiring their Reſidence and being in and neer the Citties aforeſaid, as to the Nobility and Gentry of the Lande to be called thither out of the freſh Ayer from all the Partes of the Kingdom,

Hath therefore, by the Adviſe aforeſaid, out of his Princely and Gracious Care of his loving Subjects of all ſorts, reſolved to prorogue the ſaid Parliament from the ſaid ſecond Day of November to the ſixteenth Day of February then next following.

And to the end that, as well the Lords Spirituall and Temporal, as the Knightes Cittizens and Burgeſſes of Parliamente, may ſpare and forbeare their Attendance accordingly; his Majeſty for their Eaſe hath thought fitt by this Proclamation to publiſh and declare his Royall Reſolution and Intention therein, ſoe that they, nor any of them, other then ſuch as for other Occaſions ſhall happen to be in London or Weſtminſter, who may attende the making of the ſaid Prorogation, ſhall not be bound or compelled to appeare, the ſaide ſeconde Day of November at the Citty of Weſtminſter, but ſhall be diſcharged thereof againſt his Majeſty:

Nevertheles his Majeſty doeth will charge and commaunde them and every of them, and all others to whom in this caſe it ſhall appertayne, That they and every of them doe perſonally appere and be preſente upon the ſaide ſixteenth Day of Februarie next comeing, at the ſaide Cittye of Weſtminſter, to treate conſent and conclude upon ſuch Matters as in the ſaid Parliament ſhall then and there of the common Councell of the Realme by God's Favour happen to be ordeyned.

Given at the Court of Whithall, the firſt Day of October, in the twoe and twentith Yere of his Majeſtie's Raigne of Great Brittaine Fraunce and Ireland.

A Proclamation commanding Perſons of Quality to reſide in theire Countries.

WHereas, by three Proclamations, one dated the twentith of November, another the two and twentith of December in the twentith Yere of our Raigne, and the third the ſix and twentith Day of March in the one and twentith Yere of our Raigne, we did publiſh our Royall Pleaſure concerning the Repaire of the Lordes Spiritual and Temporal and of other Perſons of Qualitye from our Cityes of London and Weſtminſter and the Partes adjacent, and from other Cities and Towns unto their Countrie Dwellings: In all which was ſoe fully declared our conſtant and ſetled Reſolution, as we preſumed would have cut off all Hopes of Change or Alteration therein; yet, finding by Experience that ſuch as are addicted unto that Courſe, of withdrawing themſelves from their Countries, are prone to flatter themſelves in their vayne Humour; Wee have thought good once more to publiſh our abſolute and peremptorye Commaund, That our ſaide Proclamations be in all Poinctes dutifully obeyed; And to the intent that all ſuch as ſhall preſume to contemne our Royall Commandements ſo often iterated, may feel the Severity of our Juſtice:

Wee doe hereby ſtraightly charge all Maiors Aldermen Juſtices of Peace and other head Officers, as well of our ſaid Cittyes of London and Weſtminſter and the Partes adjacent, as of other Cities and Townes, that they from tyme to tyme cauſe diligent Survey and Inquirie to be made within theire ſeverall Precincts Limitts and Juriſdictions of all Offendors in this behalfe, and make ſpeedy Certificate of theire Names without Partiality or Connyvence unto the Lordes of our Privye Councell, or to our Attorney General, that they may be proceeded againſt in our Court of Star-chamber, or otherwiſe according to their Demerits.

And our Will and Pleaſure is, that, as well the Lordes of our Privie Councell, as our Attorney Generall, uſe all Care and Diligence to puniſh with Severity, as well the Partiality Negligence and Remiſnes of the ſaide Mayors Aldermen Juſtices of Peace and other head Officers, in not making due Survey or Certificate as aforeſaid, as the contemptuous Behaviour of ſuch as ſhall preſume to violate this or any other our ſaid former Proclamations.

Given at our Court at Royſton, the nyneteenth Day of October, in the two and twentith Yere of our Raigne of Great Brittaine France and Ireland.

Whereas, uppon the humble Petition of our Commons aſſembled in our late Seſſion of Parliament touching the Prohibition of the Uſe of all Forrayne Tobacco; and, uppon the earneſt and often Importunities of many of our loving Subjects Planters and Adventurers in Virginia and the Sommer Iſlandes: And laſtlye, uppon the humble Deviſe of our Commiſſioners for Virginia, Wee were pleaſed for many waightye and important Reaſons of State, by our Royall Proclamation bearing Date the Nyne and twentith Day of September nowe laſte paſte, to ſignify our Will and Pleaſure to be; And thereby ſtreightlye to chardge and commaund, that noe Perſon whatſoever, of what Degree or Quality ſoever, doe at any tyme heereafter import or cauſe to be ymported, from any Parts beyond the Seas or out of our Kingdome of Scotland, into this our Realme of England or Domynion of Wales, or into our Realme of Ireland, any Tobacco which is not of the proper Growth of the Plantations of Virginia and the Sommer Iſlands, or one of them, uppon Payne of Forfeyture unto Us of all ſuch Tobacco, ſoe to be ymported, contrary to the true Meaning of our ſaid Proclamation, in whoſe Handes ſoever the ſame ſhould be found; and uppon ſuch further Paynes and Penalties as in the ſaid Proclamation are expreſſed:

JAMES, by the Grace of God, &c. to our right truſtie and right welbeloved Couſins and Counſellors,

Henry Viſcount Mandeville Lord Preſident of our Councell,

Thomas Earle of Arundell and Surrey Erle Marſhal of England,

And to our truſtie and right welbeloved Councellors,

Sir Thomas Edmonds Knight Treaſurer of our Houſhould,

Sir John Sucklyng Knight Comptroller of our Houſhould,

And Sir Richard Weſton Knight Chauncellor and Undertreaſurer of our Exchequer, Greeting.

Whereas by our Letters Patents ſealed with our Greate Seale of England, beareing Date the Sixteenth Day of January in the nineteenth Yeere of our Raigne of England Fraunce and Ireland, and of Scotland the five and fiftith, uppon deliberate Adviſement and Conſideration then taken concerninge the Charge of our Greate Wardrobe, Wee did, amongſt other things therein conteyned, ſignifie and declare our Pleaſure, That the two yeerely Annuities or Aſſignments of Thirteen thouſand Pounds out of the French Gaſcoign and Reniſh Wines, and One thouſand Pounds out of the Sweete Wines which then and before was allowed, over and beſides the Aſſignment by Act of Parliament for and towards the Expences of our ſaide Greate Wardrobe; ſhould, at and after the Feaſt of Saint Michaell th'Archangell then next enſuing after the Date of our ſaid Letters Patents, be reduced unto one Annuitie or Aſſignment of Tenn thouſand Pounds by the Yeare onlie, to be paid out of the French Gaſcoigne and Reniſh Wines; or, in Default thereof, out of the Exchequer: And that the ſaid Annuitie or yearly Aſſignment of Tenn thouſand Pounds, together with the Aſſignment by Act of Parliament, ſhould be the full and whole yeerely Proportion that at and after the ſaid Feaſte of Saint Michaell the Archangell then next enſuing the Date of the ſaid Letters Patents, and which was in the twentith Yeare of our Raigne of England, ſhould be allowed and paid for and towards the ordinarie anual Charge and Expences of our ſaid Great Wardrobe, which our Pleaſure then was, and Wee did by the ſaid Letters Patents will and ordeine and appoint to be anſwered and paid accordingly, as by our ſaid Letters Patents, amongeſt other things, more at large appeareth.

Now, for that we underſtand that there is much Difficultie Doubt and Queſtion concerning the diſtinguiſhing of the Proviſions and Expences belonging to the Ordinarie of our ſaid Office of the Greate Wardrobe, from thoſe which are or ought to be reputed extraordinary, ſoe as though our ordinaric annual Allowance for the Wardrobe be reduced to a Certaintie by our former Letters Patents aforeſaid; yet, untill ſuch time as there be a certaine and ſettled Rule and Direction for diſtinguiſhing the extraordinary Expences of our Wardrobe from the ordinary Expences thereof, our Eſtabliſhment aforeſaid cannot produce that good effect which wee intended.

We therefore taking the ſame into our Princely Conſideration, have thought it neceſſary, for the well ordering and certifying the Accompts of that Office of our greate Wardrobe in this behalfe, as well for our owne Safetie and Aſſurance therein, as for the Accomptant's juſt Indempnitie; That by ſome Perſons of Underſtanding and Truſt the Premiſſes ſhould be conſidered of and examined, and by their good Meanes the ordinarie annuall Expence of the Wardrobe be alſoe reduced into Certentie for the Natures of all Diſburſements thereunto belonging, ſevered and diſtinguiſhed from the extraordinarie, for ſuch further Order to be taken therein uppon theire Report and Certificate as we ſhall thinke fit for ſetling the Accompts and Affaires of our ſaid Wardrobe, both for the tyme paſt ſince the ſaid Reducements, and for the tyme to come.

Know ye therefore that we, repoſing aſſured Truſt and Confidence in the Wiſdome and Fidelitie of you the ſaid Preſident of our Councell, Earl Marſhall, Chamberlaine of our Houſhould, Treaſurer and Comptroller of our Houſhould, and Chauncellor of our Exchequer, have aſſigned and appointed you to be our Commiſſioners, and do hereby will and require you, and alſoe give Power and Authoritie unto you, or any four or more of you (whereof you our ſaid Chauncellor of the Exchequer to be one) as well upon Peruſall of our ſaid Letters Patents of Reducement, and of the Bookes and Accompts Diſcharges Acquittances or other Records or Writings, of or belonging to the ſaid Great Wardrobe, as by calling unto you, for your Information therein, the Auditors of our Preſt Accompts, and ſuch other Officers and Clarkes belonging to the ſaid Office of our Great Wardrobe, as you ſhall thinke fitt, and by all other good Waies and Meanes which to you ſhall ſeem meet and convenient, to diſcover finde out and informe your ſelves, what and what manner of Proviſions Emptions and Payments for our Uſe or Service, have bene and are ordinarily and annually provided and ſupplied by the Maſter of our Great Wardrobe for the time being? and have bine are or ought to be reputed accompted or taken within the true Intendment of our ordinarie annuall Charges and Expences of our ſaid Great Wardrobe, and uppon deliberate Conſideration thereuppon had, to diſtinguiſh and ſet down in Writing all ordinarie Proviſions Emptions and Payments, as ſeveral and diſtinct from the Extraordinaries of the ſaid Office;

A.D. 1624. 22 Jac. 1.

And, for your better Help and Aſſiſtance herein, we do hereby give you, or anie four or more of you as aforeſaid, full Power and Authoritie, att ſuch Times and Places as to you ſhall ſeem convenient, to cauſe to come before you the ſaid Officers and Clarks, and ſuch of them and ſuch others as you ſhall think fitt to examine, uppon their corporal Oathes if neede ſhall require, for your Satisfaction upon anie Doubte or Queſtion which may ariſe concerning the Premiſſes; As alſoe to cauſe to be brought before you all the Accomptes Bookes Records and Writings as you ſhall find needful for the Diſcoverie of the Truth and your better Information concerning the ſame.

And laſtlie our Will and Pleaſure is, and we doe hereby require and command you our ſaid Commiſſioners to certifie unto us cleerly and diſtinctly your whole Proceeding and Opinions herein, as ſoone as convenientlie you can in Writing under the Hand of you, or anie four or more of you as aforeſaid, with your ſeverall Reaſons for each Perticular of your ſaid Certificate, to th'end that wee may thereuppon take ſuch further Order therein, both for the time paſt and to come, as wee ſhall finde the ſame to require for our Honor and Service in an Office of ſuch neceſſarie and dailie Uſe and Importance.

A Proclamation for the Apprehenſion of Edward Ekyns.

A.D. 1624. Pat 22. J 1. p. 4 n. 10.

FOraſmuch as one Edward Ekyns late of Stamwick in our County of Northampton Yeoman, having been a principall Malefactor, amongſt divers others, in a late Outrage committed in our Parke of Higham Ferries by violent entring thereunto, killing and carrying away our Deare, and beating and wounding our Keepers there, doth now lurke and keep himſelfe cloſe in ſome ſeacret Place, and will not ſubmit himſelfe to Juſtice, to the great Abuſe and unſufferable Contempte of Us and our Regall Authority; wee have thought fit to publiſhe the ſame to all our loving Subjects, not doubting of theire Care and Forwardnes in his Diſcovery and Apprehenſion:

And doe hereby chardge and commaund all Juſtices of Peace Maiors Sheriffs Bayliffes Conſtables Headboroughes, and all other our Officers Myniſters and Subjects whatſoever, to be diligent in enquiring and ſearching for the ſaide Edward Ekyns in all Places whatſoever, as well within Liberties as without, whome, if they ſhall happen to take, our Pleaſure is that they cauſe him to be ſafely brought before one of the next Juſtices of the Peace to the Place of the County where he ſhall be found; which Juſtice we doe hereby commaund to take ſufficient Bond of him with twoe able Suretyes for the perſonall Appearance of the ſaid Ekyns in our High Court of Star-chamber, to anſweare the Premiſſes within ſome convenient tyme after his Apprehenſion, and not to depart without Licence of that Court; And if hee refuſe to enter into ſuch Bond, or cannot fynd ſufficient Sureties in that behalfe, That then the ſaid Juſtice doe ſend him with ſufficient Guard to the Gaole of the County or Place where hee ſhall be taken, there to remayne in ſafe Cuſtody; and withall preſently to advertiſe one of our Principall Secretaries thereof, for ſuch further Courſe to be taken with him as wee ſhall give Direction.

Letting all our loveing Subjects knowe that if any Perſon or Perſons, after this our Proclamation publiſhed, ſhall directly or indirectly conceale, harboure, keepe, retayne or mayntayn the ſaid Edward Ekyns, or ſhall not uſe his or theire beſte Endeavour for his Apprehenſion, as well by giving due Advertiſement thereof to our Officers, as by all other good Meanes, wee will (as there is juſt Cauſe) proceed againſt them that ſhall neglecte this our Commaundement with all Severity.

Witnes our ſelfe at Cambridge the fowerteenth Day of December.

JAMES, by the Grace of God, King of England Scotland France and Ireland Defendor of the Faith &c. to our right truſtie and right welbeloved Coſen and Councellor, George Duke of Buckingham Lord Warden of our Cinque Ports, Greeting.

Whereas in the firſt Seſſion of Parliament holden at Weſtminſter the nyneteenth Daie of March in the Yeare of our Reigne of England Fraunce and Ireland the firſt, and of Scotland the ſeaven and thirtith, yt was amongeſt other things enacted,

That no Woman nor anie Child under the Age of one and twenty Yeares, except Sailors or Shippe Boys, or Apprentiſe or Factor of ſome Marchant in Trade of Marchandize, ſhould be permitted to paſſe over the Seas, except the ſame ſhould be by Licenſe of our ſelves our Heires or Succeſſors, or of ſixe or more of our Privy Councell thereunto firſt had under their Hands, upon Paine that the Officers of the Porte that ſhould willingly or negligentlie ſuffer any ſuch to paſſe, or ſhould not enter the Names of ſuch Paſſengers licenſed, ſhould forfeit his Office and all his Goods and Chattells, and uppon Paine that the Owner of anie Shippe or Veſſell, that ſhould wittinglie lie or willinglie carrie any ſuch over the Seas without Licenſe as is aforeſaid, ſhould forfeite his Shippe or Veſſell and all the Tackle, and everie Maſter or Marriner of or in anye ſuch Shippe or Veſſell, offending as aforeſaid, ſhould forfeit all their Goods and ſuffer Impriſonment by the Space of twelve Months without Baile or Mainpriſe, as by the ſaid Act of Parliament, amongſt other things may appeare.

And whereas alſo, by our Proclamation dated at our Pallace of Weſtminſter the nynthe Daie of July in the fifte Yeare of our Raign of Greate Britaine France and Ireland,

We did ſtreightlie prohibite and forbid all manner of Perſons, being naturall born Subjects of this Realme, or anie of the Dominions of the ſame, of what Eſtate or Degree ſoever they were, they or anie of them, other then ſuch Perſons as were excepted in and by an Act of Parliament made in the Fifte Year of King Richard the Second, in the ſaid Proclamation mentioned, and other then Souldiers Marchants Mariners and their Factors and Apprentiſes, ſhould not att anie time hereafter, without ſpeciall Lycenſe of Us, or of anie fower or more of our Privie Councell (whereof our Principall Secretarie for the time being to be one) paſſe or departe out of this Realme of England, or anie of the Dominions of the ſame, into the Kingdomes Countries Territories or Dominions of anie forreign King Prince State or Potentate, uppon ſuch corporall and other greate and heavie Paines and Penalties, as by our Lawes might be inflicted uppon ſuch as ſhould offend therein, for their ſo haynous and unnatural Offences againſt their naturall Leighe Lord and Country in that behalfe;

As by our ſaid Proclamation, amongſt other things, more fullie and plainely appeareth.

And whereas many ſuch our Subjects, that is to ſaie, as well Women as Perſons under the Age of one and twenty Yeeres, as other Perſons whatſoever, have from time to time juſt and neceſſarie Cauſes and Occaſions to goe and paſſe over the Seas; In which Cauſes, for everie ſuch of our Subjects to obteine ſuch Licence either from our ſelves, or from ſixe of our ſaid Privie Councell, according to the ſaid Law or Proclamation, is verie inconvenient and almoſt impoſſible.

And whereas the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports for the time being, by himſelf and his Deputies in thoſe Parts, hath of long time had and taken the Charge and Care, amongſt other Services and Confidence to that Place belonging, to look to ſuch as paſſed from thoſe Ports into the Parts beyond the Seas, which pointe of Service in theſe our Times is of moſt ſpeciall Regard and Conſequence for the Safetie of our Perſon and State.

Know ye therefore that Wee, of our eſpeciall Grace, certaine Knowledge and meere Motion, for the Expedition of our ſaid Subjects that ſhall have ſuch occaſion to paſſe over the Seas, and to quitt our ſelves and our Privie Councell of that continual Suite, and of the Loſſe of Time that in our more important Affaires is to be beſtowed, and truſting in your approved Fidelitie Wiſedome and Circumſpection, have, and for Us our Heires and Succeſſors doe, by theſe Preſents, give full Power and Authority unto you the ſaid Lord Warden, and to ſuch Perſons as you ſhall from time to time, under your Hands and Seales, name and appoint your Deputies or Commiſſioners for the Care of Paſſage at the ſaid Cinque Ports or anie of them, or anie three or more of your ſaid Deputies or Commiſſioners reſpectivelie, to miniſter an Othe, as well to ſuch Women and Perſons under the Age of one and twentie Yeares, being of convenient Age to take the Oath, as to all other Perſon and Perſons whatſoever as ſhall offer or deſire to goe over the Seas at our ſaid Cinque Ports or anie of them, to anſwer trulie to ſuch Queſtions as you, the ſaid Lord Warden, or anie three or more of your ſaid Deputies, ſhall aſk of them; and, uppon ſuch their Oath, to aſk and learne of them their true Names and Surnames, and the Place of their Birth and Abode, their Eſtate Degree Vocation Miſterie or Occupation, and the true Cauſe and Cauſes of their goeing over, together with the Place or Places wither they intend or are to goe, and the time that they intend or are like to ſtaie or tarie before their Returne; And all other Queſtions that in the Diſcretions of you, or anie three or more of your ſaid Deputies, according to the Occaſions you, or anie three or more of your ſaid Deputies, ſhall think fit; of all which Perſons and their Anſwers to the point aforeſaid, or what elſe in your Diſcretions you, or anie three or more of your ſaid Deputies, ſhall think fitt to demaund of them, and of the time of their Paſſage, we will that you, or anie three or more of your ſaid Deputies, ſhall make orderlie and perfect Entrey in a Booke, and keepe the ſame to be extent uppon all Occaſions.

And we doe alſoe by theſe Preſents, authoriſe and commaund you the ſaid Lord Warden of our Cinque Ports, or anie three or more of your ſaid Deputies ſoe by you to be authoriſed as is aforeſaid, to tender the Oath mentioned, in an Act of Parliament, made in the third Yeare of our Raign of England Fraunce and Ireland, intitled an Act for the better diſcovering and repreſſing of Popiſh Recuſants, unto anie ſuch Perſon and Perſons as you, or anie three or more of your ſaid Deputies, in your or their Diſcretions ſhall think fitt, (except Women or Children, and except ſuch Perſons as are not reſtrained by the ſaid Proclamation) which ſhall be deſirous to paſſe over the Seas, at the ſaid Ports; upon which Examination ſoe by you, or anie three or more of your ſaid Deputies, taken and entred, and the ſaid Oath ſoe tendred in caſe when you, or anie three or more of your ſaid Deputies ſhall think it fitt as aforeſaid, ſuch of the ſaid Perſons intending to goe over the Seas as you, or anie three or more of your ſaid Deputies, ſhall find to go over for any good or lawfull Occaſion, and which you, or anie three or more of your ſaid Deputies, ſhall not diſcover by ſuch their Examinations, or otherwiſe knowe or learne to be Gentlemen or Men of Value, or publiquely noted for anie diſloyall or dangerous Action or Affection, and ſhall alſoe willinglie take the ſaid Oath mentioned in the ſaid Act of Parliament, made in the ſaid third Yeare of our Raigne of England Fraunce and Ireland, in caſe whereof you, or anie three or more of your ſaid Deputies, ſhall thinke good to miniſter the ſame Oath as aforeſaid; you, or anie three or more of your ſaid Deputies, ſhall and maie allow and ſuffer to paſſe, and thereuppon you, or anie three or more of your ſaid Deputies, ſhall ſignifie under your or their, or anie three or more of their Hands and Seales, the ſame Perſons to be allowable to paſſe over the Seas at our ſaid Cinque Ports or anie of them, of which your or their ſaid Teſtimoniall you ſhall alſo enter or cauſe to be entred in the ſaid Book or ſhort Remembrance uppon which your or their Teſtimoniall or Teſtimonialls ſo made, theſe our Letters Patents ſhall be unto the ſaid Perſons themſelves, ſo by you, or anie three or more of your ſaid Deputies, under ſuch your or their Teſtimoniall to be allowed, a ſufficient Warrant to paſſe and goe over the Seas at our ſaid Cinque Ports or anie of them; and to all and everie the Cuſtomers Comptrollors and Searchers and other Officers of the ſaid Portes, to lett them paſſe there without other Licence to be had, or other Entries of the Names of ſuch Paſſengers by them or anie of them to be made or taken, and to all Owners of Shippes Maſters Marriners of anie Shipps or Veſſells, to carie them from thence over the Seas, the ſaid Proclamation made the ſaid nineth Day of July in the ſaid fifte Yeare of our Raigne of Great Brittaine France and Ireland, or anie Statute Ordynance Law Proclamation Reſtraint or other thinge to the contrarie in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Provided neverthleſſe, and our Will and Pleaſure is, that ſuch as by the Examination of you, or anie three or more of your ſaid Deputies, you or they ſhall find, or otherwſe diſcover or ſuſpect, to be Perſons dangerous, or fitt to be made Inſtruments of deſperate Attempts, or which ſhall refuſe to take the ſaid Oath mentioned in the ſaid Act of Parliament made in the ſaid third Yeare of our Raigne, when you or your ſaid Deputies, or anie three or more of them as aforeſaid, ſhall accordingly to your or their Diſcretions thinke fitt to tender the ſame; to ſuch you or your ſaid Deputies, ſhall not onlie deny Paſſage, but alſo committ them to Ward, and ſhall forthwith certifie our Privie Councell of them, and all things that you ſhall underſtand concerning them; where, uppon ſuch Directions as you, or your ſaid Deputies, ſhall receive from our ſaid Councell; our Will is that you and they do in all things followe and obſerve.

Provided alſoe that if anie Perſons, ſoe paſſinge over as aforeſaid ſhall, after his Departure out of this Realme, doe committ putt in ure attempt or aſſent unto anie Act Deviſe Plott or Thinge againſt Us or anie of our Kingdomes or Dominions, or againſt any of our Lawes or Statutes, that everie Perſon ſoe offending ſhall looſe the Benefitt of this Warrant of our ſaid Letters Patents, and ſhall to all Intents and Purpoſes be taken and adjudged to be as one that maliciouſly and contemptuouſlie did paſſe and depart out of of this Realme contrarie to the Tenor and Effect of the ſaid Statute and our ſaid Proclamation.

And whereas alſo divers of our Subjects have repaired, and daily doe repaire into this our Realme of England from the parts beyond the Seas, many of them being knowne to be dangerous Perſons, and others unknowne, and therefore may be, by the Converſation and Perſwaſion of Traitors Fugitives or other evill affected Perſons to our State in forreigne Parts, ſo farr perverted in the Point of their Loyallties and due Allegiance unto us as they are not fitt to be receaved into this our Realme.

And whereas alſo, in the aforeſaid Act of Parliament, intituled, An Act for the better diſcovering and repreſſing of Popiſh Recuſants made in the third Year of our Raigne of England Fraunce and Ireland and of Scotland the nine and thirtith, it was amongſt other thinges enacted,

That it ſhould be lawfull to and for anie Biſhoppe in his Dioceſſe, or anie two Juſtices of Peace, whereof one to be of the Quorum; within the Lymitts of their Juriſdiction, to miniſter the Oath ſpecified in the ſaid Statute.

And thereby ordeyned for the Tryall how our Subjects ſtand affected in Point of their Loyaltie and due Obedience, to divers kinds of Perſons and in divers Caſes in the ſaid Statute lymitted and appointed: Foraſmuch therefore as We are informed, that divers unknowne and ſuſpected Perſons doe daylie repaire into this our Realme of England, from the parts beyond the Seas at our Cinque Ports, and becauſe it may be that neither the Biſhoppe of the Dioces, nor two Juſtices of the Peace ſuch as are appointed by the ſaid Statute, are always reſident or abidinge in our Cinque Ports;

Knowe ye therefore that We, further truſting in your approved Fidelitie Wiſdome and Circumſpection, have authorized and appointed you, and by theſe Preſents doe give full Power and Authoritie unto you, and unto ſuch Perſon and Perſons as you ſhall from time to tyme under your Hande and Seale name and appointe your Deputies or Commiſſioners for that Purpoſe, or to anie three or more of them reſpectively, to tender and miniſter the ſaid Oath, ſoe in the ſaid Statute ſett forth, unto all and everie ſuch Perſon and Perſons our Subjects, cominge from the Parts beyond the Seas into this our Realme of England att the ſaid Port, or anie the Creekes Members or Lymitts of the ſame, or anie of them to whome by the Statute the ſaid Oath may be tendred. And if anie the ſaid Perſon or Perſons ſhall refuſe to take the ſaid Oath before you, or anie ſuch Perſon or Perſons as you ſhall name your Deputies for that purpoſe as aforeſaid, or anie three or more of them as aforeſaid, and alſoe ſhall refuſe preſentlie to depart this our Realme, and all other Domynions thereof, (We will and command, and by theſe Preſents doe authorize you and your ſaid Deputies as aforeſaid, to give them their free Choice) then We will and commaund you and your ſaid Deputies as aforeſaid, and by theſe Preſents doe give full Power and Authority unto you and them, or anie three or more of them as aforeſaid, to convey and ſend the Bodies of every ſuch Perſon and Perſons ſoe refuſing before the Biſhoppe of that Dioceſſe, or before two of the Juſtices of Peace of that County authorized by the ſaid Act to miniſter the ſaid Oath, who ſhall and may tender the ſaid Oath to ſuch Perſon and Perſons, that ſhall have made Refuſall before you or your Deputies as aforeſaid; to th'end that if they ſhall again refuſe the ſaid Oath before the ſaid Biſhoppe or Juſtices of Peace as aforeſaid, the ſaid Perſons ſo refuſing to take the ſaid Oath may thereupon be committed to the common Goale, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize, to be proceeded withall according to the ſaid Statute as ſhall appertaine.

Nevertheleſſe if there be or ſhall be, either by force of Commiſſion or Charter two Juſtices of Peace, wherof one to be of the Quorum, in the ſaid Cinque Ports or anie of them, or anie the Creekes Members or Limitts of the ſame, at anie time when any Occaſion ſhall be to miniſter the ſaide Oathe; then our meaning is, that ſuch Juſtices doe not in anie wiſe take themſelves to be diſchardged of their Duty and Truſt in that behalfe in reſpect of this our Commiſſion to you directed, but ſhall and may proceed to the miniſtring of the ſaid Oath in Caſes requiſite and by the ſaid Statute appointed, according to the Preſcript and Warrant of the ſaid Lawe; excepte the Parties will rather chooſe preſently to depart this our Realm and other our Dominions as aforeſaid:

And further we command you and your ſaid Deputies, or anie three or more of them as aforeſaid, that with all Diligence you and they doe execute the Premiſſes with effect, not ſuffering anie ſuch Perſon or Perſons as aforeſaid to paſſe without due Examination and Execution of this our Commiſſion.

And we doe further by theſe Preſents will and commaund you the ſaid Lord Warden and all and everie your Deputies, and alſo all and ſingular our Searchers and other our Officers Miniſters and Subjects whatſoever, That you, they, and everie of them, dulie obſerve and performe all and everie the Articles and Clauſes ſett down and expreſſed in our Inſtructions, concerning the further Government of the ſaid Paſſage at the ſaid Cinque Ports, to this our preſent Commiſſion annexed, as you, they, and every of them, tender our Service therein: and theſe Preſents ſhall be to you and them a ſufficient Warrant in that behalfe.

And we alſo command by Authority hereof all and ſingular our Juſtices of the Peace Maiors Sheriffs Bailiffs Conſtables Headboroughes, and all other our Officers Miniſters and Subjects to whome in this Caſe it ſhall or may appertaine, to be aiding helping and aſſiſting to you and to your ſaid Deputies, or anie three or more of them as aforeſaid, in the due Execution of this our Commiſſion, as they and everie of them tender our Pleaſure, and will anſwer the contrarie at their uttmoſt Perills.

In witnes whereof &c.

And yf anie Perſon or Perſons ſhall refuſe to take the ſaid Oath in the Caſes aforeſaid; and, having taken the Oath, ſhall refuſe to anſwere uppon their Oath directly and fully unto the Articles and Matters objected againſt them touching the Premiſſes or anie of them; Then it ſhall and may be lawfull to and for you, or anie three or more of you as is aforeſaid, and we doe give unto you, and everie three or more of you as is aforeſaid, full Power and Authoritie, by theis Preſents, in that behalfe, to apprehend, or cauſe ſuch Perſon or Perſons to bee areſted and apprehended, and commit them to Priſon, there to remaine in ſafe Cuſtody untill they have taken the ſaid Oath, and made full and directe Anſwere reſpectively unto the ſaid Articles and other things as aforeſaid, or otherwiſe to proceed againſt the ſaid Refuſors according to the Eccleſiaſtical Lawe in that behalfe.

And foraſmuch as if one commit an Offence of Eccleſiaſticall Cognizance in one Dioces or peculiar Juriſdiction, and afterwards departe and remaine in other Dioces or Juriſdiction, before anie Suite be therefore commenced or proſecuted in the Place where the Offence was committed, he is unpuniſhable by anie ordinarie Juriſdiction Eccleſiaſticall; We therefore, to provide that Offendors in thoſe Caſes may not eſcape without due Puniſhment, doe give Power and Authority unto you, or anie three or more of you as is aforeſaid, uppon the Certificate and Complaint thereof to you, or anie three or more of you as is aforeſaid, in that behalfe firſt made, by the Ordinary of the Dioces or Judge of the Peculier where the Offence was ſoe committed, to ſend for by Letters Miſſive, or to cauſe to be apprehended and brought before you, or anie three or more of you as is aforeſaid, by Proceſſe of Attachment (yf need be) in manner and forme aforeſaid, anie Offendor, or anie Perſon chardged or ſuſpected to have offended in anie Crime of Eccleſiaſticall Cognizance, other then thoſe which are before perticulerly mentioned; and when anie ſuch Offendors, or Perſons charged or ſuſpected to have offended in anie ſuch Crime as aforeſaid, ſhall appeare to be brought before you, or any ſuch three or more of you as is aforeſaid, to ſett downe ſuch Orders from tyme to tyme as you, or anie three or more of you as aforeſaid, ſhall in your Diſcretions thinke meete; which ſaid Orders ſoe by you, or anie three or more of you as is aforeſaid, to be made as aforeſaid, ſhall be to this effect onely; that the ſaid Offendors or Perſons chardged or ſuſpected to have offended as aforeſaid, ſhall perſonally appeare and anſwere to the ſaid Crimes according to the Lawes Eccleſiaſticall of this our Kingdome before the Ordinary or Judge Eccleſiaſticall of the Place where the Offence was committed; And likewiſe we give unto you, and to every ſuch three or more of you as is aforeſaid, full Power and Authority to take ſufficient Bonds or Recognizaunces to our Uſe, at your Diſcretions, of all and every the ſaid Offendors, or Perſons chardged or ſuſpected to have offended as aforeſaid, for the Performance of the ſaid Orders as aforeſaid: And yf the ſaid Offendors, or Perſons chardged or ſuſpected to have offended as aforeſaid, ſhall refuſe to performe your ſaid Orders in manner and forme aforeſaid, or to give Bonds to our Uſe for the Performance of the ſaid Orders as aforeſaid; then it ſhall and may be lawfull to and for you, or anie three or more of you as is aforeſaid, and wee doe give unto you, or anie three or more of you as is aforeſaid, by theis Preſents, full Power and Authority in that behalfe to puniſhe them and everie of them by reaſonable Impriſonment according to your Diſcretions.

And further wee doe give unto you, or anie three or more of you as is aforeſaid, full Power and Authority to take and ſeize, or cauſe to be taken or ſeized, ſuch Children and other Perſons which from tyme to tyme ſhall be carried or conveyed, or ready to be carried or conveyed, into anie the Partes beyond the Seas to the intent to be there brought up in the Romiſh Religion as aforeſaid, and likewiſe to take and ſeize, or cauſe to be taken and ſeized, ſuch Monie and other things which ſhall be appointed to be carried or conveyed into any the Parts beyond the Seas to and for the Mayntenance, either of the ſaid Children and other Perſon ſoe carryed or ready to be carryed or conveyed as aforeſaid, or of anie other Perſon or Perſons brought upp or remaining in the foreſaid Seminaries or Schooles of Romiſh Religion, and the ſaide Children and other Perſons, which ſhall be taken as is aforeſaid, to detaine them in ſafe Cuſtody till ſome good Order may be taken for them.

And alſoe Wee doe give unto you, or anie ſuch three or more of you as is aforeſaid, full Power and Authority to ſeize, or cauſe to be ſeized, all Maſſing Stuffe, Reliques or other ſuch like ſuperſtitious things, and to deface the ſame, and cauſe them to be defaced in ſuch manner as from thenceforth they may not ſerve for anie ſuperſtitious Uſe, without deſtroying the Subſtance thereof, except otherwiſe it cannot be defaced.

And foraſmuch as there have been divers lamentable Complaints and Petitions delivered, as well to our Selfe as to our Privie Counſell, by manie

Wives

Wives againſt their Husbands, wherein they have ſuggeſted that without anie juſt Cauſe of Offence given by them to their ſaid Husbands in that behalfe, and notwithſtanding that ſome of them have brought to their Huſbands greate Advancements, yet by their Husbands cruell and barbarous Uſage, and breach of the Bond of holie Wedlocke, and other their ungodly Demeanors, they have bin eyther caſt off or lefte by their Husbands, or forced to fly from them or leave their Cohabitation without fit Maintenance given unto them, and that the ordinary Eccleſiaſticall Courts did not aſford them tymely and fitt meanes of Releiſe for ſundry Reaſons, and eſpecially becauſe their Neceſſities require, above all other Caſes of Greivance, a ſummary Hearing and ſpeedy Releif, being otherwiſe often in Daunger to periſh for Want. Wee therefore, to the end that, as well our ſelfe as our Privy Councell, daily ymployed in the higheſt Affaires of State, might bee freed of this perticuler; and alſoe that the juſt Complaints and diſtreſſed Eſtates of ſuch Wives, in the Caſes aforeſaid, may be with all convenient Expedition heard determined and releeved in a certaine Courte whereunto in that behalfe they may ordinarily repaire for Juſtice, doe give unto you, and every ſuch three or more of you as is aforeſaid, full Power and Authority by theis Preſents in that behalfe, uppon every ſuch Complaint made unto you, or anie ſuch three or more of you as is aforeſaid, in all and every the Caſes aforeſaid, by any Wife, or in the behalfe of anie Wyfe, againſt her Huſband, to ſend for by Letters Miſſive, or to cauſe to be apprehended and brought before you, or anie ſuch three or more of you as is aforeſaid, by Proces of Attachment yf neede be in manner and forme aforeſaid, all and every ſuch Husband which, eyther by their cruell and barbarous Uſages, or by the Breach of the Bond of holy Wedlocke, or other their ungodly Demeanor, have or ſhall caſt off or leave their Wives, or force or give their Wives juſt Cauſe to flye from them, or leave their Cohabitation; And when anie ſuch Huſband or Husbands ſoe offending, or chardged or accuſed as aforeſaid to have offended in the caſes aforementioned, ſhall appear to be brought before you, or anie ſuch three or more of you as is aforeſaid, to proceed to the Examination thereof, by all and every the lawfull Wayes and Meanes before mentioned, with all convenient Expedition, according to the grave Wiſdomes and Diſcretions of you, or anie ſuch three or more of you as is aforeſaid;

And wee doe further give Power and Authority unto you, or anie five or more of you (whereof the ſaid Lords Archbiſhops of Canterbury and York, the Biſhops of London, Wincheſter, Durham, Peterburgh, Hereford, Worceſter, Norwich, Rocheſter, Lincolne, Coventry and Lichfeild, Bath and Wells, Bangor, Ely, Chicheſter, Oxford, Cheſter, Landaff, Salisbury, Exeter, St. Davids, Briſtoll, St. Aſſaph, Carliſle and Glouceſter, the Deans of Pauls and Weſtminſter, now and for the tyme being, and Sir Henry Martin to be alwaies one) finally to heare and determine in manner and form aforeſaid the ſaid Complaints and Accuſations made by or on the behalfe of anie Wife againſt her Husband in the Caſes aforeſaid; and yf you, or anie ſuch three or more of you as is firſt above mentioned, ſhall not be able by your godly and grave Councell and Perſwaſions to reconcile the ſaid Husbands and Wives, and cauſe the ſaid Wives to remitt and forgive the Wrongs which their ſaid Husbands have offered unto them, and to live together with their Husbands as Man and Wife ought to doe; then you, or any five or more of you (whereof the ſaid Lords Archbiſhopps of Canterbury and York, the Biſhopps of London, Wincheſter, Durham, Peterburgh, Hereford, Worceſter, Norwich, Rocheſter, Lincolne, Coventrye and Lichfeild, Bath and Wells, Bangor, Ely, Chicheſter, Oxford, Cheſter, Landaff, Salisburye, Exeter, St. Davids, Briſtoll, St. Aſaph, Carlile, and Glouceſter, nowe and for the tyme being, Sir Henry Martin, the Deanes of Pauls and Weſtminſter, nowe and for the tyme being to be alwaies one) to ſett downe ſuch Orders from tyme to tyme as you, or any ſuch five or more of you as is aforeſaid ſhall in your Diſcretions think meete, for the competent and reaſonable Alimonye and Maintenance of every ſuch Wife for ſo long tyme as you ſhall think meete and during the tyme of her and her Huſbands neceſſary living aſunder, and for the defraying of the Expences of Suite which every ſuch Wife hath or ſhall be at in the proſecuting of the ſaid Cauſe againſt her Husband in the Caſes aforeſaid:

And likewiſe Wee doe give unto you, and every ſuch five or more of you as is aforeſaid full Power and Authoritie to take ſufficient Bonds or Recognizances to our uſe, at your Diſcretions, of every ſuch Husband ſoe accuſed as aforeſaid, as well for his or their Appearance from time to time before you, or ſuch of you reſpectively in manner and forme aforeſaid as alſoe for the Performance of all and every your Order and Orders made in that behalfe of the ſaid Wives as aforeſaid; which Bonds or Recognizances, yf they refuſe to enter into, or ſhall refuſe to performe your ſaid Orders, then We give unto you or anie ſuch five or more of you as is aforeſaid, full Power and Authoritie in that behalf to puniſh the ſame Perſon or Perſons ſoe refuſing or not performing the ſame by Cenſures Eccleſiaſticall or by reaſonable Fine or Ympriſonment, or by all or any the ſaid meanes according to your Diſcretions.

And whereas there were divers Cathedrall or Collegiat Churches, Grammer Schooles, and other Eccleſiaſticall Corporations erected founded and ordeyned by the late King, of famous memory, King Henry the eight, and by the late King Edward the ſixt, and by the late Queen Mary and the Lord Cardinall Pool, and alſoe by the late Queen Elizabeth, where there are eyther no Ordinances Rules or Statuts att all or the ſame are altogether imperfect or ſome of them made at ſuch tymes as the Crowne and Regiment of this our Realme was ſubject to the forraign uſurped Authoritie of the Sea of Rome ſo as they cannot ſtand with the preſent State, being in divers Points uncerten, contrary, divers, and repugnant to the Dignitie and Prerogative of our Crowne, the Lawes of this our Realme, and the preſent State of Religion nowe eſtabliſhed within the ſame; Wee therefore do give full Power and Authoritie to you, and to every ſixe or more of you (of whom Wee will the Lords Archbiſhopps of Canterbury and Yorke, Lord Keeper, Lord Treaſurer, Lord Preſident, Lord Privie Seale, the Biſhops of London, Wincheſter, Durham, Peterburgh, Hereford, Worceſter, Norwich, Rocheſter, Lincolne, Coventry and Lichfeild, Bath and Wells, Bangor, Ely, Chicheſter, Oxford, Cheſter, Landaff, Salisbury, Exeter, St. Davids, Briſtoll, St. Aſaph, Carliſle, and Glouceſter, now and for the time being, Sir Henry Martin, the Dean of Pauls and Weſtminſter, now and for the time being, alwaies to be one) to cauſe and command in our Name all and ſinguler the Ordinances Rules and Statutes of all and every the ſaid Cathedrall and Collegiat Churches, Grammar Schooles and other Eccleſiaſticall Corporations, together with their ſeverall Letters Patents and other Writings touching or in anie wiſe concerning the ſeverall Erections and Foundations to be brought and exhibited before you, or any ſix or more of you as is aforeſaid; and upon the exhibiting and diligent and deliberate Viewe Search and Examination of the ſaid Statutes Rules and Ordinances Letters Patents and Writings as is aforeſaid, to purge alter and reforme the ſame, and alſo where noe Statutes are extant at all, or the ſame defective and imperfect, to deviſe and ſett down ſuch good Orders Statuts and Ordinances as you, or anie ſix or more of you as is aforeſaid, ſhall think meete and convenient to be by us confirmed and ratified allowed and ſett forth for the better Rule and Order of the ſaid ſeverall Churches Erections and Fundations and the Poſſeſſions and Revenues of the ſame, and as may beſt tend to the Honor of Almightie God, the Encreaſe of Pietie Vertue Learning and Unity, and the publique Weale and Tranquillitie of this Realm.

And further knowe ye that Wee do name aſſigne authoriſe depute and appoint, and by theſe Preſents do give full Power Authority and Juriſdiction to you and every three or more of you (whereof the Lords Archbiſhopps of Canterbury and Yorke, the Lord Keeper the Lord Treaſurer, Lord Preſident, Lord Privie Seale, the Biſhopps of London, Wincheſter, Durham, Peterburgh, Hereford, Worceſter, Norwich, Rocheſter, Lincolne, Coventry and Lichfeild, Bath and Wells, Bangor, Ely, Chicheſter, Oxford, Cheſter, Landaff, Saliſburye, Exeter, St. Davids, Briſtoll, St. Aſaph, Carlile, and Glouceſter, now and for the tyme being, Sir Henry Martin, the Deanes of Paules and Weſtminſter now and for the tyme being to be one) to tender or miniſter the Oath commonly called or knowne by the Name of the Oath of Supremacie, expreſſed and ſett forth in the ſaid Act of Parliament made in the ſaid firſt Yeare of the Raign of the ſaid late Queen Elizabeth, intituled,

A Proclamation for Reſtraint of Killing, Dreſſing and Eating of Fleſhe in Lent, or on Fiſhe Daies appointed by the Lawe to be hereafter ſtrictlye obſerved by all ſorts of People.

A.D.1625. Pat. 22. J. I. p. 4. n 5. Whereas, for the Benefit and Commoditye of this our Realm of England, as well in the Maintaynance of our Navy and Shipping (a principall Strengthe of this Iſland) as for the ſparing and encreaſe of Fleſhe Victuall, divers good Lawes and Statutes have been provyded for the due Obſervation of Lent, and other Dayes appointed for Fiſhe Dayes, which from tyme to tyme have been ſeconded and quickned by ſondry our Proclamations and other Acts and Ordynaunces of State.

A.D. 1625. 22 Jac. I.

And whereas, notwithſtanding the many good Proviſions heretofore had and made in that kynde, wee yet find the inordinate Liberty nowe uſually taken by all ſorts of People to kill eat and dreſſe Fleſhe in the Lente Seaſon, and on other Dayes and Tymes prohibited by Lawe, is become an Evill of ſuch inveterate Growth as it requireth more than ordinary Care to ſuppreſſe the ſame; Wee therefore, muche affecting the Reformation of this ſoe great an Evil (an Enimy to the Plenty of our Kyngdomes) have thoughte fitte eftſoones and thus tymely, the better to take away the Excuſe, and to prevente the Proviſions of Fleſhe that uſually Men make againſte the Lente Seaſon, to expreſſe our ſelfe and our Royall Commaundement in this behalfe, wherein without any future Declaration of our Pleaſure in this kynde, wee ſhall expecte and require from all our Subjects that due Notice be taken, and that a ſtrict and continued Obedience and Conformitye bee yielded thereunto in all ſucceeding Tymes.

And therefore wee doe ſtraightly chardge and commaund all and every Perſon and Perſons whatſoever to whome yt may appertayne, carefully to provide and ſee that theis Orders following may be duly obſerved and put in Execution, uppon Payne of our high Diſpleaſure, and ſuche Penalties as by the Lawes of this our Realm may be inflicted uppon the Offendors for theire Contempte or Neglecte of Us and our Lawes, whereof we ſhall ſhewe our ſelves moſte ſenſible.

And firſte, whereas wee finde that the cheifeſt Cauſe of theis Diſorders hath growne from the Licences that have been graunted to Butchers to kill and utter Fleſh contrarye to Law, and that by our Lawes noe Maior Juſtice of Peace or other Perſon, of what Degree or Quality ſoever, can graunt any Licence in that kynde; and that the Lords, and others of our Privy Councell, doe by our Direction forbeare to graunte the ſame or give way thereunto; Our Will and Pleaſure is, uppon the Penalties provided by Law, and ſuch other Puniſhments to be inflicted uppon the Offenders as ſhall be thought meete, that noe ſuch Licence ſhall be graunted for the killing or utteringe of Fleſhe; And that noe Butcher or other Perſon whatſoever doe, by cullour thereof, kill utter or put to Sale any Fleſhe contrary to the Lawes eſtabliſhed and provided in that behalfe.

And for the avoyding of ſuch Inconvenyences hereafter, our Will and Pleaſure ys, That the Lord Mayor of our Citty of London, and every other Officer and Juſtice of Peace, ſhall call before them and ſend for any of the Servaunts of any Inhoulders Victuallers Cookes Alehouſekeepers Taverners and Keepers of Ordinary Tables, and ſuch others that utter Victualls, and to examyne them uppon theire Corporall Oathes what Fleſhe is or hath been during the Lent Seaſon, or other Dayes prohibited by the Lawe, dreſſed kylled uttered or eaten in their Houſes; which if they ſhall refuſe to doe, then to committe to Priſon the ſaid Servaunts ſoe refuſing uppon their Oathes to declare the Truth;

That the Lord Mayor ſhall alſo yearlie before Lent, or at the beginning thereof, cauſe all Inhoulders Keepers of Ordinary Tables Victuallers Alehouſekeepers and Taverners within the Cittye and Libertyes thereof, to appeare before him, or ſuch Perſons as hee ſhall appointe meete for that purpoſe; And ſhall take Recognizances with ſufficient Sureties of every of them in good Sommes of Money; videlicet, One hundred Pounds of the Principall, and theire Sureties Thirtie Poundes a piece to our Uſe, not to dreſſe any Fleſhe in theire Houſes in the Lent tyme, or at other tymes prohibited, for any reſpecte; nor ſuffer it to be eaten contrary to Lawe: The like Recognizance with Suretyes ſhall be taken of the like Parties uppon like Penalties by the Juſtices of Peace of our Citty of Weſtminſter and the Libertyes thereof; and every of the ſaide Recognizances to be certifyed into our Exchequer.

And for the Butchers and others that come with Victualls of Fleſh out of the Country into the Cittye, our Pleaſure is, that the Lord Mayor ſhall cauſe certayne Perſons to watche at the Gates and other like Places in the Suburbs, where Fleſh may be brought, to view and ſearch and to intercept the ſame; And if any of thoſe Watchmen ſhall be found negligent and corrupte in his Chardge, then hee to be committed to Priſon dureing the whole Lent.

And to the ende that Fiſhermen may ymploye themſelves to Sea with better Encouragement then heretofore, and that the Fiſhmongers may furniſh

themſelves

themſelves with ſuch Store from time to time as hereafter ſhall be expedient as well for the Proviſion of the Cittye, as for ſelling the ſame at reaſonable Rates, wee will that they take notice of this our Commaundement and conſtant Reſolution for the Obſervance of Lent and Fiſhe Daies both nowe and hereafter as by Lawe is required.

And furthermore, as Wee thincke it fitte that every Man ſhoulde bee a Rule of Order and Abſtinence in his owne Houſe, as well in reſpecte of the publique as of his private Eaſe and Benefitt, ſo Wee ſtraightlye charge and commaunde all Inhoulders Keepers of Ordinary Tables Victuallers Alehouſekeepers and Taverners not to make any Supper for any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, uppon Friday Nightes, either in Lente or out of Lent, nor to ſuffer any Meate to be then dreſſed uttered ſoulde or eaten in theire Houſes, uppon Payne of ſuch Puniſhment as is due for thoſe that ſhall contemne our Royall Pleaſure and Commaundement.

And foraſmuch, as uppon further Adviſe and Conſideration had, that the Reſtrainte of killing and dreſſing of Fleſhe is noe ſufficient Remedye for the Miſchiefe, unles there be better Care alſoe taken to ſuppreſſe the unlawfull and inordinate eating of Fleſh in the tyme of Lent, and on other Dayes and Tymes prohibited, wherewith our Subjects have accuſtomed themſelves rather for Delicacye then for Neceſſitye, It is therefore our Royall Will and Pleaſure, and accordinglye wee doe heereby ſtraightlye prohibite and forbidd all our Subjects, of what Degree or Quality ſoever, within this our Realme, to eate any manner of Fleſhe in the tyme of Lent, or on other Dayes now uſually obſerved as Fiſhe Dayes, without a ſpeciall Licence firſt obteyned from the Biſhop of the Dioceſſe, or ſuch other as by the Lawe have Power to give Licence in that behalfe, which wee will and commaunde ſhall be ſparingly granted and in Caſes of Neceſſitye only, uppon Payne of our highe Diſpleaſure, and to be proceeded againſte by our Attorney Generall in our Courte of Starchamber as Contemners of our Royall Commaundement, and uppon ſuche further Penaltye as by the Laws and Statutes of our Realm may be inflicted on thoſe that ſhall willfullye offend in this kinde.

And as theis Orders are to be executed in our Cittye of London and Places neere to the ſame, ſoe it is our expreſſe Pleaſure and Commaundement, that our Juſtices of Peace in all Shires within their Rule; and all other Mayors Bayliffes and chiefe Officers in Townes Corporat, or in any Libertyes within their Precincts ſhall cauſe the ſame to be obſerved and performed in like manner, and that noe manner of Tolleration Favoure or Connivencye be uſed by any Juſtice of Peace or other Officer contrary to the true Meaning of this our Proclamation, as both they that ſhall preſume wittinglie ſoe to tollerate the Offence as alſoe the Party himſelf offending, will anſwere the ſame at theire uttermoſt Perills; our Commaundement being that our Lawes in this Caſe ſhall be heerea fer ſeverely executed uppon all Offendors whatſoever, Further chardging and commanding the Lord Mayor of our Cittye of London the Juſtices of Aſſize in their ſeveral Circuits, the Mayors and cheife Officers of all other Cittyes and Townes Corporate, Juſtices of Peace, Lords of Liberties, and all other Officers and Miniſters within the ſeverall Countyes of this our Realme that they and every of them fully obey this our Pleaſure, and cauſe and compell the ſame to be obeyed and executed by others, as they will aunſwer the contrary at theire uttermoſt Perills.

And for the due Execution of the Premiſſes in all other the Countyes of this our Realme as well as in our Cittyes of London and Weſtminſter, wee doe hereby ſtrayghtlye chardge and commaunde all our Juſtices of Peace within the ſame Countyes as well within Libertyes as without, that yerely and every Yere hereafter before Lent, they cauſe to come and appeare before them, all Inhoulders Cookes Taverners Alehouſekeepers Butchers and other Victuallers whatſoever, and to require and take of them to our uſe ſeverall Recognizances with Sureties for obſervation of the Premiſſes; videlicet, the Principall in tenn Pounds and theire two Sureties in five Pounds a piece; and if they ſhall refuſe or neglecte to enter into ſuch Recognizances, then the ſaid Juſtices ſhall ſuppreſſe ſuch Perſons ſoe refuſing from victualling any more and ſhall alſoe cauſe them forthwith to become bound by Recognizaunce with Sureties to

Uſe; videlicet, The Principall in Twentye Poundes, and theire twoe Sureties in Tenn Poundes a piece, not to victuall or ſell Beare or Ale from henceforth; which if they ſhall refuſe to do, then the Juſtices to committe to Priſon all ſuch Perſons ſo refuſing to enter into ſuche Recognizances untill they ſhall ſubmitte themſelves and become bound as aforeſaide.

And further, for all ſuche Inhoulders Cookes Taverners Alehouſekeepers Butchers and other Victuallers as ſhall not appeare before the ſaid Juſtices as aforeſaide; That they ymmediately ſend forth theire Warrants or graunte Proces againſte them, or any of them ſoe making defaulte to appeare, and aunſweare their Contempt at the nexte Generall Seſſions of the Peace.

And further, for the more due Puniſhment of Inhoulders Keepers of Ordinary Tables Cookes Butchers Victuallers Alehouſekeepers Taverners and ſuch like, who ſhall forfeite their Recognizaunces by killing or dreſſing of Fleſhe, or ſuffering it to be eaten in theire Houſes in the Lent Tyme and other Fiſhe Dayes: And to the end that the ſame may be as well taken in due forme of Lawe as duly certified into our Exchequer, wee doe will and require all Juſtices of Peace, as well within Libertyes as without, That at ſuch Tymes as they ſhall meete within theire ſeverall Diviſions for the taking of ſuch Recognizances, that they give Notice to the Clerkes of the Peace or theire Deputies to attend them for that purpoſe, of whome wee will require a ſtricte Accompt for the legall taking and retorning of the ſame Recognizaunces into our ſaid Exchequer; The ſaid Clerkes of the Peace and theire Deputies taking for the making and certifyeing the ſame Recognizances of all Innkeepers Taverners Cookes and Butchers the Fee of Twoe Shillings ſix Pence, and of all Alehouſekeepers the Fee of Twelve Pence, as is lymitted to be taken by the Clerk of the Peace for our County of Middleſex for every ſuch Recognizance and noe more.

A.D.1625. 22 Jac. I.

And laſtly, for that the Fiſhemongers uppon the Obſervation of the aforeſaide Orders may perhapps take occaſion thereby to inhaunce the Prices, as well of Freſhe as of Sea Fiſhe, we do therefore hereby further charge and commaund all Fiſhmongers whatſoever, that they ſell and utter theire Fiſh at moderate and uſuall Rates and Prices; And that all Juſtices of the Peace Mayors Bayliffs and other our Officers, as well within Lybertyes as without, to whome it ſhall appertayne, ſhall from tyme to tyme take ſuch Order with the ſaide Fiſhmongers that our Subjects be not grieved by any ſuch Enhancement, or Increaſe of Prices uppon Fiſhe uppon Payne of our highe Diſpleaſure and ſuch further Puniſhment as may be inflicted uppon them by our Lawes.

Witnes our ſelf at Newmarket the ſeaventh Day of February.

A Proclamation for the utter Prohibiting the Importation and Uſe of all Tobacco which is not of the proper Growth of the Collonyes of Virginia and the Sommer Iſlands or one of them.

A.D.1625. Pat.22. J.1. p.4. n.2.

WHEREAS at the humble Suite of our Commons in Parliament by our Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the Nyne and twentith Day of September now laſt paſt, for the Reaſons therein contayned, We have prohibited the Importation and Uſe of all Tobacco, which is not of the proper Growth of our Collonies of Virginia and the Sommer Iſlands, or one of them.

And whereas, uppon the humble Petition of many our loving Subjects being Planters or Adventurers in thoſe Collonies, and for the Supporte and Incouragement of thoſe Plantations, whoſe proſperous Eſtate We much affecte, and ſhall by all good meanes be always ready to cheriſh and protect, We have been contented to tollerate the Uſe of Tobacco of the Growth of thoſe Plantations for a tyme, until by more ſolid Commodityes they be able to ſubſiſte otherwiſe, which, as We are informed, they cannot as yet by any meanes do; And therefore by our ſaid

A.D.1625. 22 Jac. I. ſaid Proclamation We did thincke fitt to give perticuler Directions in many things tending to thoſe ends; and did ſtreightly commaund the due Execution and Obſervation thereof under the Penalties therein contained. Now becauſe Wee have been informed, as well by the humble Certificate of our Commiſſioners for Virginia, as by the humble Petition of divers of our loveing Subjects the Planters and Adventurers of and in thoſe Collonies, that notwithſtanding our Royall Pleaſure was ſo expreſly ſignified, and the reaſons of State are ſo plainly layed down as might have perſwaded every well affected Subjecte to the due Obſervation thereof; yet divers, out of an inordinate Deſire of private Gayne; have willfully diſobeyed our Commaundement herein, and thereby have indeavoured as much as in them lyeth to deſtroye ſoe noble a Work as the ſupport of thoſe Plantations which ſoe much concernes our Honor and the Honor and Proffitt of our People, Wee therefore being very ſenſible of this Neglecte and Contempte, have thoughte good to renewe our ſaid Proclamation,

And doe hereby ſignifie and declare unto all our loving Subjects, and unto all others our expreſſe Will and Pleaſure to be, that our ſaid former Proclamation, and every Clauſe Prohibition Article and Thing therein contayned, ſhall from henceforth be duly obſerved and obeyed, with ſuch Alterations and Conditions as are in theſe Preſents contained and expreſſed, uppon Payne of our highe Diſpleaſure, and ſuch Penalties and Puniſhments as in our ſaid former Proclamation are, or in theſe Preſents ſhall be lymitted or appointed for the Offendors thereof.

And whereas ſome have ſince our ſaide laſt Proclamation unmarchantlike ſeacretlye and cunningly ſtoln in greate Parcells of Tobacco, contrary to our ſaide Proclamation, We would have thoſe Perſons, and all others by theire Example, knowe that they muſt expecte the Severity of that Cenſure which our Courte of Starchamber ſhall thincke fitte to inflicte upon them, and that wee are reſolved not to relent or remitte theire deſerved Puniſhments, but to cauſe them and all others that dare to offende heerein to be proſecuted and puniſhed in ſuch meaſure as ſuch theire high Contempt doth deſerve.

A.D.1625. 22 Jac. I. And becauſe Wee conceived it woulde be utterlie in vayne to prohibite the Ymportation of ſuch forraine Tobacco as aforeſaid, unles the Care and Chardge of the Execution thereof were committed by Us to ſome fitte and able Perſons, whoe beſides theire Reſpecte to our Service might for theire own particular Intereſt take the ſame to Harte; therefore wee have by our Letters Patents under our Great Seale of England, authorized certain Perſons Citizens of London well affected to thoſe Plantations and to our Service, by themſelves and their Deputies to ſearch and inquire into the Offences and Offendors againſt our ſaid Proclamation, and Wee have alſo contracted with them to be our Agents for Us, and to our Uſe to receive the Tobacco of thoſe Collonyes at and for ſuch Prices as we have agreed to give for the ſame; and beſides thoſe Prices to be given to the Planters and Owners of the ſaid Tobacco, our ſaid Agents have further contracted with Us, to give and pay unto Us and to our uſe ſuch Sommes of Money more as may give Us reaſonable Satisfaction for that Loſſe which otherwiſe wee ſhould ſuſtayn in our Cuſtoms and other Duties, and may enable us to bear that charge which we have undertaken yerely to diſburſe for the generall Defence and Support of thoſe Plantations.

And wee doe further, by this our Proclamation, publiſhe and declare that wee will conſtantlye and inviolablye obſerve and peforme our ſaid Contracte and on our Parts will allow and diſburſe out of our Revenue thoſe Sommes of Money for the Safety of thoſe Plantations and for the Eaſe of the Planters and Inhabitants there, which by the ſaid Contracte hath been on our Parts undertaken; whereof we would have as well our ſaid Agents as the Planters and Adventurers in thoſe Collonyes, and all other whom it may concerne, to reſt confidently aſſured.

And becauſe Wee are given to underſtand that divers uſeing to trade in Tobacco, and having a purpoſe to ymporte or buy or ſell the ſame contrary to the Intent of this our Proclamation doe uſually land the ſame at private Wharfes Staires or other Places, and ſende or conveye the ſame unto the Houſes Cellers Warehouſes or other Places of or belonging to others whoe are leſſe ſuſpected then themſelves, thereby to conceale the ſame from Us and our Agents, Wee further will and commaunde, that from henceforth noe Perſon whatſoever preſume to ſuffer the ſaid prohibited Tobacco to be landed at any Wharſe Staire or other Place, nor receive or conceale any ſuch prohibited Tobacco, or ſuffer the ſame to be beſtowed in any of theire Houſes Cellers Warehouſes or other Places, upon Payne of our high Diſpleaſure, and uppon ſuch Paynes and Penalties as by this or our former Proclamation are to be inflicted uppon the principall Offenders:

And to th'Intent that all the prohibited Tobacco brought in ſhall be juſtly and truly exported agayne, and noe parte thereof ſoulde or vented within theis our Kingdomes, our Will and Command is, that all the prohibited Tobacco whiche ſhall be ſeized within our Kingdome of England ſhall be broughte or delivered into the Warehouſe which ſhall be to that purpoſe provided by the ſaid Agents in our Cittye of London, and all the prohibited Tobacco which ſhall be ſeized within our Kingdome of Ireland, ſhall be broughte and delivered into the Warehouſes or Storehouſes which ſhall be to that purpoſe appointed by our Agents in our Cittye of Dublyn or elſewhere within our ſaid Kingdome of Ireland,

And for the Incouragement of thoſe whoe ſhall take Paynes in the Diſcovery and Seizing thereof, our Will and Pleaſure is, that the one halfe of the reaſonable value thereof ſhall be paid unto the Seizers thereof in Money by our Agents, and the Tobacco it ſelfe ſhall be exported againe by our ſaide Agents or by their Appointments

And for the better Execution of our Service herein, wee doe hereby give full Power and Authoritye, as well to our Agent and Agents, as to theire Deputye and Deputyes, at all tyme and tymes to enter into and ſearch for any prohibited Tobacco contrarye to this our Proclamation in any Shippe Boate or Veſſell, or in any Houſe Shoppe Cellar Warehouſe, or in any Truncke Cheſt Caſe Barrell or back Cabbyn, or any other ſuſpected Place whatſoever; and finding any ſuch prohibited Tobacco, the ſame to ſeize and carrye away to be conveyed to ſuch Place or Warehouſe as our ſaid Agents ſhall appointe for that purpoſe as aforeſaide.

And our expreſſe Will and Command is, that neither our ſaide Agents, nor any others, doe ſell or utter any part of the ſaid prohibited Tobacco within any our owne Dominions there to be ſpent and uſed whereby the vente of the Tobacco of our Collonyes aforeſaid may any way be hindred uppon Payne of our heavy Diſpleaſure, and of ſuch other Payns and Penalties as other Offendors againſt this our Proclamation are lyable unto.

And whereas by our former Proclamation Wee did commaunde, that from and after the five and twentith Day of Marche then and nowe next enſueing, noe Perſon ſhould ſell utter or offer to put to Sale or uſe any Tobacco which is not of the proper Growth of the Collonies aforeſaide, and before the end of fortye Daies then next enſueing, ſhould tranſporte out of our ſaid Kingdome all other Tobacco then that of the Grouth of thoſe Colonies, Wee doe nowe by this our Proclamation ratifie and confirme the ſame and commaunde the ſame to be duly put in Execution; and to the end there may be noe Evaſion uſed to avoyde the ſame, Wee doe hereby give full Power and Commaundment to our ſaide Agents by themſelves and theire Deputies, at any tyme or tymes after the ſaid five and twentith Day of March now next enſueing, to ſearch for the ſaide prohibited Tobacco, and to take a true exacte Noate and Accompte of the Qualitye thereof to the ende that the Owners thereof, before the end of fortie Daies nexte enſueing after the ſaid five and twentith Day of March, either by themſelves or ſome others may exporte the ſame, by the Privity of the ſaid Agents, according to the true Intent of this and of our ſaid former Proclamation, and at the end of the ſaid forty Daies may give juſt Accompte unto our Agents what is become thereof; and whatſoever Tobacco, which is not of the proper Grouth of the Plantations aforeſaide, ſhall after the ſaide fortie Daies be founde in the Hands of any Perſon whatſoever ſhall be ſeized by our ſaid Agents or theire Deputyes to our uſe, and the ſaid Perſon or Perſons having or uſing the ſame, ſhall incurre our highe Diſpleaſure and be ſubjecte to ſuch further Paynes and Penalties as by our ſaid former Proclamation are to be inflicted uppon any other Offenders.

And our further Will and Commaunde is, that all the Tobacco of the Grouth of our Collonies aforeſaide, ſhall be brought to the Cuſtomehouſe Keye of our Porte of London, and there be delivered to our Agents or their Aſſignees to our uſe, according to our Contract aforeſaid, or be kepte in our ſaid Cuſtomhouſe to be tranſported out of our Domynions, and whatſoever Tobacco, of the Grouth of thoſe Plantations or either of them, ſhall not be brought to that Key and be delivered as aforeſaid, or for which there ſhall not be good Security given to our Agents within fourteene Daies after the Landing thereof to exporte the ſame as aforeſaide, the ſame ſhall be forfeited and ſeized to our uſe by our Agents or their Deputies as other prohibited Tobacco, and this to be duly obſerved under the Pains and Penalties aforeſaid.

And whereas Wee are given to underſtand, that divers uſing to trade in Tobacco have, and ſtill doe ſeacretly and under hand ſteale into our Kingdoms the ſaid prohibited Tobacco, and doe ſoe privily hyde and conceale the ſame, that they cannot be eaſily diſcovered nor found out, and doe either by themſelves or others by them to that purpoſe ymployed, carrye the ſame by ſmalle Quantityes to the Houſes or Shoppes of our Subjects inhabiting within our ſaid Kingdomes, and doe ſell or proffer the ſame to be ſoulde, or elſe doe ſecretlye or covertlye offer to contract for the Sale of ſuch prohibited Tobacco, our Will and Pleaſure is, and We doe hereby ſtreightlye chardge and commaund all and every our loveing Subjects to whome any the ſaid prohibited Tobacco ſhall be offered to be ſoulde or contracted for as aforeſaide, that ymmediatlye uppon the Sight of any the ſaid prohibited Tobacco, or uppon offer to contracte for any ſuch Tobacco, they make Staye thereof, and of ſuch Perſon or Perſons as ſhall either proffer the ſame to ſell, or ſhall offer to contracte for anye the ſaid prohibited Tobacco, and that they and every of them whoe ſhall have the ſaid prohibited Tobacco ſoe proffered unto them to be ſoulde as aforeſaide, ſhall give notice thereof, and chardge the next Conſtable Hedborrowe or other Officer with ſuch Perſon or Perſons whoe ſhall offer to put the ſame to Sale, uppon Payne of our highe Diſpleaſure, and of ſuch other Paynes and Penalties as other Offenders againſte this our Royall Proclamation are lyable unto.

A.D.1625.
22 Jac. I.

And We doe hereby further charge and commaund all and ſinguler Conſtables Hedborrowes and other our Officers aforeſaide, that they and every of them, uppon notice to them given of any ſuch prohibited Tobacco as aforeſaide, or of any ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſoe offending as aforeſaide, that they ſeize the ſaid Tobacco, and deteyne all ſuch Perſon and Perſons ſoe offending, as they ſhall have Knowledge of, untill they have given notice thereof unto our ſaid Agents or theire Deputye or Deputyes, and untill by theire meanes the Perſon offending may be broughte before ſuch Officer as hath Power by this our Proclamation to take ſufficient Bond for the Appearance of ſuch Perſon in ſome of our Courts of Juſtice to aunſweare for theire Faults as the ſame ſhall deſerve.

And for the better finding out and diſcovery of the Offences and Offenders againſte our former and this our Proclamation, Wee are well pleaſed and do hereby require and command, that our Treaſorer, Commiſſioners for our Treaſury, Chauncellor and Barons of our Exchequer, nowe and for the tyme being, within our ſaid Kingdomes of England and Ireland reſpectively, ſhall and may awarde ſuch and ſoe many Commiſſions as they ſhall thinke meete to be directed to diſcreete and fitte Perſons in all or any our Ports or elſewhere, to enquire and examyne uppon Oath or otherwiſe all ſuch Perſons as are or ſhall be ſuſpected to have heretofore offended, or which hereafter ſhall offende againſt this or our former Proclamation in this behalfe; or any other Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, for the finding out and diſcovery of the ſaid Offences and Offenders as is before mentioned; to the end that, as well the Ymporters of ſuch Tobacco, as the Buyers Sellers Spenders Receivers and Concealers thereof, may receive ſuch condigne Puniſhments, by Fyne or otherwiſe, for theire Offences, as by our Courte of Starchamber, or Courte of Exchequer ſhall be thoughte fitte: And in Caſe ſuch Tobacco ſhall not or cannot be taken or founde to be ſeized, that then every ſuch Offender ſhall forfeite and paye to the Hands of our Agent or Agents in this behalf for our uſe, the full value of ſuch Tobacco as the ſaide Offendors heretofore have or hereafter ſhall have imported boughte ſould vented or received ceived as aforeſaide, beſides ſuch further Puniſhment as ſhall be fitt to be inflicted upon them for their Contempt.
